

Index

A

Abuja Conferences

revenue sharing and, 127

ACG project. See Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli project

Addis Ababa Agreement on the Problem of South Sudan ending of the first civil war, 119

oil wealth distribution and, 120, 126

Southern Regional People's Assembly, 126

text, 188 *n*281

Africa. See also specific countries and regions international oil industry investment in, 15–16, 166 *n*11

major African oil and gas producers (table), 16

U.S. Department of State examination of the impact of oil wealth, 44

Ahmad, Ehtisan

sub-national revenue sharing, 46, 171 *n*84

Alaska

Alaska Permanent Fund, 46, 171 *n*85 long-term contracts for oil companies, 27

oil fund, 45

Alberta, Canada

direct distribution of oil revenue, 46–47

oil fund, 45

Algeria

oil and gas production, 16

Aliev, Pres. Heydar

Nagorno-Karabakh War and, 83

n preceding number indicates note

-
- Aliev, Pres. Ilham
 - Nagorno-Karabakh War and, 83
 - Alkatiri, Prime Minister Mari
 - East Timor oil resources, 3
 - Alvor Accords
 - signing of, 95
 - American Petroleum Institute
 - social and environmental reporting guidelines, 71
 - Amnesty International
 - Statoil support for, 68
 - Angola. See also Cabinda; Sonangol
 - allocation of revenues to producing areas and, 105, 185 *n*241
 - Alvor Accords, 95
 - Bicesse Accords, 97
 - capture of Soyo by UNITA and recapture by MPLA, 101
 - civil war, 8, 93, 95–98
 - civilian involvement in the civil war, 96
 - “code of practice” development, 162
 - Cold War powers’ and proxies’ support for the civil war, 8, 95–96, 101, 143, 144, 181
*n*187
 - constitutional reform, 106, 109
 - corruption and, 103, 106
 - deep and ultradeep block oil exploration, 99
 - diamond industry and, 67, 97, 100, 106
 - disclosure of oil concession terms, 106–107
 - domestic exploration and production, 26, 100
 - economic changes after independence, 99–100
 - elections and, 97, 106, 109
 - employment of local people and purchase of local goods and services by oil companies, 108
 - estimate of Angola’s gross national income per capita, 103
 - exclusive economic zone oil fields, 99, 145
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65, 104–105
 - government revenue from oil, 3, 40, 100
 - human toll of the civil war, 97–98
 - IMF support, 48, 103
 - impact management, 107–109
 - importance of maintaining the flow of oil, 100–101, 183 *n*213
 - increase in oil production, 8, 146
 - independent and state-owned oil companies and, 32–33, 99
 - interaction of oil and conflict, 100–102, 113
 - international oil industry investment in, 15
 - Liquefied Natural Gas Plant in Soyo, 108
 - local impact of the oil industry, 107–109
 - Luena Memorandum of Understanding, 97

- Lusaka Protocol, 96, 97
- map, 94
- Ministry of Finance report on the petroleum sector, 104, 185 *n*241
- need for oil companies to collaborate with provincial government and local civil society, 112
- New York Accords, 96
- offshore fields, 32, 50, 99
- oil and gas industry profile (table), 34–35
- oil and gas production, 16
- oil as a source of funds for conflict, 42
- oil as percentage of GDP, 100
- oil companies and revenue management, 106–107
- oil industry in, 99–100, 113
- ongoing oil exploration, 99, 183 *n*205
- onshore development, 111
- partnership between aid donors and corporations, 68
- percentage of U.S. oil imports, 99
- postwar reconstruction, 109–112
- poverty reduction strategy, 109
- pressure from NGOs about oil revenues, 106
- revenue management, 8–9, 102–107, 148
- revenue transparency and, 11, 102–106, 110, 148, 158
- scandals about oil-backed loans and bribes to secure oil concessions, 106
- self-contained “oil bases” that service offshore operations, 100
- state-owned oil company involvement in, 99
- Strategy to Combat Poverty, 98
- super major and major oil company involvement in, 99
- suspension of oil production in Cabinda, 100–101, 183 *n*213
- war-related crimes and grievances and, 106
- World Bank Transitional Support Strategy and, 103–104
- Annan, UN Secretary-General Kofi
 - Global Compact and, 57
- Araz-Alov-Sharg project
 - halting of exploration due to a territorial dispute with Iran, 179 *n*157
- Armenia
 - Nagorno-Karabakh War and, 77–79
 - pipeline through, 81–82
- ATCA. See U.S. Alien Tort Claims Act
- Australia
 - oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 170 *n*74
- Azerbaijan. See also specific oil companies and projects
 - Araz-Alov-Sharg project, 179 *n*157
 - business case for active peacebuilding, 90–91, 154, 181 *n*183
 - Caspian Development Advisory Panel, 89, 90, 181 *n*182
 - corruption and governance issues, 83–85

- disruption of farming activity during pipeline construction, 87
- dissolution of the Soviet Union and, 79–80
- domestic exploration and production, 9, 26
- Environmental and Social Action Plans monitoring system, 89, 90, 181 *n*182
- environmental and social impact considerations, 86–90
- environmental protection and impact assessment in agreements for ACG, Shah Deniz, and BTC projects, 87
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65, 84
- government revenue from oil, 40–41
- historical background of the oil industry, 79–81
- IMF and World Bank policies and, 83–84
- IMF support, 48
- increase in oil production, 146
- international attention impact on conflict prevention, 91, 162
- international oil industry investment in, 9, 15, 17
- local impact and conflict risk, 86–90, 92
- long-term contracts for oil companies, 27
- map, 76
- Nagorno-Karabakh War, 9, 10, 77–79, 81–83, 90–91, 144, 148
- offshore fields, 32, 50
- oil and gas industry profile (table), 34–35
- oil companies and revenue management, 85–86
- Open Society Institute monitoring, 89, 90
- peak oil production and revenue, 82, 92
- percentage of global resources of oil and gas, 80
- pipelines, 80, 86–87
- policies to avoid the “curse of oil,” 83–84, 92
- production-sharing contracts, 80
- Project Lenders’ Group for project financing, 87–88, 89
- publication of PSAs, intergovernmental agreements, and host-government agreements, 84
- resumption of armed conflict association with oil revenue, 82
- revenue management and conflict risk, 81–86, 148
- security for pipelines, 87
- standards for impact assessment, public consultation and disclosure, 88, 157
- State Oil Company of Azerbaijan, 31, 80
- State Oil Fund, 48, 83, 84, 148, 157
- State Program on Poverty Reduction and Economic Development, 84
- Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and, 64, 88
- Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli project
 - “Contract of the Century,” 80, 81, 83
 - efforts of companies to support revenue management, 85–86
 - environmental protection and impact assessment in agreements, 87
 - financing, 87–88

