

A

- Abdelrahim, 199
- Abderrazak, Shaykh Mahdjoub, 206
- Abdu, Muhammad, 65
- Abdullah, King (Saudi Arabia), 145
- Abdullah, Wayra Salih, 173
- Abdullah II, King (Jordan), 145, 172
- Abu Ghraib prison
- abuses at, xi
 - “Fatimah’s Fiancé” video and, 155–156, 162 *n*23
 - perceived importance of revenge for transgressions at, 44
 - video footage of humiliating treatment of men and women, 142–143, 155–156, 224
- Afalah, Mohammed
- biographical information, 201–202
- al-Afghani, Jamal al-Din, 65
- Afghanistan
- al-Tawhid wal-Jihad (Herat) training camp, 172–173
 - compared with Iraq, 3–4
 - fall of the Taliban regime, 4, 70–71, 173
 - Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and the rise of jihadi Salafis, 165–166, 171
- Ahl al-Sunna wal-Jamaah Army
- images of Muslim leaders in the company of Western dignitaries, 146, 161 *n*6
 - replacement of Ansar al-Islam and, 71
- Ahmad, Najmuddin Faraj, 166
- al-Ahmed, Mohammed Younis
- insurgency sponsorship, 49
- AI. See Ansar al-Islam
-
- n* preceding a number indicates a note
- Airline hijackings, 24, 174, 194. See also September 11 terrorist attacks
- Aisha, Abu, 182–183
- Akanji, Azzad
- biography of, 152
- Al Anbar
- counterinsurgency operations, 95
 - suicide bomb attacks, 94
- Al Aqsa Martyrs Brigades, 15, 217, 235
- al-Fateh al-Islami Institute, 203
- al-Muhajirun, 193
- al Qaeda
- anti-Shia rhetoric, 225
 - anti-U.S. sentiments, 231–232, 240 *n*27
 - avoidance of anti-Shia rhetoric, 78
 - factors in the rise of, 232–233
 - historical background, 232–233
 - honoring of suicide bombers, 13
 - “legitimate martyrdom” concept, 225
 - timeline for the evolution of, 257–258
 - training camps, 24
 - transformation into a fragmented and multiheaded social movement, 232
- al Qaeda in Iraq
- al-Tawhid wal-Jihad replacement, 71
 - anti-Shia views, 120–121
 - Biographies of Eminent Martyrs*, 147–158
 - communiqués announcing operations by Usud al-Sham fi Bilad al-Rafidayn, 182
 - compared with Islamic nationalists, 39
 - compared with the Islamic Army in Iraq, 80–82
 - criteria to be considered a Muslim, 125

- emergence as a major group, 53
 goal of, 215
 image of the heroic Muslim, 147 interest in sparking civil war, 109
 “Jihad in Iraq: Hopes and Dangers,” 74 joint attacks with ASG, 55 justification for killing apostates, 127 justification for killing human shields, 133, 138 *n*35
 justification for killing supporters of the occupation and the existing regime, 127–129, 137 *n*21 justifications for suicide attacks, 117–118
 Mujahidin Shura Council formation and, 64
 objectives of, 73–74, 85 *n*15, 85 *n*16 pressure from Iraqis because of their reliance on foreign fighters, 53–54
 suicide attacks by, 106, 110, 121
 symbolism of the Battle of Badr, 153–154
 themes that make up the mythology of martyrdom, 147–158
 timeline for the evolution of, 257–258
 transnational nature of, 64
 Umar Brigade and, 42, 122 video montage about fighting the Iraqi security forces, 158–159
 video of the suicide attack on the al-Hamra Hotel, 112 *n*18
 video of the suicide attack on the Palestine Hotel, 112 *n*17
 “Why Do We Fight, and Whom Do
 We Fight?”, 73, 85 *n*15, 85 *n*16
Zarwat al-Sinam, 154
 al Qaeda in the Land of Two Rivers. See
 al Qaeda in Iraq
- al-Rashidin Army
 emergence as a major group, 53
 Alawi, Iyad, 145
 al-Albani, Sheikh Naser al-Din, 65, 129, 137 *n*24
 Algeria
 source of militant Islamists in Europe, 194, 195
 Algerian Armed Islamic Group, 172
 Algerian Salafist Group for Call and Combat, 204
 Ali, Caliph (Iraq) establishment of caliphate, 136 *n*13 father of Imam Hussein, 123
 Ali the Tunisian, 206
 “Altruistic suicide” theory, 214–215
 Anbar Salvation Council, 229
 al-Anbari, Abu Faris
 biography of, 151–152
 Ansar al-Islam
 adoption of escapees from Afghanistan, 173
 elimination of, 173
 establishment of, 173, 193–194, 257
 French network and, 204–205
 Italian network and, 205–207
 jihadi Salafism and, 71
 religious worldview of, 89
 suicide attacks by, 106, 110
Ansar al-Sunna monthly online publication of, 71
 Ansar al-Sunna Group
 compared with Islamic nationalists, 39 criteria to be considered a Muslim, 125
 goal of, 215
 jihadi Salafism major group, 53, 64
 joint attacks with AQI, 55 joint responsibility with the IAI and the MAI for attacks, 55 justification for violence against the Shia, 122

- official formation of, 71
 religious worldview of, 89
 replacement of Ansar al-Islam and, 71
 suicide attacks by, 64
 ultimate aim, 90
 video showing a suicide bomber declaring his last will and testament, 149
- Ansar Allah
 Lebanese network and, 182
- al-Ansari, Abu Dujana
 justification for suicide attacks, 121,
 135 *n*8
- al-Ansari, Abu Islam
 “The Markers of the Victorious Sect in the Land of the Two Rivers,” 126, 137 *n*18
- Aqal, Wafiq, 181
- AQI. See al-Qaeda in Iraq
- al-Aqsa intifada increase in the pace of suicide attacks and, 7
- Aqsa uprising, 167, 168, 224, 235
- Arab fighters in Iraq apparent impotence of Muslim regimes in the face of the United States’ resolve to attack
 Iraq, 167–168
 factors facilitating volunteerism in Iraq, 166–171
 Internet and, 169–170, 183
 Iraq’s porous borders and, 168, 222
 Jordanian network, 171–173
 Lebanese network, 181–183
 networks of radical Salafis, 165–166, 184 Palestine-Israeli struggle and, 168 satellite television and, 169
 Saudi and Kuwaiti networks,
 174–178, 179
- shift of political power in favor of the Shia and Kurds and, 169 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and, 165–166, 171
 Syrian network, 178–181
 ties developed during the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, 165
 U.S. invasion of Iraq and, 167
 U.S. war in Afghanistan after the September 11 attacks and, 166 war on terrorism and, 166–167
- Arab League summit disputes between states, 168
- Arif, Said, 204, 205
- Armed Islamic Group
 subway bombings and airline hijacking activities, 194
- al-Aruri, Khaled Mustafa, 171
- Asas, Abdelhy arrest of, 198 biographical information, 199, 210
 *n*22
- ASG. See Ansar al-Sunna Group
- al-Ashqari, Ans Jamal, 171
- Association of Muslim Scholars
 impact of the insurgency on, 35
 1920 Revolution Brigades of the Islamic and National Resistance Movement and, 37
- Atiya, Abu, 204
- al-Awami, Muamar Abdullah, 183
- al-Awda, Salman, 65
- Awf, Abu biography of, 143–144, 161 *n*3
 dream vision, 157
- al-Awfi, Salih, 175–176
- Ayatollah Khomeini, 63, 232
- al-Ayiri, Yousef Bin Salih, 175
- al-Azhar support for martyrdom, 168
- Azzam, Sheikh Abdullah, 165

