

INDEX

- AA. See Acceptance/adaptation worldview
- Aal al-Bayt Foundation for Islamic Thought, 184, 191–192, 199, 200, 245 n21
- Abdullah, King, 206
- Abraham: A Journey to the Heart of Three Faiths*, 19
- Abraham Funds, 238 n113
- Abrahamic dialogue, 18–21
- “Abrahamic Tradition and Christian-Muslim Dialogue,” 115
- Acceptance/adaptation worldview, 32–35, 223–224
- Action model, 26–27
- Adaptation worldview, 32–35, 223–224
- Advocacy model, 26–27, 127–128, 160–161, 224–226
- Affective dialogue, 16–18
- Al-Abadi, Anas, 193–194
- Al Aqsa Intifada, 45, 47, 73, 81–82
- Al Azhar, Sheikh, 152, 154, 210
- Al Azhar Committee for Dialogue, 166
- Al-Azhar University, 124
- Al Hussieni, Haj Amin, 44
- Al Ikhaa Al Dini, 166
- Al-Ishrak Intellectual and Cultural Association/Transcendental Theosophy Institute: Theoretical and Practical, 126
- Al-Liqa Center, 51, 74–75
- Al-Makassed Higher Institute of Islamic Studies, 123–124
- Al-Makassed Society, 102
- Al-Marqab Journal*, 240–241 n40
- Al-Mawla, Saoud, 123
- Al-Nashra*, 191
- Al Qassam, Sheikh Izz Al din, 44
- Al-Sayyegh, Bishop Salim, 194
- Al Tamimi, Sheikh Izzidin Al Khatib, 192
- Al Wasat Party, 167–168
- Al Wetaidy, Ahmed, 167
- Alexandria Declaration of Interfaith Coexistence, 210
- Ali, Mohamed, 143, 154
- Allah
- role in religious identity, 19
- A'mr Ibn El-Aas, 142
- Antonine University, 124
- Apolitical model, 61
- Arab Christian-Muslim dialogue group, 71
- Arab Working Group on Muslim-Christian Dialogue, 105–106, 114–116, 195–196
- Arabs
- association between religious identity and violence in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 43–45
 - asymmetric management of interfaith dialogue programs, 83–85
 - expectations and needs of interfaith dialogue programs, 86
 - inadequate representation in interfaith dialogue, 89–91
 - measuring successes and accomplishments of interfaith dialogue, 69–76
 - motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 - politics versus the harmony model, 55–65
 - separating religion from nationalism, 66–69
- Ard al-Isra*, 195
- Aveilus, 25
- AWGMCD. See Arab Working Group on Muslim-Christian Dialogue
- Ayoub, Dr. Mahmoud, 125
- Azmi, Mahmoud, 144
- Baagill, H.M., 12
- Baha'i
- contemporary state of relations in Jordan, 182–183

- Baha'i (cont.)
 Jordan population, 179
 Baqoury, Sheikh Ahmed, 167
 Bedouins, 201
Between Sand and Spirit; How Lebanese Religious or Spiritual Communities Evaluate the 'Other,' 105
 Bible, 20
 Boisset, Father Louis, 121
BRIIFS. See Bulletin of the Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies
Bulletin of the Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies, 186, 191
 Bush, George W., 148
- Camp for Youth of the Unified Lebanon, 106
 Career opportunities, 132
 Caritas-Lebanon, 106
 Catholic Church, 109, 192
 CCSS. See Coptic Center for Social Studies
 CDD. See Circle for Development and Dialogue
 CDG. See Cultural Development Group
 Center for Christian-Muslim Studies, 124–125, 129, 135, 240–241n
 Center for Reconciliation and Democracy, 120
 Center for Strategic Research and Documentation in Beirut, 105
 CEOSS. See Coptic Evangelical Organization for Social Services Ceremonial approach to dialogue
 in Egypt, 161
 importance of, 24–26
 Israeli-Palestinian context, 61, 77
 in Jordan, 189
 in Lebanon, 127
Challenges to Mutual Understanding: Muslim and Christian Students Face to Face, 122
 Chehab, Hicham, 119–120
Christian-Muslim Declarations Issued between 1954 and 1992, 123
Christian Muslim Dialogue, 12
- Christian-Muslim Relations: An Authoritative Reading of History, the Present, and the Future*, 105 Christians
 contemporary state of Muslim-Christian relations in Jordan, 181–185
 harmony model, 62–63
 historical background in Lebanon, 96–100
 historical context for Muslim-Christian relations in Jordan, 180–181
 inadequate representation in interfaith dialogue, 89–91
 interfaith organizations in Lebanon, 109–126
 Jordan population, 179, 201
 in modern state Egypt, 143–145
 motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 problematization of Muslim-Christian relationships in Egypt, 148–154
 religiocentric perspective, 29–31
 state of dialogue in Egypt, 157–158
 Church of Christ, 183
 Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 183
 Circassians, 201, 246 n62
 Circle for Development and Dialogue, 117–118
 Coexistence and Belongingness camp, 106
 “Coexistence and Religious Tensions in Some Arab Countries,” 115
Coexistence in Islam and Christianity, 105
 Cognitive dialogue model, 16–18, 220–221
 Committee for Church Collaboration for Development and Relief, 106
 Communal Council, 145–146
 Communication problems, 40, 85
 Comparative Religions, 172