- international companies with shares in the consortia to develop Azerbaijan's oil fields, 85–86, 179 *n*160
- local environmental and social impact, 86–90
- publication of PSAs, intergovernmental agreements, and host-government agreements, 84
- State Oil Company of Azerbaijan and, 80
- time-scale and investment costs, 31

B

- Baku Enterprise Center
 - BP support for, 89
- Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan pipeline
 - cost of, 80
 - efforts of companies to support revenue management, 85–86
 - environmental protection and impact assessment in agreements, 87
 - financing, 87–88
 - international companies with shares in the consortia to develop Azerbaijan's oil fields, 85–86, 179 *n*160
 - leveraging strengths and weaknesses in, 161
 - local environmental and social impact, 86–90
 - NGO project investigating conflict implications, 83
 - press coverage of the opening and concerns about the upcoming elections, 181 *n*183
- Barber, Karin
 - oil wealth in Nigeria, 51
- Bhopal chemical plant explosion
 - deaths and injuries from, 56
- Bicesse Accords
 - Angolan civil war cease-fire and, 97
- Bildt, Carl
 - meeting with Sudan peace negotiators, 138–139
- Botswana
 - example of oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 44, 170 *n*74
- “Boycott Shell” campaign, 22, 58
- BP
 - analysis of the oil industry in Azerbaijan, 75
 - Angolan holdings, 107, 154, 158
 - Azerbaijan oil field operations, 80–81, 85–86, 157–158, 159
 - Baku Enterprise Center and, 89, 160
 - business development alliances in Azerbaijan, 89
 - Caspian Development Advisory Panel, 89
 - conflict prevention strategies in Azerbaijan, 88–89
 - environmental and social impact assessment, 135
 - estimates of total development costs for Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli oil fields, 31
 - human rights abuses and, 58–59, 156
 - regional development initiative in Azerbaijan, 89

- support for House for Peace and Justice, 68
- Tanggung project, 156
- Brazil
 - involvement in Angolan oil industry, 99
 - state-owned oil company international investment, 20, 23, 26
- Brinkman, Inge
 - civilian involvement in the Angolan civil war, 96
- BTC pipeline. See Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan pipeline
- Burma
 - alleged human rights abuses in, 59
- Business & Human Rights
 - human rights policies of oil companies, 59
- “The Business of Peace” (Nelson), 65–66
- C
- Cabinda
 - Angolan government plans for economic and social development projects, 105
 - Cabinda Forum for Dialogue, 98
 - Chevron Texaco oil spills, 186 *n*253
 - description, 98
 - ethnic links with neighboring provinces and, 112
 - external interference from Congo and Zaire, 102
 - Front for the Liberation of Cabinda, 102, 112
 - oil wealth influence on separatist movement, 8, 111
 - population of, 98, 182 *n*198
 - relationship of conflict to oil wealth, 102
 - secession conflict in, 98
 - secession group Web site, 112, 187 *n*263
 - Sudan peace process and, 105
 - suspension of oil production, 100–101, 183 *n*213
- Cairn Energy
 - corporate social responsibility and, 178 *n*145
- Cameroon. See Chad-Cameroon project
- Canada. See also Alberta, Canada; Talisman Energy
 - human rights violations in Sudan and, 133–134
 - International Code of Ethics for Canadian Business, 136, 193 *n*349
 - oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 170 *n*74
 - social responsibility of independent oil companies and, 72
- Caspian Development Advisory Panel
 - monitoring of environmental and social impact in Azerbaijan, 89, 90, 181 *n*182
- Caspian states. See also specific states
 - Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli PSA, 31
 - Caspian oil and gas production (table), 15
 - disputed control of the Caspian Sea and, 80
 - international oil industry investment in, 14–15

-
- CDAP. See Caspian Development Advisory Panel
- Central Asia Caucasus Institute
Nagorno-Karabakh War analysis, 82
- Chad
impact assessment, 69 involvement in Sudan, 119
oil and gas production, 16
Oil Revenue Law, 69
Petroleum Revenue Management Law, 46, 70
Revenue Management Law, 45, 49, 147 transparency in oil revenue payments, 69
World Bank Group oil revenue management, 49
- Chad-Cameroon project core risks in, 69
description, 55
effectiveness in overcoming the “curse of oil,” 70–71, 159 environmental and social safeguards, 70, 177 *n*141 ExxonMobil and, 68–71 financial backing for, 69–70 genesis of, 69–70 lessons learned from, 70–71
leveraging strengths and weaknesses in, 161
Web site documentation and discussion, 177 *n*140
World Bank and, 68–71
- Chevron Texaco
aid for Angola, 68
Cabinda oil production and, 112
Cabinda oil spills, 186 *n*253 employment of local Angolan people and, 108, 160 operation in Angola, 68, 99, 108, 109, 158
social project in Angola, 109
Sudan operations, 122–123, 124, 132, 153, 190 *n*304
- Chile
oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 170 *n*74
- China
excess of oil consumption over production (in millions of tons/year) (table), 17
involvement in Angolan oil industry, 99
oil consumption, 145
state-owned oil company international investments, 17, 23, 26
Sudan oil industry and, 140–141
support for the Sudanese army, 119–120
- China National Overseas Oil Corporation unsuccessful bid to acquire Unocal Corporation, 17
- China National Petroleum Corporation international investments, 17