B

- Baathists. See also Ideological Baathists; Islamic nationalists de-Baathification policies and, 37, 41, 42, 50–51, 221 main groups of, 63
number of members, 49
suicide attack responsibility claims, 93
- Badjoudj, Abdelhalim, 202–203
- Badr, Battle of, 153–154
- Badr Corps
infiltration of the interior ministry, 42
Islamic Army in Iraq view of, 80
justification for violence against, 122, 136 *n*11 Shia militias of, 122 view of as collaborators with the coalition, 122, 135 *n*9
- Baghdad
counterinsurgency operations, 95
suicide bomb attacks, 94–95, 96, 110, 207, ix
- al-Baghdad, Abu Hamza
leadership of, 54
- al-Baghdadi, Abu Umar, 258
- Bakr, Abu, 181
- Bali
suicide bombings, 225
- Bandura, Albert
moral disengagement concept, 119–121
- al-Banna, Raed Mansoor, 171
- Baquba
counterinsurgency operations, 95
- Bara, Abu
biography of, 151
- al-Bara Bin-Malik Brigade
description, 64
leadership of, 121
- al-Barqawi, Issam Muhammad Tahir, 172
- Barra, Abu, 189
- Barzani, Massoud, 173
- Baz, Sheikh Abdel Aziz bin, 65, 129
- al-Bazi, Sheikh Hikmat Mumtaz, 229
- Belgian-Spanish network
background of, 195
Belgium-based network with links to Spain, Syria, Morocco, and Iraq (chart), 197 biographical information on suicide bombers, 196–202, 209 *n*19, 210 *n*22, 210 *n*26
Moroccan Islamic Combatant Group and, 198–199
- Belgium. See also Belgian-Spanish network percentage of suicide bombers from, 189
- Belhadj, Maymoun biographical information, 196–199, 201, 202, 209 *n*19
- Benchellali, Menad, 204
- Bensakhria, Mohammed, 204
- Bentaieb, 201
- Benyettou, Farid, 203
- Berg, Nicholas, 235
- Beslan, Russia, hostage crisis, 12, 28 *n*22
- bin Laden, Sheikh Osama benefits from the failure of Islamist insurgencies, 233–234 exile of, 233 interest in fighting the “far enemy” represented by the United States, 78 original home of, 74 sanctioning of suicide attacks, 218 suicide attack directions, 121 support for Zarqawi, 176, 257 training camps in Afghanistan and, 234

- transnational Salafi networks and, 166
- Biographies of Eminent Martyrs*, xviii
- Biographies of martyrs, 147–158
- Blair, Prime Minister Tony (United Kingdom)
- pictured with Arab leaders, 145
- Bloom, Mia
- Dying to Kill*, 216–217
- Book organization
- chapter descriptions, 25–26
- Bouchar, Abdelmajid, 196
- Bouchnak, Thamer, 203
- Bouloudo, Khalid, 198
- Bouyahia, Maher, 206
- Bremer, Paul, III
- de-Baathification policy and, 41
- Brookings Institution
- roadside bomb estimates, 90
- Bukhalfa, Rashid, 204, 205
- Bush, President George W.
- pictured looking shaken after images of a blown-up Humvee, 156
- pictured shaking hands with Prime Minister Ariel Sharon, 146
- pictured with Arab leaders, 145
- video on board a U.S. battleship declaring victory in Iraq, 145
- C
- CA. See Conquest Army
- Car bombs
- percentage of suicide attacks, 105
- preparation and placement of, 96, 98, 170
- roadside bomb estimates, 90
- Casablanca bombings, 205, 225
- Chabarou, Mourad, 202
- al-Chalabi, Ahmad
- Higher National Committee for the De-Baathification of Society leadership, 40
- Chechens
- use of female bombers, 7
- Cherif, Peter, 203
- Chong, Dennis
- expectations of valued peers
- influence on activism, 22
- Clinton, President Bill
- pictured receiving a medallion from King Fahd of Saudi Arabia, 146
- Coalition Provision Authority. See also Counterinsurgency operations
- actions taken to guard against suicide attacks, 105
- contracts used as funding for mercenaries, 51–52
- de-Baathification measures, 37
- failure to establish democracy with stability in Iraq, 236
- images of Arab leaders in the company of coalition officials, 145–146
- intimidation of those who work with coalition forces, 90–91, 110
- justifications for attacks against supporters of, 127–129
- strategic consequences to the coalition of violence against Shias and security forces, 235–236, 237
- targets of suicide attacks, 102, 127–129
- “Cognitive opening” concept, 190–191, 193
- COIN. See Counterinsurgency operations
- Committee for Preaching, Guidance, and Religious Rulings
- Association of Muslim Scholars and, 37

- Conquest Army attacks on U.S. personnel in Iraq as revenge for Israeli aggression in Gaza and Lebanon, 79
 jihadi Salafism and, 71
- Cost-effectiveness inflicting mass casualties with a minimum of bombers, 9–10 protection of experienced and skilled members, 10–11
 recruitment difficulties, 10
- Counterinsurgency operations. See also Coalition Provision Authority car bomb preparation information, 98 collateral damage from, 99 control of Shia militias and, 228 cultural sensitivity and, 228 “divide and conquer” strategy, 229 incorporation of Sunnis into the new security forces, 228 internal displacement of Iraqis because of sectarian violence
 and, 228–229
 Iraqi force responsibility and, 228 likelihood of defeat of insurgents
 and, 95–96
 limitations of, 226–231 pattern of, 95 phases of, 226–228
 political inclusion and, 227 suicide attacks following, 99, 110
- Courageous Men or Lions (Usud
 al-Shara)* video, 143
- CPA. See Coalition Provision Authority
- Cruyppenninck, Pascal
 biographical information, 200
- D
- Dahmane, Abdelsatar, 195
- Damra, Suleiman Taleb, 171
- al-Dari, Dr. Muthanna Harith Muhammad’s Army comments, 49
 al-Shamari’s comments on, 82
- Darwish, Suleiman, Khaled, 180
- Data sources, xvii–xviii
- Dawa Party
 impact of the insurgency on, 35
- Dayjani, Abdel Aziz Abdel Hadi
 biography of, 151
- Defense Intelligence Agency targets of insurgent attacks, 92
- Degauque, Muriel
 biographical information, 195, 199–201
- della Porta, Donatella study of left-wing terrorism in Italy, 22–23
- Democratic Party of Kurdistan, 173
- Department of Defense provinces accounting for the greatest number of attacks, 94
- al-Dhayt, Muhammad Abdel Rahman, 176
- Diakhabi, Chekou, 203
- al-Din, Ayman Kamal, 183
- Diplomats
 target of attacks by the Iraqi insurgency, 91
- Diyala
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
- Djoumakh, Laurent Mourad, 204
- Doha, Abu, 204, 205
- al-Dousry, Abu Hareth Abdul Rahman
 last will and testament of, 149
- Dream visions as confirmation of martyrdom, 157–158, 162 *n*26
- DST. See Territorial Surveillance Directorate
- al-Dulaymi, Talib, 172
- al-Dulymi, Defense Minister Saadun
 (Iraq), 229
- al-Durah, Muhammad video images of the killing of, 143

- al-Duri, Izzet
 insurgency sponsorship, 49
- Durkheim, Emile
 “altruistic suicide” theory, 214–215
- Dying to Kill* (Bloom), 216–217
- Dying to Win* (Pape), 213–215
- E
- Egypt
 support for “martyrdom operations,” 168
- Encyclopedia of Jihad*
 Internet posting of, 225, 238 *n*10
- European Muslims in Iraq
 Belgian-Spanish network, 195–202
 “born-again” Muslims, 194 categories of militants, 194 “cognitive opening” and, 190–191, 193
 “compound racism” of Europeans and, 192 converts to Islam, 194, 195 culture and secularity of Europe and, 192 diversity in perspectives and interests, 191, 207 establishment of informal networks in mosques, 193–194
 French network, 202–205
 grievances of, 191, 193 idealistic vision of Islam, 192 impracticality of returning to home countries, 192, 194
 Italian network, 205–207
 liberal asylum laws and, 194 movement to through Syria or Turkey, 189–190 North African Muslims and, 189 number of known suicide bombers from Europe, 189 post 9/11 security measures, surveillance, arrests, and public distrust of Islamists and, 194–195 post-World War II emigration from North Africa, 191–192 preexisting ties to radical Islamist networks, 195, 207–208 process of radicalism, 189, 191–193 radical networks, 193–195 repression of Islamic dissidents in the Middle East and North Africa and, 193 safe houses for, 189
- Expectations of future attacks credibility of threats and, 11–12 internal organizational pressure to continue attacks, 12 prerecorded statements and, 11, 13
- F
- Factional competition between groups, 8, 15, 216–217
- Fahd, King (Saudi Arabia), 146
- Fakhret, Serhane Ben Abdelmajid, 197
- al-Falastini, Abu Qatada
 paradigms for Muslims killing themselves or other Muslims, 130–131, 138 *n*29
- al-Fallaj, Addel Aziz, 177
- Fallujah
 counterinsurgency operations, 95
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
- Faruq Brigades
 suicide missions, 47
- “Fatimah’s Fiancé” video, 155–156, 162 *n*23
- Fatwa Council of Al-Rashidin Army
 “The Religious Ruling on Jihad and its Requirements in Iraq,” 79
- Fayez, Nafez, 171