- Confessionalism, 22–23, 98–99
- Conflict model, 32–35, 223–224
- Coptic Center for Social Studies, 168–169
- Coptic Church, 147–148, 150, 214
- Coptic Conference, 144
- Coptic Evangelical Church, 169–170
- Coptic Evangelical Organization for Social Services efforts in Egypt, 161, 169–170, 175, 212, 220
Intercultural Dialogue Forum, 217
- Coptic Orthodox Church, 145, 152, 168–169, 220
- Copts
impact of July Revolution, 145–146
in modern state Egypt, 143–144
negotiation and compromise strategies, 153–154 political role of the church, 150–151
premodern history, 142–143
problematization of Muslim-Christian relationships, 148–149
social problems, 149–150
sociocultural competition, 152
state blame for religious identity problems, 152–153
- Council for Interreligious Understanding, 55
- Covenant of Jesuit Fathers, 118
- Crusaders
historical background in Lebanon, 97
- Cultural Development Group, 168
- Cultural Foundation Institute, 102
- DD. See Denial/defense orientation
- Debate
distinguishing from dialogue, 8
- Defense orientation, Denial/defense orientation
- Deir al-Jabal Covenant, 118
- Denial/defense orientation, 29–31
- Developmental Model of Intercultural Sensitivity, 28, 233 n5
- Dialogue
conceptualizing, 8–9 distinguishing from debate, 8
Dialogue and Coexistence: An Arab Muslim-Christian Covenant, 114
- Dialogue of civilizations. See Interfaith dialogue
- Dialogue of life model, 127, 188–189, 226–228
Dictionary of the Ecumenical Movement, 154
- Diplomacy. See Interfaith dialogue
- Diversity model, 32–35, 223–224
- DMIS. See Developmental Model of Intercultural Sensitivity
- Dominican Institute, 171
- Druze
contemporary state of relations in Jordan, 182
historical background in Lebanon, 97–98
inadequate representation in interfaith dialogue, 89–91
Jordan population, 179
- ECJP. See Egyptian Committee for Justice and Peace
- Ecumenical Studies Center, 202
- Educational systems
interreligious education for pluralism, 136–137 introducing interfaith dialogue into, 93 religious instruction in Jordan, 184
as source of segregation in Lebanon, 101–102
- Egypt. See also Middle East
advocacy model, 160–161
agenda for the future, 175–177 conduct of interviews, 141–142
Coptic problems, 148–149
deficiency of grassroots initiatives, 173–174 economic liberalization, 147–148 historical background, 142–148 interfaith activities, 157–165
interfaith organizations, 166–172, 256–257
July Revolution, 145–146

- Egypt (cont.)
 lack of clear vision for interfaith dialogue efforts, 174–175 lexicon of interfaith dialogue, 154–155 Muslims and Christians in the modern state, 143–145
 negotiation and compromise strategies, 153–154
 objectives of interfaith dialogue, 161–163 obstacles to interfaith dialogue, 173–175 overpoliticization of interfaith dialogue efforts, 173 participation in interfaith dialogue, 164–165 political role of church, 150–151 political role of religion, 147–148
 premodern history, 142–143
 problematization of Muslim-Christian relationships, 148–154 role of ritual, 161
 social problems, 149–150
 sociocultural competition, 152
 state of dialogue in, 157–158
 state problems, 152–153
 state-religion relationship, 145–146 state security role, 155–157 subjects and topics of dialogue, 163–164 suspicion surrounding interfaith dialogue efforts, 174
 unity model, 158–160
 Egyptian Committee for Justice and Peace, 170–171
 El Awwa, Mohamed Seleem, 167
 El Bishri, Tarik, 143, 167
 El-Halabi, Abbas, 121, 123
 El Maglis El Milli, 145
 Ela Madi, Abu El, 167–168
 Emanuel, Joseph, 51
 Episcopal Committee for Christian-Muslim Dialogue, 109–110
 Ethnocentric perspectives, 28
 Ethnorelative perspectives, 28
 Evangelical Church, 192
 Exclusivism, 12–13
 Faith-based diplomacy. See Interfaith dialogue
 Feiler, Bruce, 19
 Fokolari, 127
For the Love of Tomorrow, 119
 Forgiveness, 23–24
 Forman, Rabbi Menahim, 234–235 n7
 Forum for Intercultural Dialogue, 170
 Free Officers, 145
 Freedom from Religious Persecution Act, 147
 French Cultural Center, 191
 Fuad, King, 145
 Fundamentalism, 243 n43
 Garden of Peace, 117
 General Islamic Congress for Jerusalem, 194–195
 General Muslim Congress for Jerusalem, 195
 General Workers Syndicate, 100
 Ghazzal, Bishop Salim, 117, 134
 God
 role in religious identity, 19–20
 Governments
 role in interfaith dialogue, 131–132, 214–216
 Greater Lebanon
 creation of, 98
 Grieving
 interfaith dialogue and, 25
 Haddad, Father Gregoire, 126
 Haddad, Father Nabil, 189, 192–193
Handbook Teaching and Resource Material in Conflict Resolution, Education for Human Rights, Peace and Democracy, 134
 Hariri, Prime Minister, 102
 Hariri, Rafik, 247 n4
 Harmony model, 55–65, 222–223
 Hartman Institute, 53, 61–62, 87
 Hassan bin Talal, Crown Prince, 185, 190, 206, 215
 Hassoun, Dr. Mohamed, 171
 Hertzal, 44
 Hiwar.net, 122