- Sudan oil industry and, 140–141
- Civil war. See Conflict link with oil production; specific countries
- Clark Amendment
- U.S. support for the Angolan civil war and, 96
- CNOOC. See China National Overseas Oil Corporation
- CNPC. See China National Petroleum Corporation
- Collier, Paul
- research on the economics of civil war, crime, and violence, 37–39
- Colombia
- BP support for House for Peace and Justice, 68
 - human rights abuses and, 58–59
- Comprehensive Peace Agreement
- Future Generations Fund, 126
 - implementation of, 122
 - Machakos Protocol and, 121
 - signing of, 121
 - SPLM/A access to information and, 129
 - text of, 187 *n*266
- Confidentiality
- contractual and legal framework and, 20–30
- Conflict link with oil production. See also Peacebuilding; specific countries
- Angola example, 100–102, 146
 - causes of conflict, 38, 53
 - changes and tensions in local areas, 49–52
 - “conflict-sensitive” approach, 53–54
 - data sets used for civil war research, 39, 169 *n*54
 - framework for understanding, 4–5
 - higher incidence of civil war in oil-producing countries, 37
 - interaction of greed and violence, 38
 - local impact of oil, 49–53
 - oil revenue and conflict, 40–49, 143–144
 - political economy of civil war in developing countries, 37–40
 - reducing the risks of civil war, 38–39
 - violent conflicts, 52–53
- “Conflict Prevention: The Untapped Potential of the Business Sector” (Wenger and Möckli), 66, 67
- Congo. See also Democratic Republic of Congo
- support for Cabinda’s separatist movement, 102
- Contractors and financiers
- multilateral finance organizations, 26–27
 - outsourcing and, 26
 - pressure from NGOs regarding social and environmental impacts of activities, 27
 - types, 26
- Contractual and legal framework
- aspects relevant to conflict risks, 29–30

- confidentiality and, 29–30
 - conflict prevention and, 34
 - consortia and, 27–28
 - general structure, 27
 - importance of, 33–34
 - long-term contracts, 27, 33
 - mining and mobile telephony companies compared with oil companies, 167 *n*33
 - production-sharing agreements, 27, 29, 168 *n*36
- Corporate social responsibility. See also Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights
- access to energy for people in hydrocarbon-exporting countries, 61, 176 *n*126
 - activities aimed at preventing the “curse of oil,” 61
 - Angola and, 108–109, 110
 - application of “international standards,” 61–62
 - Azerbaijan and, 81–92
 - Bhopal chemical plant explosion and, 56
 - business case for corporate engagement in peacebuilding, 67
 - business management systems to address, 57–58
 - Chad-Cameroon project, 55, 68–71
 - “codes of conduct” and, 57, 60, 175 *n*120
 - conflict prevention and peacebuilding, 65–68
 - consultants’ role, 56
 - corporate philanthropy and, 56–58
 - differences in scope and sophistication of systems, 155
 - dual pressures on businesses, 56, 173 *n*105
 - estimated corporate charitable contributions, 56, 173 *n*104
 - evolution of, 58–60
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative, 48, 61, 64–65
 - Global Sullivan Principles, 56, 173 *n*106
 - globalization at the end of the Cold War and, 56
 - government-business-NGO partnerships, 63–65
 - historical background, 56–60
 - human rights issues, 57
 - key components, 60–61
 - new model for oil projects incorporating, 158–160
 - NGO criticism of the oil industry and, 58
 - oil industry and, 58–65
 - potential to reduce the risks of local dissatisfaction, 72
 - pressure from NGOs and, 72–73
 - social and environmental impact statements, 60–61, 155–156
 - socially responsible investments, 57
 - Sudan and, 134–139
 - “sweatshop” and child-labor campaigns and, 56–57
 - tools for, 155–156
 - “trisectoral” partnerships and, 61

- variations in adoption of social responsibility approaches, 71
- World Bank standards and impact assessments, 61–63
- Corruption
 - Angola and, 106
 - Azerbaijan and, 83–85
 - oil revenue and, 41, 44
- Corruption Perceptions Index
 - low scores for oil-rich countries, 44
 - ranking for Angola, 106
 - ranking for Azerbaijan, 84–85
- Côte d'Ivoire
 - exclusive economic zone concessions, 145
- CPA. See Comprehensive Peace Agreement
- CPI. See Corruption Perceptions Index
- CSR. See Corporate social responsibility
- Cuba
 - support for the Angolan civil war, 95–96, 181 *n*187
- D
- de Menezes, Pres. Fradique
 - Sao Tomé and Príncipe's Oil Revenue Management Law, 147–148
- de Waal, Thomas
 - Nagorno-Karabakh War analysis, 79, 82, 91
- Democratic Republic of Congo. See also Congo
 - exclusive economic zone concessions, 145
- Deng, Francis
 - Sudan civil war, 118
- Developed countries. See also specific countries
 - contractual and legal aspects relevant to conflict risks, 29–30
- Developing countries. See also Transitional countries; specific countries
 - contracts with oil companies, 27
 - contractual and legal aspects relevant to conflict risks, 29–30
 - expansion of oil investment and, 144–146
- Diamond industry
 - Angola and, 67, 97, 100, 106
- dos Santos, José Eduardo
 - Angola's first elections and, 97
- Dow Jones Sustainability Index
 - description, 174 *n*113
 - socially responsible investments, 57
- "Dutch disease"
 - insulation of nonoil economy from, 147, 195 *n*373

E

East Timor

- offshore exploration and, 18, 33
- oil resources, 3

EBRD. See European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

Ecuador

- alleged human rights abuses in, 59

EEZs. See Exclusive economic zones

Egypt

- oil and gas production, 16
- Sudan colonization and governance, 115, 117, 188 *n*270

EIR. See Extractive Industries ReviewEITI. See Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative

Elf oil company

- support for the Front for the Liberation of Cabinda, 102

Enron scandal

- focus on corporate governance and corruption and, 57

Environmental and Social Action Plans

- monitoring of environmental and social impact in Azerbaijan, 89, 90, 181 *n*182

Environmental and social impact statements

- aim of, 63
- Azerbaijan and, 86–90
- description, 62–63, 155–156
- Equator Principles and, 60–61
- Sudan and, 135

EO. See Executive Outcomes

Equator Principles

- adoption by major financial institutions, 61
- financing process, 61
- social and environmental impact statements and, 60–61, 62

Equatorial Guinea

- international oil industry investment in, 15
- oil and gas production, 16, 143
- oil revenue as an incentive for conflict over control of the state, 42

Eritrea

- exclusive economic zone concessions, 145

ESAPs. See Environmental and Social Action Plans

Escuela Judicial

- Statoil support for, 68

ESIAs. See Environmental and social impact statements

European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

- Azerbaijan oil project financing, 88
- exploration and production financing, 26