- Fayez, Naser, 171
 al-Fazazi, Shaykh, 206 Fedayeen Saddam
 membership of, 60 *n*39 role of, 47 suicide missions, 47, 93, 111 *n*8
 Former Soviet Union
 Beslan, Russia, hostage crisis, 12, 28
 *n*22
 invasion of Afghanistan, 165–166, 171, 232, 234–235
 Fouad, Mullah
 biographical information, 205–206
 France
 Armed Islamic Group activities, 194 percentage of suicide bombers from, 189
 French network link between recruits in France and handlers in Syria, 204 Territorial Surveillance Directorate
 arrests of terrorists, 202–203, 204–205
 FS. See Fedayeen Saddam
 al-Furan, Ahmed, 182
- G
- Gandhi, Mahatma
 nonviolent protest and, 24–25
 GCMAF. See General Command of the Mujahidin of the Armed Forces General Command of the Mujahidin of the Armed Forces
 Baathist major group, 53, 63
 membership of, 46
 Germany
 Strasbourg Christmas market attack, 204
 al-Ghadiya, Abu, 180–181
 GIA. See Armed Islamic Group
- Gibson, James L.
 expectations of valued peers
 influence on activism, 22
 GICM. See Moroccan Islamic Combatant Group
- Goris, Issam
 biographical information, 199–201
 Group security protection of recruiters, 11
 Gulf War, 1990–1991
 Jordanian network and, 172
 Gunaratna, Rohan
 Tamil Tiger suicide attacks, 7
- H
- Hafez, Mohammed
 *Manufacturing Human Bombs:
 The Making of Palestinian Suicide Bombers*, ix–xi Haj, Khaled Ali, 175
 al-Hajari, Mansoor, 178
 al-Hajari, Mansur
 biography of, 150–151
 al-Hajari, Said
 biography of, 151
 dream vision, 157
 Hajer, Abu, 175
 al-Hakim, Abdel Aziz, 145
 el Hakim, Boubaker, 203
 el-Hakim, Redouane, 202, 203
 al-Hakimi, Abdelqadir, 198, 199 Hamas
 compared with Islamic insurgents, 63
 honoring of suicide bombers, 13
 justifications for suicide attacks
 compared with jihadi Salafis’
 justifications, 117
 Oslo peace process bombings, 11, 15 repertoire of resistance and, 25
 suicide attacks by, 89, 125, 217

- Hanbali rulings
 justifications for killing civilians, 131–132
- Hani, Abu, 206, 207
- Haraz, Said Mahmud Abdel Aziz, 190
- al-Hawali, Safar, 65
- al-Hayak, Imad, 181
- Herat training camp. See al-Tawhid wal-Jihad (Herat) training camp
- Hezbollah attacks against Israeli targets in southern Lebanon, 7 bombing of the U.S. embassy in Lebanon, 7
 compared with Islamic insurgents, 63 factional competition and, 15, 28
*n*23
 jihadi Salafis refusal to support, 79
 justifications for suicide attacks
 compared with jihadi Salafis'
 justifications, 117
 repertoire of resistance and, 25
 suicide attacks by, 89, 124–125, 235
 support for martyrdom, 168
- Higher National Committee for the De-Baathification of Society decrees from, 40–41
- al-Hijazi, Abu Hafs, 177
- Historical perspectives definitions of terms, 6 Hezbollah attacks against Israeli targets, 7
 kamikaze pilots of World War II,
 6–7
 Tamil Tigers, 7
 timeline for the evolution of al Qaeda in Iraq, 257–258
 U.S. embassy in Lebanon bombing, 7
- Hizb al-Tahrir, 193
- Homam, Mohamed Ali Abou, 203
- Housni, Jamal, 206
- Human shields
 justifications for killing, 132–134
- Humiliation theme of martyrdom female dishonor and suffering at the hands of security forces, 144–145
 images from other conflicts in Muslim countries, 143
- Iraq as the central battlefield on which to fight the war against the enemies of Islam, 144–145 notions of masculinity and, 145, 220 unity in the struggle of Muslims,
 144, 161 *n*5
 video footage from the “shock and awe” phase of the U.S. invasion, 142
- Hussein, Imam
 Shia mourning of the martyrdom of,
 123–124, 136 *n*13
- I
- IAI. See Islamic Army in Iraq
- al-Idbadi, Safwan, 171
- Ibn al-Khattab
 training camps, 24
- Ibn Taymiyyah
 justification for killing apostates,
 127, 138 *n*29
- Ideological Baathists
 British and French imperialism and, 47–48 commitment to reinstalling and Iraqi nationalist regime opposed to Iranian influence, 48 compared with Islamic nationalists, 46 compared with the Islamism of the 1979 Iranian revolution, 63

- coordination and cooperation with Islamic nationalists and jihadi Salafis, 52–55
 - description, 46
 - Faruq Brigades and, 47
 - Fedayeen Saddam and, 47
 - General Command of the Mujahidin of the Armed Forces and, 46
 - groups targeted by, 46
 - Muhaddad’s Army and, 49–50
 - Mujahidin Central Command and, 46
 - number of members, 49
 - reestablishment of the dominance of their deposed party, 48–49
 - steps necessary to cause the collapse of the system in Iraq, 48
 - support from Saddam Hussein’s extended family, 46–47
 - system-collapse strategy, 46, 56, 70–71, 93, 102
 - unpopularity of, 48–49, 50, 222–223
 - use of suicide attacks, 47
 - view of Iraq as part of the Arab nation and the Abbasid Empire, 47
- Ideology and theology of martyrdom
 - cultural or religious identity and, 118
 - dehumanization of targets of violence, 120
 - emotional arguments, 118, 142
 - framing of violent deeds as moral acts, 119
 - human intentionality and the Islamic prohibition against suicide, 129–131
 - ideological justifications, 117, 118
 - instrumental and ideological justifications for suicide terrorism, 121–123
 - meaning of piety and apostasy in Islam, 125–129
 - moral disengagement concept, 118–121
 - “permissibility” of killing civilians in Islam, 131–132
 - “permissibility” of killing Muslim human shields, 132–134
 - religious justifications of suicide attacks, 123–125
 - theological justifications, 117, 118
 - view of violent conduct as a minor transgression, 119–120
 - violence on the ground, 118–121
- Idris, Bazis, 203
- IEDs. See Improvised explosive devices
- Impotence and collusion themes of martyrdom
 - depictions of the “arrogance” of invading forces, 145
 - images of Arab leaders in the company of coalition officials, 145–146, 161 n6
 - importance of the imagery, 146–147
- Improvised explosive devices
 - Internet manuals on manufacturing, 169–170
 - number of U.S. troops killed by, 103
 - success of, 235
 - types of, 91
 - video image of U.S. soldiers and explosion of, 156, 162 n24
- Inevitable victory through faith and sacrifice
 - dream visions as confirmation of martyrdom, 157–158
 - eagerness to conduct a “martyrdom operation,” 151–153
 - sincere devotion to Islam, 148–149
 - success in martyrdom operations, 153–156
 - willingness to sacrifice personal wealth and family ties, 149–151