Exclusive economic zones

- Angolan oil fields, 99

- countries with ongoing or recent conflicts and, 145
 - description, 166 *n*14
 - invitations to bid for concessions within, 14
 - Sudan oil fields, 99
 - Executive Outcomes
 - MPLA recapture of Soyo and, 101
 - Exim Bank. See U.S. Export-Import Bank
 - Extractive Industries Review
 - final report, "Striking a Better Balance," 174 *n*116
 - impact of the oil industry on poverty reduction and sustainable development, 52
 - purpose of, 174 *n*116
 - recommendations, 59
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative
 - Angola and, 104–105, 107
 - Azerbaijan and, 65, 84
 - description, 64, 151, 156
 - establishment of, 72
 - focus of, 61
 - principles of, 64
 - standardized templates for revenue reporting, 64–65
 - Sudan and, 129
 - technical support and international leverage and, 48
 - Exxon Valdez oil spill
 - environmental damage issue, 58
 - ExxonMobil
 - Chad-Cameroon project and, 68–71
 - environment and social impact assessment, 135
 - as largest shareholder-owned oil company, 20
 - oil lease negotiations with Iran, 194 *n*371
 - operation in Angola, 99
- F
- FLEC. See Front for the Liberation of Cabinda
 - FLNA. See National Liberation Front of Angola
 - Former Soviet Union. See also specific states
 - allocation of the Nagorno-Karabakh region to Azerbaijan, 77
 - expansion of oil investment and, 144
 - oil industry investment in Caspian littoral states, 14–15, 80
 - support for the Angolan civil war, 95–96, 101
 - France
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 - hosting of interparliamentary meetings between Azerbaijan, Georgia, and Armenia, 79
 - Front for the Liberation of Cabinda
 - security assessment of strength of, 112
 - support from oil companies, 102

FSU. See Former Soviet Union

FTSE4Good

- listing and delisting of companies, 174 *n*112
- socially responsible investments, 57

G

G8 nations

- Transparency Compacts, 48, 151

Gabon

- oil and gas production, 16

Garang, John

- death of, 122

Georgia

- interparliamentary meetings between Azerbaijan, Georgia, and Armenia, 79
- oil pipeline through, 80, 86–87

Germany

- declining trend of oil consumption, 17

Ghana

- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65

Gleijeses, Piero

- external interference in Cabinda's separatist movement, 102
- suspension of oil production in Cabinda, 101, 183 *n*213

Global Compact

- description, 57
- membership, 155

Global Sullivan Principles

- description, 56, 173 *n*106

Goldman Sachs

- corporate social responsibility report, 60

Government-owned oil companies. See State-owned oil companies

Greater Nile Oil Production Consortium

- community development programs, 136–137

Greater Nile Petroleum Operating Company

- Talisman Energy and, 131

Gulf Oil

- suspension of production in Cabinda, 101, 183 *n*213

H

Hare, Paul

- Angolan civil war support from Cold War powers and their proxies, 95–96

House for Peace and Justice

- BP support for, 68

Human Rights Watch

- “disappearance” of Angolan oil revenues, 103
- human rights abuses in Sudan, 132–133

- recommendations for Sudan, 139
- Hutchinson, Sharon
 - Sudan civil wars, 120

I

- IFC. See International Finance Corporation
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund
- Independent oil companies. See also specific companies
 - Angola and, 32–33, 99
 - description, 22–23, 144
 - focus of, 20, 23
 - good reputation and, 23
 - importance of, 23
 - Premier Oil example (table), 24–25
 - short-term focus, 20, 72
 - social responsibility and, 23, 72, 178 *n*145
 - Sudan and, 32–33, 123, 135
 - targeting by NGOs, 72
- India
 - Bhopal chemical plant explosion, 56
 - oil consumption, 145
 - state-owned oil company international investments, 23, 26
 - Sudan oil industry and, 140–141
- Indonesia
 - human rights abuses, 156
 - revenue allocation and, 148
 - “Special Autonomy” laws for Papua and Aceh, 46
- Intergovernmental Authority on Development
 - Peace Initiative on Sudan, 127
- International Alert
 - “Conflict Risk and Impact Assessments,” 66
 - “flashpoint” issues, 66–67
 - guidance pack for minimizing conflicts during operations, 66–67
- International Business Leaders Forum
 - action plan for business support of the Millennium Development Goals, 61
- International Crisis Group
 - countries in crisis with oil or gas resources, 4
- International Energy Agency
 - global consumption of gas prediction, 19
- International Finance Corporation
 - Azerbaijan oil project financing, 88, 92
 - Chad-Cameroon project and, 69
 - “collateral damage” safeguards, 62
 - exploration and production financing, 26
 - international standard development, 62, 111, 152, 176 *n*128

- social and environmental impact statements and, 60–61
- International Monetary Fund
 - policies to avoid the “curse of oil” in Azerbaijan, 83–84
 - revenue transparency guidelines, 48, 147, 151
 - Sudan’s asset estimation, 125–126
 - support for Angola, 48, 103, 151
- International oil industry
 - business case for engagement in conflict prevention, 153–156
 - concentration on areas outside the Middle East, 5–6, 13–14, 145, 194 *n*371
 - conflict in producing countries, 17–18
 - conflict risks and mitigation, 146–156
 - contractors and financiers, 26–27
 - contractual and legal framework, 27–30, 33–34
 - corporate social responsibility and, 58–65
 - current and emerging production areas, 13–20
 - excess of oil consumption over production (in millions of tons/year) (table), 17
 - exclusive economic zones and, 14
 - gaps in resources available to industry decision makers, 6–7
 - independent oil companies, 22–25
 - insulation from business risks of other companies, 146, 154
 - investment trends, 144–146
 - major oil consumers and domestic production (in million of tons/year) (table), 18
 - new model for oil projects incorporating corporate social responsibility, 158–160
 - organization of, 21
 - politically unstable countries and, 17–18
 - priorities for action, 156–161
 - recommendations for, 161–163
 - resource development phases, 30–32
 - role in Angola, Azerbaijan, and Sudan, 32–33
 - security concerns, 5
 - social development approach, 160–161
 - super major and major oil companies, 21–22
 - types of international oil companies, 20–27
 - “weak states” and, 18, 33
- Iran
 - conflict between local tribes and oil drillers and between tribes, 51
 - exploration and drilling in the Caspian Sea, 15
 - overthrow of the shah, 51
- Iraq
 - direct distribution of oil revenue to Iraqi citizens, 47
 - “Oil for Food” program, 149
 - oil supply security, 5