- Infrastructure targets, 91–92
- Internet
- al Qaeda training manuals posted on, 225, 238 *n*10
 - Biographies of Eminent Martyrs*, xviii
 - recruitment and, 24
 - replacement of leaflets, pamphlets, and audiocassettes with postings on, 21
 - role in recruitment and training of jihadists, 169–170, 184
 - tips to volunteers on how to make their way to Iraq without attracting the attention of security forces, 170
- Iran-Iraq war of 1980–88, 50, 124
- Iranian revolution
- compared with ideological Baathists' beliefs, 63
 - jihadi Salafis and, 232–233
- Iraq. See also specific cities and regions
- compared with Afghanistan, 3–4
 - economic stresses, 50–51
 - internal displacement of Iraqis because of sectarian violence and, 228–229
 - invasion of Kuwait, 233
 - justification for killing supporters of the occupation and the existing regime, 127–129, 137 *n*21
 - porous borders and influx of suicide bombers, 168, 222
- al-Iraqi, Abi al-Fadhil
- “The Markers of the Victorious Sect in the Land of the Two Rivers,” 126, 137 *n*18
- al-Iraqi, Abu Abdul Rahman
- leadership of, 54
- al-Iraqi, Abu Aseed
- leadership of, 54
- al-Iraqi, Abu Ayoub
- suicide attack on the al-Hamra Hotel and, 112 *n*18
- al-Iraqi, Abu Maysara
- leadership of, 54
- Iraqi insurgency. See also Suicide bombings in Iraq
- average daily insurgent attacks per month (including suicide bombings) June 2003–July 2006 (chart), 92
 - car bomb attacks, 90, 96, 98, 105, 110, 170
 - de-Baathification policies and, 37, 41, 42, 50–51, 221
 - emergence of, 35
 - estimated number of insurgents, 71
 - geographical expanse of attacks, 94–96, 110
 - ideological Baathists, 46–50, 56
 - improvised explosive devices, 91
 - initial success of some groups, 53
 - intimidation of those who work with coalition forces, 90–91
 - Islam as the vocabulary of resistance, 63
 - Islamic nationalists, 35–46, 55–56
 - jihadi Salafis, 36, 63–87
 - kidnapping of local citizens and foreigners, 91
 - list of Sunni insurgent groups in Iraq, 2003–2006, 243–249
 - mercenaries, 50–52, 60 *n*44
 - mix of opportunities and threats for Sunnis, 35
 - objectives of, 55
 - organization and coordination among groups, 52–55
 - reestablishment of groups suppressed under the former regime, 35
 - rise in frequency of attacks, 92
 - security service targets, 89, 91, 102–103, 110
 - strategic and ideological orientation of insurgents in Iraq (chart), 56
 - tactics used, 90–93, 110

- targets of attacks by, 91–93
 - third-generation insurgents, 234–238
- Iraqi Islamic Party
 - impact of the insurgency on, 35
- Islam. See also Quran
 - dream visions and, 157–158
 - human intentionality and the Islamic prohibition against suicide, 129–131
 - justification for killing apostates, 127–129
 - justification for killing human shields, 132–134
 - justifications for killing civilians, 131–132, 134
 - meaning of piety and apostasy in, 125–129
 - perception by Muslims of the war on terrorism as a war against Islam, 166–167, 190
 - sincere devotion to as part of the character of martyrs, 148–149
- Islamic Army in Iraq
 - attacks on U.S. personnel in Iraq as revenge for Israeli aggression in Gaza and Lebanon, 79
 - background of, 37
 - compared with al Qaeda in Iraq and Ansar al-Sunna Group, 80
 - departments, 80
 - emergence as a major group, 53
 - issuance of joint communiqué, 38
 - joint communiqué on the formation of the armed forces and police, 40, 54
 - joint responsibility with the ASG for attacks, 55
 - Persist or Continue* video, 161 n5
 - responsibility for attacks and kidnappings, 37
- Islamic Heritage Association, 172
- Islamic Jihad
 - adoption of suicide bombing tactic, 217
- Islamic Movement in Kurdistan
 - Ansar al-Islam, 205
 - merger with Jund al-Islam, 173
- Islamic nationalists
 - abundance of military arsenals and experienced cadres and, 45–46
 - avoidance of direct attacks on Shia and Kurdish citizens, 39
 - claim that the West seeks to divide Iraq into three states, 43
 - compared with Hezbollah and Hamas, 63
 - compared with ideological Baathists, 46
 - compared with jihadi Salafis, 78–82
 - coordination and cooperation with ideological Baathists and jihadi Salafis, 52–55, 56
 - culturally insensitive tactics and, 44–45
 - de-Baathification policies and, 37, 40–42, 50
 - deprivation of tribes and members of the security services of the privileges they enjoyed under Saddam Hussein, 43–44
 - deteriorating security and the lack of basic necessities and, 42–43
 - disbanding of the Iraqi armed forces without salaries or pensions and, 40
 - fear of new Shia- and Kurd-dominated security services, 39, 42
 - groups targeted by, 38–39
 - key beliefs, 38, 56, 63, 78–82
 - membership of, 55
 - representative groups, 37
 - Shias and Kurds and, 38, 39
 - support for, 37, 109

- system reintegration strategy, 36–46, 55–56, 92–93
 toppling of Saddam Hussein’s regime and, 39 ultimate goal of, 36, 38
- Islamic State of Iraq formation of, 258
- Italian network
 Ansar al-Islam links, 205–207, 210
*n*35
 Division for General Investigations and Operations and, 205–206
 key figures, 210 *n*35
 Tunisian origin of bombers, 205
- Italy. See also Italian network
 Ansar al-Islam cell based in Sorgane, 205
 Division for General Investigations and Operations, 205–206 number of suicide bombers from, 205
- J
- al-Jaafari, Ibrahim, 145
- Japanese kamikaze pilots compared with suicide bombers, 6–7
- al-Jazairi, Abbas, 199
- al-Jazairi, Mustapha, 198
- JCB. See Joint Coordination Bureau for Jihad Groups
- Jemaah Islamiah
 al Qaeda training camps and, 24
 “Jihad in Iraq: Hopes and Dangers,” 74
- Jihadi Salafis
 anti-Shia views, x, 70, 73, 75, 78–79,
 86 *n*26
 compared with ideological Baathists
 and Islamic nationalists, 72, 78–82, 223
- coordination and cooperation with Islamic nationalists and Ideological Baathists, 52–55
 dehumanization of targets of violence, 120 differences between Islamic Army in Iraq and, 79–82
 foreign members, 36, 71 “humiliations” and “crusades” against Islam and, 75, 122–123, 134, 219
 ideological commitment to establishing an Islamic state, 36, 90, 237
 ideological justifications for suicide attacks, 117
 importance of Iraq for the global jihad, 74–75, 237
 Islamic prohibition against suicide
 and, 129–131
 justification for killing human shields, 133–134
 justifications for killing civilians, 131–132, 134
 justifications for suicide attacks compared with justifications by Hamas and Hezbollah, 117 labeling of suicide attacks as “martyrdom operations,” 129 major groups, 64
 martyrdom and, 109–110, 123–125
 moral disengagement and, 118–121 presence in Jordan, 171–172 pressure by local tribes to halt suicide attacks, 230
 prohibitions against Muslims killing themselves or other Muslims and, 125, 134, 136 *n*16 reasons for suicide attacks, 109–110 reasons for the strength of, x refusal to support Hezbollah, 79 religious justifications for suicide
 attacks, 123–125

- rewards of martyrdom, 153
 - suicide attacks by, 71
 - system-collapse strategy, 70–71, 82–83, 93, 102
 - view of regional conflicts as part of a campaign against Islam and Muslims, 75
 - view of the Quran as the revealed word of God, 67
 - view of the war in Iraq as an opportunity to expel foreign forces and establish a genuine Islamic state, 72–73
 - view of themselves as the victorious sect, 125–127, 137 *n*18
 - vision of a regional jihad, 74
 - Jihadi Salafism
 - background of, 64–65, 71
 - basic beliefs, 64–70
 - classical Islam view of warfare and, 83 *n*5
 - compared with other forms of Salafism, 65
 - description, 64
 - emphasis on God’s sovereignty, 67, 123
 - features of contemporary beliefs, 66–70
 - fundamentalist views, 65–66
 - Khawarij* and, 69
 - Murjiah* and, 69
 - strict constructionist jurisprudence and rejection of innovations, 67–70, 125
 - takfir* concept, 68–70
 - tawhid* concept, 66
 - Johnson, Paul, Jr., 235
 - Joint Coordination Bureau for Jihad Groups
 - issuance of Islamic nationalist political statements, 38, 54
 - Jordan
 - embassy of as the target of attacks by the Iraqi insurgency, 91, 102
 - suicide attacks on Amman, 232
 - Jordanian network
 - al-Tawhid wal-Jihad training camp and, 172–173
 - end of the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan and, 171–172
 - Gulf War of 1990-1991 and, 172
 - jihadi Salafi network and, 171–172, 185 *n*10
 - Mujahidin Shura Council’s biographies of Jordanian “martyrs” in Iraq, 171
 - regions and tribes volunteers come from, 171
 - Jund al-Islam
 - merger with Islamic Movement of Kurdistan, 173
 - Jund al-Sham
 - suicide bombing of a British school in Doha, Qatar, 180
- K
- Kamikaze pilots
 - compared with suicide bombers, 6–7
 - Kanj, Bassam, 182–183
 - Karbala
 - counterinsurgency operations, 95
 - Karim, 203
 - Karmun, Nabil
 - biographical information, 200, 201
 - Keck, Margaret E.
 - transnational advocacy networks, 18
 - Kenya
 - embassy bombing, 225
 - Khaibar, Muhsin, 198, 199
 - Khalifa, Muhammad, 181
 - Khalil, Mohammed Wasfi Omar Abu, 171

- al-Khalil, Ibrahim, 182
 al-Kharaz, Abdel Salam, 196–197
 al-Khattab, Umar Ibn, 128 Khawarij
 jihadi Salafism and, 69
 Kill ratio
 average number of deaths and injuries, 9
 King, Dr. Martin Luther, Jr.
 nonviolent protest and, 24–25
Knights Under the Prophet's Banner
 (al-Zawahiri), 77
 Korchi, Samir, 204
 Kouachi, Cherif, 203
 Krekar, Mullah, 166, 173
 al-Kurdi, Abu Umar, 190
 al-Kurdi, Ahmed Mahmoud, 181 Kurdistan Workers Party
 use of female bombers, 7
 Kurds
 de-Baathification policy and, 41, 42
 gas attacks on, 39
 percentage of the Iraqi population, 215 use of chemical weapons against, 47
 Kuwait
 Iraqi invasion of, 233 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Ahmad, 177
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Ahmed
 biography of, 151
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu al-Bara, 177, 178
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Awf
 biography of, 143–144, 148, 161 *n*3
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Bakr, 177–178
 dream vision, 157
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Hamza
 biography of, 151
 dream vision, 157
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Salih, 178
 al-Kuwaiti, Abu Wadha, 178
 biography of, 150–151
 Kuwaiti network. See Saudi and Kuwaiti networks
- L
- Leaders of the Resistance and Liberation
 insurgent activities, 49
 Lebanese network
 Ansar Allah group, 182 bombings of foreign restaurants, 183 capture of a 13-member cell, 181–182 capture of Ayman Kamal al-Din, 183 clash of Lebanese forces with radical Islamists, 182–183 foiling of attacks against foreign targets by, 183 regions volunteers come from, 181
 Syrian control of security services and, 181
 Usbat al-Ansar group and, 181
 Usbat al-Ansar's dispatch of recruits to Iraq, 181, 188 *n*28
 Usud al-Sham fi Bilad al-Rafidayn operations, 182 Lebanon. See also Hezbollah bombings of the U.S. embassy and French peacekeeping forces, 7 Lhazazba, Umar, 206, 207 Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam
 honoring of suicide bombers, 13
 suicide attacks compared with suicide bombings in Iraq, 89, 235
 suicide missions, 7
 use of children and women for suicide attacks, 7 al-Libi, Abdelrahim or Abdelmajid, 198 Loukili, Youness
 biographical information, 201
 Lounani, Mustapha, 197–198 Loveman, Mara face-to-face networks, 22

LTTE. See Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam
al-Lubnani, Abu Muhammad, 182

M

MA. See Muhammad's Army
Maamri, Rachid
 biographical information, 205
Madrid train bombings, 196, 197, 198, 201, 232
al-Maghrebi, Jamal, 206 al-Maghrebi, Said, 203–204 al-Maghrabi, Abdelrahman, 199 al-Maghrabi, Abu Osama, 199
 biography of, 150
Mahdi Army
 impact of the insurgency on, 35
 Islamic Army in Iraq view of, 80
Mahmoud, Abu Abdullah al-Hassan Bin
 Ansar al-Sunna Group leadership, 71 MAI. See Mujahidin Army in Iraq
al-Majeed, Ali Hassan use of chemical weapons against Kurds, 47 Majid, Mohammed
 biographical information, 205–206
al-Makki, Abu Hassan, 177
al-Maliki, Nuri unveiling of new security plan, 101 Manufacturing Human Bombs: The Making of Palestinian Suicide Bombers (Hafez), ix–xi al-Maqdisi, Abu Jafar
 last will and testament, 182
al-Maqdisi, Abu Muhammad, 132, 172, 173
“The Markers of the Victorious Sect in the Land of the Two Rivers” (al-Iraqi and al-Ansari), 126, 137 *n*18

Martyrdom mythology in Iraq appeal of martyrdom, 224–225 basic characteristics, 141
 biographies of martyrs, 147–158
 countering the appeal of, 230–231 dream visions as confirmation of martyrdom, 157–158, 162 *n*26, 162 *n*27 eagerness to conduct martyrdom operations, 151–153 emotional imagery, x, 118, 142, 158 heroic response to nonreligious transgressions, 141 humiliation and suffering inflicted on Muslims, 141, 142–145, 217–218, 224 impotence of existing Muslim regimes and their collusion with the West, 141, 145–147 inevitable victory through faith and sacrifice, 141–142, 147–158
 normalization and acceptance of martyrdom by Muslims, x polarization of Muslims and, 230–231
 rewards of martyrdom, 153
 sacrifice of personal wealth and family ties, 149–151 selective highlighting of some aspects of religion, culture, and history, 141, 218–219 sincere devotion to Islam and, 148–149
 success in martyrdom operations, 153–156
 superhuman attributes of martyrs, 141
 symbolism of the Battle of Badr, 153–154
 vengeance against violations of the honor of Muslim women, 155–156, 162 *n*22

- video images of blown-up Humvees and of U.S. leaders looking shaken, 156 weaving together the narratives of humiliation, collusion, and redemption, 158–160
- Martyrs Brigade
description, 64
- Marwan, Abu Ubeida, 45
- al-Massoud, Abdel Aziz, 177
- Masud, Shah assassination of, 195, 206
- Media. See also Satellite television solicitation of recruits and, 13
- Merai, 206
- Mercenaries
funding for, 51–52
insurgent activities, 50–52
low-risk activities of, 51
- al-Mijati, Abdelkarim, 199
- al-Miqati, Ahmad Salim, 183
- Mobilization structures and networks
“bloc recruitment,” 23 collective attribution, 23
description, 21
discouragement of “free-riders,” 22 facilitation of mobilization, 21–23 linking of committed individuals, 21 social ties as a prerequisite for trust and commitment, 21–22
- Modood, Tariq
“compound racism” of Europeans, 192
- Moral disengagement concept
justification for suicide attacks, 118–121
- Morchidi, Kamal, 207
- Moroccan Islamic Combatant Group connection to Syria, 198–200
description, 196
- Morocco
Casablanca bombings, 205, 225
source of militant Islamists in Europe, 195
- Mosul
counterinsurgency operations, 95
suicide bomb attacks, 94
- Moussaten, Ibrahim, 201
- MSC. See Mujahidin Shura Council
- Muad, Abu
biography of, 151
- Muawiyah, Abu, 156
- Mubarak, Hussni, 145
- al-Muhajir, Abu Hamza, 230, 240 *n*26
- Muhammad, Major General Rashid
insurgency sponsorship, 49
- Muhammad’s Army
Baathist major group, 63
foreign jihadists in, 71–72 funding of, 49–50
insurgent activities, 49
- Muhjin, Abu, 181
- Mujahidin Army in Iraq
background of, 37
*Courageous Men or Lions (Usud
al-Shara)* video, 143
emergence as a major group, 53
joint communiqué on the formation of the armed forces and police, 40, 54
joint responsibility with the ASG for attacks, 55
suicide attacks against coalition forces, 57 *n*7
- Mujahidin Central Command
Baathist major group, 46, 63
- Mujahidin Shura Council
al Qaeda in Iraq role in formation of, 64
Bara Bin-Malik Battalion, 64 biographies of Jordanian “martyrs” in Iraq, 171 composition of, 64
emergence as a major group, 53