J

Jaime, Dr. Aguinaldo

Angola and the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative, 104–105

Japan

declining trend of oil consumption, 17

Johnson, Douglas

Sudan civil wars, 120

Sudan government appropriation of land, 133

Journal de Angola publication of the value and origin of the winning bid for a new oil concession, 104

K

Kanaan, R.

studies of timber and conflict, 168 *n*53

Kazakhstan

international oil industry investment in, 14–15

oil fund, 45

Khartoum Peace Agreement

revenue sharing and, 127, 130–131

Kirghiz Republic

Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65

Klein, Premier Ralph

direct distribution of oil revenue in Alberta, 46–47

L

Legal framework. See contractual and legal framework

Lesch, Anne Mosely

view of northern and southern Sudan elites, 118

Liberia

exclusive economic zone concessions, 145

exploration operations and, 18, 33

Governance and Economic Management Assistance Program, 149–150 timber industry and mining revenue control, 149

Libya

international oil industry investment in, 15

oil and gas production, 16

Liquefied natural gas. See also Natural gas

Angolan plant in Soyo, 108 international trade and, 19

LNG. See Liquefied natural gas

Local impact of oil. See also specific countries changes and tensions, 49–52 employment issues, 50–51, 160 interaction of secessionist or ethnic politics with oil and gas projects, 52–53, 172 *n*102 management approaches, 152, 157–160

- violent conflict, 52–53
- Luena Memorandum of Understanding
 - Angolan civil war and, 97
- Lukoil
 - oil and gas field discovery, 15
- Lundin Petroleum
 - code of conduct development, 138
 - community projects, 138
 - corporate social responsibility, 138–139, 178 *n*145
 - Khartoum Peace Agreement and, 130–131
 - oil interests in Sudan, 130–131, 138–139, 158, 192 *n*329
 - revenue sharing in Sudan and, 130
 - sale of interests in Sudan, 138
- Lusaka Protocol
 - Angolan civil war and, 97
- Lynch, Dov
 - Nagorno-Karabakh War cease-fire, 178 *n*146

M

- Mabeko-Tali, Jean-Michel
 - Cabinda secession, 98
 - oil company collusion with separatists and foreign powers in Cabinda, 102
- Machakos Protocol
 - agreements on specific issues, 121, 189 *n*298
 - data and analyses for, 131
 - implementation of, 121
 - provisions, 10, 121
 - Sudan civil war cease-fire and, 121
- Major oil companies. See Super major and major oil companies
- Malaysia
 - involvement in Angolan oil industry, 99
 - state-owned oil company international investments, 23
 - Sudan oil industry and, 140–141
- Mayardit, Salva Kiir
 - wealth-sharing agreement and, 122
- MCA. See Millennium Challenge Account
- Middle East. See also specific countries
 - oil lease negotiations by ExxonMobil, 194 *n*371
 - oil reserves, 145
 - percentage of world oil production and oil reserves, 7
- Millennium Challenge Account
 - description, 151
 - membership, 3–4
 - purpose of, 165 *n*3
 - Web site, 195 *n*383

Millennium Development Goals

- Angola and, 109
- business support for, 61

Minsk Group

- Nagorno-Karabakh War and, 9, 78

Möckli, Daniel

- “Conflict Prevention: The Untapped Potential of the Business Sector,” 66, 67

Mottu, Eric A.

- sub-national revenue sharing, 46, 171 *n*84

MPLA. See People’s Movement for the Liberation of Angola

N

Nagorno-Karabakh War

- active peace negotiations, 10, 78
- cease-fire, 77–78, 81, 178 *n*146
- deaths and displacements due to, 77
- “freezing” of the conflict, 9, 77–78, 81
- historical background, 77–79
- interparliamentary meetings, 79
- Minsk Group and, 9, 78
- oil wealth and, 81, 144, 148
- Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and, 77–78
- public statements by Azerbaijani leaders keeping the military option open, 82–83
- regional and geopolitical factors, 78–79

National Liberation Front of Angola

- Alvor Accords and, 95
- civil war and, 95

National Union for the Total Independence of Angola

- Alvor Accords and, 95
- capture of Soyo, 101
- civil war and, 95
- Luena Memorandum of Understanding and, 97
- support from Cold War powers, 95–96
- UN sanctions against, 97

Natural gas. See also Liquefied natural gas; liquefied natural gas

- areas of conflict and, 20
- “associated gas” found with oil, 18
- Azerbaijan’s percentage of global resources, 80
- government revenues from, 169 *n*59
- growing demand for, 17
- increase in the global consumption of, 19–20
- major African oil and gas producers (table), 16
- major producers of natural gas (table), 19
- revenue transparency and, 156, 196 *n*388
- transportation cost, 19

- Nelson, Jane
 “The Business of Peace,” 65–66
 “Principles of Corporate Engagement in Conflict Prevention and Resolution,” 66
- Nepal
 exploration concession offering, 143
- NGOs. See Nongovernmental organizations
- Nigeria
 alleged human rights abuses in, 59
 allocation of revenue to producing areas, 46, 148
 “Boycott Shell” campaign, 22, 58
 dislocation caused by oil wealth, 51
 Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 international oil industry investment in, 15
 oil and gas production, 16
 oil revenue estimate, 13 oil revenue impact on civil war in, 42–44
 oil supply security, 5
 2005 National Political Reform Conference, 43–44
- Nike
 “sweatshop” and child-labor campaigns against, 56–57
- Nimeiri, Pres. Ja’far
 Addis Ababa Agreement on the Problem of South Sudan and, 119
- Nongovernmental organizations. See also specific organizations corporate hiring of consultants for, 56
 corporate social responsibility and, 72–73 criticism of the oil industry, 58 development of collective strategies, 57
 government-business-NGO partnerships, 63–65
 monitoring of environmental and social impact in Azerbaijan, 89, 90 negative impact of pipelines, 87 new model for oil projects incorporating corporate social responsibility and, 159–160 pressure on contractors and financiers regarding social and environmental impacts of activities, 27 pressure on super major and major oil companies, 22 project investigating conflict implications of the Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan pipeline, 83 targeting of independent oil companies, 23
 Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and, 61, 63–64
- Norway
 Angolan oil industry and, 99
 oil fund, 45
 oil production, 146
 oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 41, 170 *n*74
 state-owned oil company international investments, 20, 23, 26