- “Fatimah’s Fiancé” video, 155–156, 162 *n*23
- formation of, 229, 258
- Islamic State of Iraq and, 258
- jihadi Salafism major group, 64
- jihadi Salafists and, 54
- Martyrs Brigade, 64
- merger of al-Tawhid wal-Jihad with, 89
- suicide attacks by, 64
- videos of jihadists wanted by the Saudi authorities, 177
- al-Muqrin, Abdel Aziz, 175, 176, 187 *n*17
- Murjiah*
- jihadi Salafism and, 69
- Muslim Brotherhood
- crushing of the uprising of, 180
- overthrow of the British-backed monarchy in Egypt, 52
- al-Mustafa, Nidal Hassan, 181
- al-Mutayri, Faysal Zaid, 177, 178
- al-Mutiri, Faysal Zayd
- biography of, 151
- N
- Nabah, Muhammad, 181–182
- Najaf
- counterinsurgency operations, 95
- suicide bomb attacks, 94
- al-Najdi, Abu Abdel al-Malik
- suicide attack on the al-Hamra Hotel and, 112 *n*18
- al-Nasiri, Staff Colonel Muayyad Yasin Aziz Abd-al-Razzaq
- Muhaddad’s Army formation and, 49
- Nasrallah, Hassan, 218
- Nasser, Gamal Abdel
- Egyptian “free officers” movement and, 52
- al-Nazzal, Sheikh Kamal, 229
- Networks. See Mobilization structures and networks
- 1920 RB. See 1920 Revolution Brigades of the Islamic and National Resistance Movement
- 1920 Revolution Brigades of the Islamic and National Resistance Movement
- Association of Muslim Scholars and, 37
- attacks on U.S. personnel in Iraq as revenge for Israeli aggression in Gaza and Lebanon, 79
- background of, 37
- conditions for negotiating with the United States, 87 *n*31
- emergence as a major group, 53
- joint communiqué on the formation of the armed forces and police, 40, 54
- videos depicting IED attacks on U.S. military vehicles, 87 *n*28
- views of the Association of Muslim Scholars, 87 *n*32
- Nominal Baathists. See Islamic nationalists
- O
- Omar, Omar Mahmoud Abu, 172
- Open Source Center
- data source, xvii
- Organizational legitimacy
- factional competition and, 8, 15, 216–217
- repression by the targeted country and, 15–16
- Organized labor
- threats to, 18
- OSC. See Open Source Center
- Oslo peace process
- Hamis bombings during, 11, 15

Ouabour, Abdullah, 198
 El Ouar, Rashid, 195
 Ouinis, Tarek, 202, 203
 Oussaih, Khalid, 198

P

- Palestine. See also Hamas; Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine
 Aqsa uprising, 167, 168, 224, 235
 support for “martyrdom operations,” 168
 video images of the killing of Muhammad al-Durah, 143
- Pape, Professor Robert Dying to Win, 213–215
- Passy, Florence
 collective attribution, 23
- Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, 173
- Paz, Reuven estimate of the percentage of jihadi Salafis from Saudi Arabia, 72
- Petersen, Roger D. dynamic of ethnic resentment, 41–42
- Pew Research Center
 “Views of a Changing World: How Global Publics View War in Iraq, Democracy, Islam and Governance, Globalization,” 167, 184 *n*3
 “A Year After Iraq War: Mistrust of America in Europe Ever Higher, Muslim Anger Persists,” 167, 184 *n*4
- PFLP. See Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine
- PKK. See Kurdistan Workers Party
- Policy implications. See Theory and policy implications
- Political opportunity structures collective mobilization opportunities, 18, 221–223
 description, 18
 loss of havens for radical Islamists and, 19, 222 threats to organized labor and environmental advocates and, 18 toppling of the Baathist regime and, 19
- Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine
 adoption of suicide bombing tactic, 217, 235
 training camps, 24
- Powell, Secretary of State Colin
 pictured looking shaken after images of a blown-up Humvee, 156
- Prophet Muhammad. See Islam; Prophetic traditions
- Prophetic traditions
 justifications for killing civilians, 131–132, 134
 permission to fight back against the onslaught of Meccan invasions, 153–154
- Psychological impact incomprehensibility of attacks, 14 intimacy of killings, 13–14 public view of suicide bombings as unprecedented, 14
- Psychological trauma
 explanation for suicide bombings in Iraq, 217–218

Q

al-Qahtani, Abu Ans al-Tahami
 biography of, 151
 last will and testament, 144

al-Qaradawi, Yusuf, 168

Qatada, Abu, 204
 Qatadah, Abu, 172
 Quran. See also Islam divine intervention in battle, 154 dream visions, 157–158, 162 *n*26,
 162 *n*27
 jihadi Salafism view of, 67
 justifications for martyrdom, 129–131, 218–219
 references to jihad and martyrdom, 124 Qutaybah, Abu, 172

R

RA. See al-Rashidin Army
 Radi, al-Ayashi, 206
 Rafik, Mohammed, 205
 Ramadan, Daoud, 201
 Ramadan, Mustafa, 182
 Ramadi
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
 al-Rashidi, Faysal Ali Musa, 177–178
 dream vision, 157
 al-Rashud, Abdullah Rashid, 181, 229
 Rawashdeh, Mohammed, 171
 Recruitment
 “bloc recruitment,” 23 difficulties in, 10 networks of radical Salafis and, 165–166
 solicitation of recruits, 13
 ties developed during the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, 165
 Red Cross
 target of attacks by the Iraqi
 insurgency, 91, 102
 Reha, Mohammed, 198
 Reid, Richard, 194
 “The Religious Ruling on Jihad and its Requirements in Iraq,” 79

Repertoires of action, modularity, and diffusion relational and nonrelational ties and, 24–25, 225–226
 values and goals of the movement
 and, 24, 224–226
 Repression by the targeted country,
 15–16
 Ressam, Ahmed, 194
 Revenge killing connection with values necessary for tribal unity, 44–45 Revolutionary Islamists
 targets of, 63–64
 Rice, Secretary of State Condoleezza
 pictured looking shaken after images
 of a blown-up Humvee, 156
 al-Rimyan, Abdullah Salih, 176 Roberts, James testimony on lack of loyalty among Iraqi officials and tribal leaders, 51–52
 al-Rumayan, Abdullah Muhammad
 Salih, 176
 Rumsfeld, Secretary of Defense Donald
 pictured looking shaken after images
 of a blown-up Humvee, 156
 al-Rushud, Abdullah Rashid, 175
 al-Rushudi, Muhammad Salih Sulieman, 176

S

Saadi, Fadh al
 biographical information, 206–207
 al-Saadi, Ahmed Abdel Karim, 181
 Saddam Hussein
 amnesty for jailed criminals, 50–51 patronage system, 43–44
 purges of the officer corps, 39