O

- Obasanjo, Pres. Olusegun
radio address on the seriousness of the Nigerian conflict, 43, 170 *n*72
- Oil consumption declining trend of consumption, 17 excess of oil consumption over production (in millions of tons/year) (table), 17 major oil consumers and domestic production (in million of tons/year) (table), 18
- “Oil for Food” program, 149
- Oil revenue link with conflict. See also Conflict link with oil production; Revenue management; specific conflicts and countries
allocation of revenue to producing areas, 45–46 control of the state and, 42 corruption and, 41, 44
direct distribution of revenue, 46–47, 149 estimates of the net value of crude oil governments receive, 40–41 financing of conflicts, 42 interstate conflicts in the Gulf of Guinea, 169 *n*63 management of oil revenue, 44–46
Nigeria example, 42–44 oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 44 “resource curse,” 45 resource revenue effect on quality of government, 41 savings or stabilization funds, 45 secession and economic/political mismanagement and, 42 specific risks of triggering conflict, 41–42 transparency issue, 48–49
- Oman international oil industry investment in gas development, 166 *n*11 oil fund, 45
- ONGC Videsh
Sudan oil industry and, 140–141
- Open Society Institute
monitoring of environmental and social impact in Azerbaijan, 89, 90
Revenue Watch program, 151
- OPIC. See Overseas Private Investment Corporation
- Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe
Nagorno-Karabakh War and, 77–78
- OSCE. See Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe
- Overseas Private Investment Corporation
exploration and production financing, 26
- Oxford Institute for Energy Studies transportation costs for oil compared with natural gas, 19

P

Peacebuilding

- business case for Azerbaijan, 90–91, 181 *n*183
- business case for corporate engagement in, 67
- business's role, 5
- corporate policies and, 67
- definition, 4
- industry interest in, 67–68
- revenue management and, 150–151

Peacemaking

- definition, 4

Pennsylvania

- Pithole Creek, PA, oil discovery description, 49–50

People's Movement for the Liberation of Angola

- Alvor Accords and, 95
- civil war and, 93, 95
- control of Cabinda, 101
- estimate of Soviet aid to, 101
- government of Angola after the departure of the Portuguese, 95
- Luena Memorandum of Understanding and, 97
- recapture of Soyo from UNITA, 101
- support from Cold War powers, 95–96
- victory over UNITA in the first elections, 97

Pérez Alfonso, Juan Pablo

- comments on the “curse” of oil revenue, 40

Petrobras

- competition with major companies and, 20

Petronas

- Sudan oil industry and, 140–141

PFC Energy

- estimate of Angola's oil revenues, 103

Portugal

- Angola's independence and, 93, 95
- involvement in Angolan oil industry, 99

Powell, Secretary of State Colin

- genocide in the Darfur region civil war and, 122, 190 *n*299

Premier Oil

- independent oil company example (table), 24–25

Presbyterian Church of Sudan

- ethnic cleansing suit, 137

Production-sharing agreements. See also specific countries

- Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli project, 31, 80
- confidentiality and, 28
- description, 28, 168 *n*36
- key elements (table), 29
- legal structure, 28

PSAs. See Production-sharing agreements

Publish What You Pay Campaign, 107

R

Rato, Rodrigo de importance of fiscal transparency, 48

Reserves

lack of standardized assessment method for, 166 *n*9

nationalizations of Middle Eastern states and, 13–14

world reserves by region (2005) (table), 14

Revenue management

Angola, 8–9, 102–107

avoiding the “curse of oil,” 146–150

Azerbaijan, 81–86

Chad, 45, 46, 49, 70

direct distribution to citizens, 46–47, 149

insulation of nonoil economy from “Dutch disease,” 147, 195 *n*373 nonproducing areas and, 150

peacebuilding and, 150–151

priorities for action by oil companies, 157–158

Sudan, 126–131

transparency issue, 48–49, 107, 110, 127–130, 139–140, 147, 157–158

Ross, Michael

relationships between the incidence of conflict and the presence of oil or “lootable” commodities, 39 resource influence on the onset, duration, or intensity of civil war, 39–40

Rothchild, Donald

support for the Angolan civil war from Cold War powers and their proxies, 96

Russia

oil and gas production, 15, 18

S

Sala-i-Marta, Xavier natural resource “curse” in Nigeria, 47

São Tomé and Príncipe decentralized National Forum, 150

international oil industry investment in, 15

oil and gas production, 16

oil revenue as an incentive for conflict over control of the state, 42

Oil Revenue Management Law, 147–148

Sarbanes-Oxley Law

corporate social responsibility and, 57–58

financial reporting requirements, 174 *n*114

Saudi Arabia

state control of oil production, 7

- Saudi Aramco output estimates, 166 *n*10 state control of oil production, 7
- Savimbi, Jonas
Angola's first elections and, 97
death in battle of, 97
- Scandinavia. See also specific countries
social responsibility of independent oil companies and, 72
- Shah Deniz project efforts of companies to support revenue management, 85–86
environmental protection and impact assessment in agreements, 87
financing, 87–88
gas exploration, 18, 80 international companies with shares in the consortia to develop Azerbaijan's oil fields, 85–86, 179 *n*160
local environmental and social impact, 86–90
publication of PSAs, intergovernmental agreements, and host-government agreements, 84
State Oil Company of Azerbaijan and, 80
- Shell Foundation Empowerment through Energy Fund
access to energy for people in hydrocarbon-exporting countries, 61, 176 *n*126
- Shell International
“Boycott Shell” campaign, 22, 58
environmental and social impact assessment, 135 execution of Ken Sara Wiwa and, 58 social responsibility guidelines, 175 *n*120
- Sierra Leone
exclusive economic zone concessions, 145
exploration concession offering, 143
exploration operations and, 18, 33
- Small-scale domestic oil companies
description, 167 *n*27
- Smaller oil companies. See Independent oil companies
- Smith, Vernon
direct distribution of oil revenue to Iraqi citizens, 47
- SOCAR. See State Oil Company of Azerbaijan
- Social impact statements. See Environmental and social impact statements
- Sonangol
domestic exploration and production, 26
oil lease concessions and production block control, 99 public release of information on new concessions, 104 social project payments from oil companies, 109
Web site information on blocks and concessions, 183 *n*207
- South Africa
Global Sullivan Principles and, 56, 173 *n*106