- support for Ideological Baathists from the extended family of, 46–47
 tribal chivalry, 45
 U.S. forces in Saudi Arabia and, 233 view of U.S. strategy, 47 al-Sadiq, Adnan Muhammad, 204 al-Saeed, Omar Deeb, 181
 Said, 207
 Salah al-Din al-Ayoubi Brigades of the Islamic Front for Iraqi Resistance
 background of, 37–38
 Salah al-Din al-Ayoud Brigades of the Islamic Front for Iraqi Resistance
 emergence as a major group, 53
 joint communiqué on the formation
 of the armed forces and police, 40, 54
 Salah al-Din
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
 Salih, Abu
 biography of, 148
 Salman, Abou, 203
 Samarra
 counterinsurgency operations, 95
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
 Samir al-Suwail. See Ibn al-Khattab
 Sarkozy, Interior Minister Nicolas
 (France), 202
 Sassi, Ali Ben, 206 Satellite television role in recruitment and training of jihadists, 169–170
 televised beheadings of Americans, 235
 Saudi and Kuwaiti networks attempted recruitment of a soccer team, 177
 end of al Qaeda’s influence in Saudi Arabia and, 175–176 inspiration of the September 11
 attacks and, 174
 “iron fist” policy of the Saudi authorities and, 175 lack of military training and, 175 links among suicide bombers from Kuwait (chart), 179 movement through Syria, 174 number of known suicide bombers among members of, 178
 recruitment of groups, 177 relative wealth of members, 174–175 volunteers fighting in Afghanistan and Chechnya, 174, 186 *n*13
 Wahhabism and, 174
 Saudi Arabia. See also Saudi and Kuwaiti networks images of Arab leaders in the company of coalition officials, 145–146 number of September 11 hijackers from, 174 presence of U.S. forces in, 233 al-Sawwat, Majid, 177
 al-Sayyid, Rabi Uthman, 202 SCIRI. See Supreme Council for the Islamic Revolution in Iraq
 SDAB. See Salah al-Din al-Ayoubi Brigades of the Islamic Front for Iraqi Resistance Security forces
 al Qaeda in Iraq video montage about fighting against, 158–159
 female dishonor and suffering at the hands of to justify violence, 144–145
 inclusion of Sunnis in, 228 justification for attacking, 121–122,
 127, 135 *n*9
 responsibility for counterinsurgency operations, 228
 sectarian militias and, 229

- targets of suicide attacks, 89, 91, 102–103, 110, 235–236, 237
- September 11 terrorist attacks. See also War on terrorism
 - post 9/11 security measures, surveillance, arrests, and public distrust of Islamists, 194–195, 222
 - strategy of agitation in the Muslim world, 11
 - U.S. war in Afghanistan after, 166
- al-Shafi, Abu Abdullah, 173
- al-Shahid, Ibn, 183
- al-Shahwani, Muhammad Abdullah
 - dominance of former Baathists, 49
- al-Shamari, Abdel Aziz
 - biography of, 151
- al-Shamari, Abdul Aziz, 177
- al-Shamari, Dr. Ibrahim
 - coordination among groups, 54
 - differences between Islamic Army in Iraq and jihadi Salafis, 79–82
 - interview with Al Jazeera television, 57 n4
- al-Shamari, Muhammad Bin Rahayman Al-Tawmi
 - biography of, 148
- al-Shami, Abu Ans, 172
- al-Shamri, Abu Jandal
 - MAI leader, 37
- Shardi, Hisham, 181
- Sharif, Abu, 181
- Sharon, Prime Minister Ariel (Israel)
 - pictured shaking hands with Pres. Bush, 146
- al-Shayib, Salih, 181
- al-Shaykh, Sheikh Abd, 65
- Sheikh Muayad
 - insurgency comments, 38
- Shias. See also Badr Corps
 - de-Baathification policy and, 41, 42
 - “heresy” of, x, 128, 219, 225
 - jihadi Salafist views of, 70, 73, 75, 120–121
 - justification for violence against, 42, 122–123, 128, 135 n10, 136 n11
 - martyrdom as a central feature of Shia ethos, 123–124
 - mass martyrdom by Iranian youth during the Iran-Iraq war of 1980–1988, 124
 - mourning of the martyrdom of Imam Hussein, 123–124, 136 n13
 - “original sin” of, 121
 - percentage of the Iraqi population, 215
 - rejection of the legitimacy of the first three caliphs in Islam, 75, 128
 - strategic consequences to the coalition of violence against, 235–236, 237
- al-Siayan, Khaled, 183
- al-Siddiq, Abu Bakr, 125, 128
- Sikkink, Kathryn
 - transnational advocacy networks, 18
- Social movement framework
 - advantage of, 16–17
 - description, ix–x, 16–18, 221
 - mobilization structures and networks, 20–23
 - political opportunity structures, 18–19, 221–223
 - repertoires of action, modularity, and diffusion, 23–25, 224–226
 - strategic framing, 19–20, 223–224
 - transnational character of bombers, 16
- Soughir, Bilal
 - biographical information, 200, 201
- Soviet Union. See Former Soviet Union
- Spain. See also Belgian-Spanish network
 - Madrid train bombings, 196, 197, 198, 201, 232

- Sri Lanka. See Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam
- Strasbourg Christmas market attack, 204
- Strategic communication with targeted countries
- commitment to escalate, 11–12
 - determination, 11
 - deterrence of neutral observers and uncommitted allies, 12
 - shaming the enemy, 12
 - solicitation of recruits, 13
- Strategic framing
- “condensed symbols” and, 19–20
 - cultural framing and, 19
 - demonization of suicide attack targets, 223–224
 - mobilization tasks, 19
 - public support for martyrdom in Palestine and Lebanon and, 20
 - use of discourse and symbolism for political aims, 20, 223–224
- al-Subayi, Nayif Salih, 178
- Suicide bombings in Iraq. See also Iraqi insurgency
- actions taken by U.S. forces to guard against, 105
 - “altruistic suicide” theory, 214–215
 - average daily insurgent attacks per month (including suicide bombings) June 2003–July 2006 (chart), 92
 - average number of per day, 3, 26 n1
 - car bombs, 90, 96, 98, 105, 110
 - chaos and insecurity and, 102, 110, 215, 223
 - civilians mistakenly killed, 105
 - compared with those in other countries, 89
 - concealing the identity of bombers, 106–107
 - culture of martyrdom and, 13, 93, 109–110
 - data and analysis of, 93–94
 - decline of international support, 12
 - definition of, 6
 - distribution of targets attacked by suicide bombers, 2003–2006 (chart), 104
 - effectiveness of, 105, 112 n29
 - elections and, 101
 - explanations for the rise and pace of suicide terrorism, 213–221
 - geographical expanse of, 94–96, 110
 - historical perspective, 6–7
 - human intentionality and the Islamic prohibition against suicide, 129–131
 - lethality of, 102
 - as a message to neutral countries, 102
 - names and nationalities of known suicide bombers in Iraq, 251–254
 - number of compared with other countries, ix
 - number of persons killed and injured per month in suicide attacks, 2003–2006 (chart), 103
 - organization of the book, 25–26
 - pattern in claims of responsibility for, 107–109, 110
 - percentage of suicide attacks by group, 2003–2006 (chart), 107
 - perpetrators of, 106–109
 - police as targets, 94–95, 102–103
 - political developments and, 101–102, 110, 220
 - practice runs, 98
 - pressure on democratic governments, 215
 - public backlash against, 12
 - quarterly data on suicide attacks by group, 2003–2006 (chart), 108
 - religious worldview and, 89
 - rise of, 5, 92

- sabotaging of peace strategy, 10–11 security forces as targets, 89, 102–103, 110
 Shia civilian targets, 89, 91 social movement framework for, 16–25, 221–226, ix–x strategy of agitation, 11
 as a strategy to end occupation, 213–215
 suicide attacks by city (chart), 97 suicide attacks in Iraq per month,
 March 2003–August 2006
 (chart), 94
 surveillance of bombers, 98 target of suicide attacks by quarter, 2003–2006 (chart), 104
 targets of, 5, 89, 91–93, 102–106
 theoretical perspectives, 7–16 timing of, 99–102, 220 timing of suicide attacks in Iraq, 2003–2006 (chart), 100
 training for Arab volunteers for, 111
n7
 transnational character of bombers, 5, 16, 89, 219, 251–254
 types of attacks, 96–99 types of suicide attacks, March 2003–February 2006 (chart), 97 use of multiple bombers, 98–99 vehicles used, 96
 Suleiman, Hassan, 182
 Suleiman, Jamal
 Ansar Allah leadership, 182
 al-Sumaydi, Sheikh Mahdi, 37
 Sunnis. See also Islamic nationalists;
 Jihadi Salafis
 assassination attempts against Saddam Hussein, 39
 martyrdom and, 124–125
 Supreme Council for the Islamic Revolution in Iraq
 Badr Corps, 42, 80
 al-Suri, Abu-Bakr, 180
 al-Suri, Abu Umayr
 biography of, 148
 Sykes-Picot agreement, 72, 83 n5
 Syria
 Moroccan Islamic Combatant Group and, 198–200
 movement of European Muslims to Iraq through, 189–190, 222
 U.S. pressure to monitor borders with Iraq and, 226–227
 Syrian network
 arrest of ten individuals belonging to a jihadi Salafi group, 180, 187
 n25
 border facilitation of movement of volunteers into Iraq, 178 foreign volunteers entering Iraq through, 178–179
 Jund al-Sham and, 180
 number of known suicide bombers
 among members of, 178
 “returnees” from Afghanistan and, 180 rise of Islamic revivalism and, 180 smuggling routes developed during the trade embargo against Iraq, 179–180
 System-collapse strategy, 70–71, 82–83,
 93, 102, 106
 System reintegration strategy, 36–46,
 55–56, 92–93
- T
- Tactical advantages
 cost-effectiveness, 9–10
 group security, 11
 kill ratio, 9
 pinpointing of targets, 9
 tactical flexibility, 9
 Tactical flexibility, 9
 Tahayinah, Nasri Izzedin, 171–172