- support for the Angolan civil war, 95–96, 181 *n*187
- SPLM/A. See Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army
- State Oil Company of Azerbaijan
 - Azeri-Chirag-Guneshli oil field ownership and, 31
 - consortia of international oil companies partnered with, 31, 80, 85–86, 179 *n*160
 - development of the ACG and Shah Deniz fields and, 80
 - domestic exploration and production, 26
 - offshore fields, 80
- State-owned oil companies. See also specific companies
 - Angola and, 32–33
 - competition with major companies, 20
 - description, 23, 26, 144
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 - growth of, 33
 - international investment and, 23
 - involvement in Angola, 99
 - recent development of, 20
 - social responsibility and, 72
 - Sudan and, 32–33, 124, 135, 140–141
- Statoil
 - competition with major companies and, 20
 - support for Amnesty International, 68
 - support for Escuela Judicial, 68
 - support for the UN Development Programme, 68
- Suberu, Rotimi
 - analysis of disputes over revenue sharing in Nigeria, 42–43
- Subramanian, Arvind
 - natural resource “curse” in Nigeria, 47
- Sudan
 - Abuja Conferences, 127
 - Addis Ababa Agreement on the Problem of South Sudan, 119, 120, 126, 188 *n*281
 - alleged human rights abuses in, 59, 132–133, 139
 - Anglo-Egyptian condominium, 117, 188 *n*270
 - Angolan Cabinda conflict and, 105
 - attractions of Western investment, 140–141, 154–155
 - British and Egyptian colonization and governance, 115, 117, 188 *n*270
 - Closed Districts Order, 117
 - Comprehensive Peace Agreement, 121, 187 *n*266
 - concession blocks, 122, 190 *n*303
 - conflict financing role of oil, 125
 - corporate social responsibility, 134–139
 - Country Economic Memorandum, 125
 - Darfur region civil war, 9, 121–122, 162
 - deaths and displacement of people due to civil wars, 121
 - discovery of oil in southern Sudan, 9, 10, 120

- east Sudan conflicts, 122
- economic inequalities between the northern and southern regions, 119
- economic role of oil, 124–126, 143–144
- exclusive economic zone concessions, 145
- exploration in the Darfur region, 123
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 129
- first civil war, 9, 118–119, 140, 143–144
- forcible displacement of people and, 120, 133
- future contribution to world oil supplies, 122, 190 *n*302
- Future Generations Fund, 126, 127
- geographic divisions, 117
- government military expenditures, 121
- government revenue from oil, 40–41
- impact of conflict on oil company decisions, 140–141
- increase in oil production, 146
- independence, 119
- independent oil companies and, 32–33, 123, 135
- Intergovernmental Authority on Development's Peace Initiative on Sudan, 127
- internationally supervised elections and, 121
- involvement in Chad, 119
- key oil companies involved in, 122–123, 124
- Khartoum Peace Agreement, 127, 130–131
- local impact management, 134–139
- Machakos Protocol, 10, 121–122
- macroeconomic risks of oil dependency, 125–126
- making areas secure for oil development, 133–134
- map, 116
- National Petroleum Commission, 128–129, 130
- North-South Peace Agreement, 162
- offshore concession, 123
- oil and gas industry profile (table), 34–35
- oil and gas production, 9–10, 16, 122
- oil as a percentage of government revenues, 125
- oil as a source of funds for conflict, 42
- oil companies and revenue management, 130–131
- oil facilities as targets, 132–133
- oil industry in, 122–124, 140, 143–144
- Oil Revenue Stabilization Account, 126
- oil savings account, 125
- onshore fields and pipelines, 32, 50, 121, 122, 123, 124, 133
- ownership of the Heglig and Unity oil fields, 31
- peace of 1973–1983, 119, 140
- “political charters,” 120–121
- postwar risks and opportunities, 139–140
- pre-2005 revenue management, 126–127

-
- preindependence period, 118–119
 - Protocol between the Government of Sudan and the SPLM/A on the resolution of the Abeyei conflict, 128, 191 *n*322
 - religious and ethnic reasons for civil wars, 117
 - renewal oil investment in the 1990s, 121
 - resettlement of the people of Wadi Halfa during construction of the Aswan High Dam, 133
 - revenue, conflict, and peace, 10–11, 124–131, 148, 158
 - revenue management, 126–131, 148
 - Sahel drought, 119
 - second civil war period, 9, 119–121, 143–144
 - slave raiding and slave owning and, 117
 - social responsibility of independent oil companies and, 72
 - southern policy and, 117–118
 - stages in oil development, 122–124
 - state-owned oil companies and, 32–33, 124, 135, 140–141
 - Sudan Peace Forum, 8
 - super major and major oil companies and, 124
 - sustainability of oil resources, 140–141
 - transparency and, 127–130, 139–140
 - UN sanctions against, 121, 150
 - United Nations mission in, 130
 - U.S. and Chinese support for the army, 119–120
 - U.S. sanctions against, 121, 150
 - Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and, 64
 - wealth-sharing agreement, 46, 115–116, 122, 127–130, 187 *n*266
 - west Sudan conflicts, 121–122
 - withdrawal of Western companies, 32, 124, 140
 - Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army
 - Comprehensive Peace Agreement and, 129
 - description, 190 *n*305
 - oil facilities as targets, 132
 - peace agreement and, 121, 123
 - transparency and, 129
 - wealth-sharing agreement and, 128–129, 187 *n*266
 - Sullivan, Rev. Leon H.
 - Global Sullivan Principles and, 56, 173 *n*106
 - Super major and major oil companies. See also specific companies
 - activist pressure and, 22
 - adoption of social responsibility approaches, 71
 - annual sales, 21
 - description, 21, 144
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 - good reputation and, 22
 - involvement in Angola, 99

- key business priorities, 21
- NGO employees on staffs of, 60
- Sudan and, 124
- “Sweatshop” and child-labor campaigns, 56–57
- Sweden. See Lundin Petroleum

T

- Talisman Energy
 - code of ethics and high-level principle development, 131, 192 *n*331
 - corporate social responsibility and, 136–137, 178 *n*145
 - Corporate Social Responsibility Reports, 137
 - Greater Nile Oil Production Consortium, 136–137
 - Harker Report, 136, 139
 - International Code of Ethics for Canadian Business and, 136, 193 *n*349
 - Machakos Protocol and, 131
 - oil interests in Sudan, 64, 131, 136–138, 139, 153, 158
 - Sudan Operating Principles, 136
- Thomas, J.
 - studies of timber and conflict, 168 *n*53
- TI. See Transparency International
- Timber industry
 - Liberia and, 149
 - studies of conflict and, 168 *n*53
- Total
 - Sudan operations, 123, 140
- Transitional countries. See also specific countries
 - contracts with oil companies, 27
 - contractual and legal aspects relevant to conflict risks, 29–30
 - definition, 167 *n*35
- Transparency Compacts
 - description, 48
- Transparency International
 - Corruption Perceptions Index, 44, 84–85, 106
- Tullow Oil
 - corporate social responsibility and, 178 *n*145
- Turkey
 - oil pipeline through, 80, 86–87
- Turkmenistan
 - gas exportation to the FSU, 15

U

- UN Development Programme
 - Angola and, 68, 109, 160
 - Statoil support for, 68
 - support for Angola, 104

- UNDP. See UN Development Programme
- UNITA. See National Union for the Total Independence of Angola
- United Kingdom
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 - oil production, 146
 - Sudan colonization and governance, 115, 177, 188 *n*270
 - Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and, 61, 63–64
- United Nations. See also specific agencies
- Gleijeses' report on external interference in Cabinda's separatist movement, 102
 - Global Compact, 57, 155
 - human rights violations in Sudan, 133
 - mission in Sudan, 130
 - sanctions against Sudan, 121
 - sanctions against the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola, 97
- United States. See also specific departments, legislation and states
- efforts to diversify sources of oil imports, 5–6
 - excess of oil consumption over production (in millions of tons/year) (table), 17
 - Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and, 65
 - Machakos Protocol and, 131
 - Millennium Challenge Account, 3–4, 151, 165 *n*3, 195 *n*383
 - oil consumption, 145
 - oil production, 146
 - oil revenue as a catalyst for economic development, 170 *n*74
 - production of gas compared with oil production, 18
 - sanctions against Sudan, 121
 - State Department country report on human rights violations in Sudan, 134
 - Superfund legislation, 174 *n*108
 - support for the Angolan civil war, 96, 181 *n*187
 - support for the Sudanese army, 119–120
 - Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights and, 61
- United States Council for International Business
- corporate social responsibility and, 57
- Unocal Corporation
- alleged human rights abuses and, 59
 - China National Overseas Oil Corporation's unsuccessful bid to acquire, 17
- Upstream activities
- phased processes, 30–31
 - time-scale and investment costs, 31
 - transfer of responsibility and shift of control away from corporate head offices, 31–32
- U.S. Agency for International Development
- Angola and, 68, 109, 160
- U.S. Alien Tort Claims Act
- cases alleging corporate complicity in human rights abuses, 59
 - Presbyterian Church of Sudan ethnic cleansing suit, 137

- U.S. Department of State
 - examination of the impact of oil wealth in Africa, 44
- U.S. Energy Information Administration
 - global demand for oil prediction, 145
- U.S. Export-Import Bank
 - Azerbaijan oil project financing, 88
 - exploration and production financing, 26
- U.S. Overseas Private Investment Corporation
 - Azerbaijan oil project financing, 88
- U.S.-Sudan Peace Act
 - oil revenues and, 125
 - provisions, 121
- USAID. See U.S. Agency for International Development

V

- Venezuela
 - conflict between drillers and Indian tribes, 51
 - Escuela Judicial, 68
 - oil fund, 45
 - oil supply security, 5
- Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights
 - Azerbaijan and, 88
 - basis for, 58–59
 - business logic behind, 63–64
 - negotiation participants, 61
 - peacebuilding and, 68, 161
 - purpose of, 63, 72, 156
 - Web site, 196 *n*387

W

- Walter, Barbara
 - analysis of civil wars ending between 1945 and 1996, 52–53
- WBCSD. See World Business Council for Sustainable Development
- WBG. See World Bank Group
- Wealth-sharing agreement
 - controversy over, 128
 - guiding principles for management and development of oil, 129–130
 - National Petroleum Commission and, 128–129, 130
 - provisions, 127–130
 - resolution of the Abeyei conflict, 128, 191 *n*322
 - resolution of the conflict in southern Kardofan/Nuba Mountains and Blue Nile States, 191 *n*323
 - revenue management, 127
 - revenue transparency and, 128
 - Sudan civil wars and, 46, 115–116, 122, 187 *n*266

- text of, 187 *n*266
- Wenger, Andreas
 “Conflict Prevention: The Untapped Potential of the Business Sector,” 66, 67
- Wiwa, Ken Sara execution of, 58
- World Bank. See also International Finance Corporation
 Chad-Cameroon project and, 68–71
 Country Economic Memorandum on Sudan, 125 environmental protection and information disclosure requirement for oil companies seeking financial support, 22
 estimate of Angola’s gross national income per capita, 103
 Extractive Industries Review, 48, 167 *n*30
 Nagorno-Karabakh War study, 78 policies to avoid the “curse of oil” in Azerbaijan, 83–84, 92
 research on the economics of civil war, crime, and violence, 37–39 social responsibility study, 59 study on corporate social responsibility in Angola, 108 Transitional Support Strategy for Angola, 103–104
- World Bank Group
 Country Assistance Strategies, 48
 Extractive Industries Review, 52, 59
 oil revenue management in Chad, 49 poverty reduction strategy papers, 48 standards and impact assessments, 61–63, 147, 151, 152, 161
- World Business Council for Sustainable Development development and membership of, 57
- WSA. See Wealth-sharing agreement

Y

- Yergin, Daniel overthrow of the shah of Iran, 51
 Pithole Creek, PA, oil discovery description, 49–50

Z

- Zaire
 secessionist movement, 105 support for Cabinda’s separatist movement, 102