- Taieb, Ahmed Bin, 201
- Takfir* concept
 description, 68–70
 justification for killing supporters of the occupation, 137 *n*21
- Tal Afar
 counterinsurgency operations, 95, 99
 suicide bomb attacks, 94
- Talabani, Jalal, 145, 173
- Talhah, Abu, 181–182
- Taliban
 fall of the Taliban regime in Afghanistan, 4, 70–71, 173
- Tamil Tigers. See Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam
- Tantawi, Sheikh Muhammed, 168
- Tanzania
 embassy bombing, 225
- Tariq, Abu, 181
- al-Tartusi, Abu Basir, 132, 133–134
- al-Tashady, Abu Nasser, 177
- Tawhid* concept
 description, 66
- al-Tawhid wal-Jihad
 formation of, 257
 religious worldview of, 89
 replacement of by al Qaeda in Iraq, 71, 173
 televised beheading of Nicholas Berg, 235
 ultimate aim, 90
- al-Tawhid wal-Jihad (Herat) training
 camp, 172–173
- al-Tayyeb, Sheikh Ahmed, 168
- Television. See Satellite television
- Territorial Surveillance Directorate
 arrests of terrorists, 202–203, 204–205
- Theological justifications for suicide attacks. See also Ideology and theology of martyrdom martyrdom as a central feature of Shia ethos, 123–124 recent veneration of martyrdom by Sunnis, 124–125
- Theology of martyrdom. See Ideology and theology of martyrdom
- Theoretical perspectives. See also Theory and policy implications explanations for bombings, 7–8 factional competition between groups, 8 lack of a psychological profile of bombers, 8
 organizational legitimacy and, 14–16
 psychological impact, 13–14
 strategic communication, 11–13 tactical advantages of suicide bombings, 9–11
- Theory and policy implications action, modularity, and diffusion of suicide attacks, 224–226
 counterinsurgency limitations, 226–231
 explanations for the rise and pace of suicide terrorism, 213–221 factional competition, 216–217 political opportunities for mobilizing transnational martyrs, 221–223
 psychological trauma, 217–218
 religious fanaticism and the culture of martyrdom, 218–221
 social movement theory, 221–226 strategic framing of martyrdom, 223–224
 suicide terrorism as a strategy to end occupation, 213–215 third-generation jihadists and the future of transnational martyrdom, 231–238
- al-Tikriti, Ibrahim al-Hassan
 insurgency sponsorship, 49

- Transnational Islamic terrorists
Arab fighters in Iraq, 165–188
countries of origination, 5, 16
European Muslims in Iraq, 189–211
future of, 231–238
- al-Tunisi, Abu Samir suicide attack on the al-Hamra Hotel and, 112 *n*18
- Tunisia
origin of bombers in the Italian network, 205
source of militant Islamists in Europe, 195
- Turkey. See also Kurdistan Workers Party
embassy of as the target of attacks by the Iraqi insurgency, 91, 102
movement of European Muslims to Iraq through, 189–190
- al-Turki, Abu Abdullah
biography of, 152
- TWJ. See al-Tawhid wal-Jihad
- ## U
- Ubaydah, Abu, 181
- al-Ulaybi, Ameen, 198
- Umar Brigade
formation and purpose of, 42, 122,
136 *n*11
- United Kingdom
London suicide bombings, 232 percentage of suicide bombers from, 189
- United Nations
target of attacks by the Iraqi
insurgency, 91, 102
- al-Urduni, Abu al-Abbas, 171
- al-Urduni, Abu al-Bara, 171
- al-Urduni, Abu al-Walid, 171
- al-Urduni, Abu al-Yahya, 171
- al-Urduni, Abu-Hammam, 171
- al-Urduni, Abu Radwan, 171
- U.S. embassy in Lebanon bombing, 7
- U.S. invasion of Iraq estimate of American and Iraqi dead and wounded, 4, 26 *n*3 increase in suicide attacks and, 5,
232, 240 *n*27
jihadi Salafis' view of, 74 perception by Muslims as an unjust war and an attack on Islam,
167, 184 *n*2
video footage from the “shock and awe” phase, 142
- U.S.-Iraq war of 1990-91, 50
- Usbat al-Ansar dispatch of recruits to Iraq, 181, 188
*n*28
Lebanese Islamists joining, 183
Lebanese network and, 181
- USS Cole
attack on, 225
- Usud al-Sham fi Bilad al-Rafidayn operations in Iraq, 182
- al-Utaybi, Abdel Rahman Bin Shuja
biography of, 143–144, 148, 161 *n*3
dream vision, 157
- al-Utaybi, Saud, 175, 176
- al-Utaybi, Sheikh Mohammed bin
Abdul Rahman, 177
- Uthaimin, Sheikh Ibn, 65, 129
- ## V
- The Victorious Sect replacement of Ansar al-Islam and, 71
- “Views of a Changing World: How Global Publics View War in Iraq, Democracy, Islam and Governance, Globalization,” 167, 184 *n*3

W

- Waddani, Habib, 207
 Wahhab, Muhammad Ibn, 174, 219
 Wahhabism, 174, 219
 War on terrorism. See also September 11 terrorist attacks perception by Muslims as a war against Islam, 166–167, 190 post 9/11 security measures, surveillance, arrests, and public distrust of Islamists and,
 194–195, 222
 “Why Do We Fight, and Whom Do
 We Fight?”, 73, 85 *n*15, 85 *n*16
 Wiktorowicz, Quintan
 “cognitive opening” concept,
 190–191, 193
 Women
 suicide attacks by, 7, 13, 27 *n*7, 195, 199–201
 World War II Japanese kamikaze pilots compared with suicide bombers, 6–7

Y

- al-Yas, Abu, 199
 al-Yasser, Abdelmajid, 198 Yassin, Ahmed, 181
 al-Yemeni, Abu Sarah, 183

Z

- al-Zahrani, Faris, 175
 al-Zaim, Ayoub, 198
 al-Zarqawi, Abu Musab
 al-Tawhid wal-Jihad training camp, 172–173
 anti-Shia rhetoric, 75–77, 82, 86
 *n*22, 99, 128, 220
 anti-United States video message,
 106, 113 *n*30
 bin Laden’s support for, 176, 257 declaration of allegiance to bin Laden, 176
 foreign jihadists comments, 75–77 formation of the MSC and, 229
 justification for killing human shields, 138 *n*35
 justification for suicide attacks, 121
 justification for violence against Iraqi security forces, 127
 justification for violence against the Shia, 42, 122, 135 *n*10 killing of, 101
 list of individuals associated with, 255–256
 move to Afghanistan, 171 move to northern Iraq, 166, 173 poem about the themes of humiliation, impotence, and redemption through faith and martyrdom, 159–160
 pressure from Iraqis to have only Iraqi leaders, 54
 Syrian network and, 180 video comments on the transnational nature of jihad, 143 view of the war in Iraq as an opportunity to expel foreign forces and establish a genuine Islamic state, 42, 84 *n*12
Zarwat al-Sinam
 prophetic tradition of divine intervention in battle, 154
 al-Zawahiri, Aymen
 anti-Shia strategy, 77–78
 Knights Under the Prophet’s Banner, 77
 Zeidan, Muhammad Abdullah, 182