- Horizons of Islamo-Christian Dialogue*, 105
- Human and Theological Sciences Faculty, 171
- Husayn Fadlallah, Ayatollah Mohammed, 105
- IC. See Initiatives of Change
- ICCI. See Interreligious Coordinating Council
- ICS. See International Center for Studies
- IEA. See Interfaith Encounter Association
- IEIC. See Institute for Islamo-Christian Studies
- IFD. See Interfaith dialogue
- Iftars, 161
- Ikhwan Al Safa Group, 166
- Imam al-Ouzai School for Islamic Studies, 120
- Independent Commission on Christian-Muslim Relations, 191
- Informational dialogue model, 220–221
- Initiatives of Change, 118–119
- Initiatives of Change/Moral Rearmament, 171
- Institute for Educational Development, 140
- Institute for Islamo-Christian Studies, 120–123, 126, 132, 134
- Integration worldview, 35, 234 n15
- Intellectual dialogue model, 16–18, 220–221
- Intercultural Development Inventory, 28
- Intercultural Dialogue Forum, 217
- Intercultural relations, 28
- Intercultural sensitivity developmental model, 234 n15
- Interfaith dialogue. See also specific countries
 asymmetric management, 83–85 attitudes toward, 11–16 audience, 130–131
 best practices, 37–41
 capacity building, 93 challenges in the Middle East, 3–6, 9–10, 228–231
 cognitive dialogue, 16–18
 conceptualizing dialogue, 8–9
 confession, 22–23
 in conflict contexts, 208–209
 cooperation and coordination problems, 213
 in educational systems, 93 emerging field of, 10–11
 forgiveness, 23–24
 funding, 83–84, 93, 129–130, 199, 212–213
 government's role, 131–132, 214–216 impact of political context, 80–82 importance of youth, 213–214 inadequate preparation for, 89–91
 language barriers, 85
 learning about and understanding other faiths, 70–71 measuring successes and accomplishments, 69–76, 131, 217–218, 229 models for, 11–16, 26–29, 86–87, 219–228 nature of, 130–131
 personal conviction as primary motivation for participation, 210 politics in, 21–22, 80–82, 198 potentials for success in the Middle East, 3–6, 9–10 process and content, 16–18
 professional development, 93, 218–219
 public perceptions of, 87, 218
 religiocentric perspective, 27–35
 religiorelativism, 27–35, 35–37
 rituals and, 24–26, 61, 77, 127, 161, 189 role and importance of religious clergy and institutions, 210–211 role in Middle East peacemaking, 7–8 safe spaces for meetings, 209 sustainability, 80–82

- Interfaith dialogue (cont.)
 transferring a culture of dialogue to a wider audience, 211–212
- Interfaith Encounter Association, 52, 53, 55
- Interfaith organizations
 Egypt, 256–257
 Israel, 251–254
 Jordan, 257–258
 Lebanon, 255–256
 Palestine, 251–254
- Interfaith Women Dialogue Group, 89
- International Center for Studies, 157, 167
- Interreligious Coordinating Council, 32, 53, 55–56, 211–212, 223–224
- Intifada, 45, 47, 73, 81–82, 113
- Intrafaith groups, 93–94
- Islam
 contemporary state of relations in Jordan, 181–185
 historical background in Lebanon, 96–100
- Islamic-Christian Dialogue Committee, 122
- Islamic-Christian National Dialogue Committee, 104
- Islamic Conference, 144
- Islamic Shari'a Court, 69–70
- Islam-Christian Chronicle*, 122
- Israel. See also Middle East
 interfaith dialogue as instrument for actions, 76–79
 interfaith organizations, 251–254 linking theology with action, 65–66
 localized interfaith dialogue models, 86–87
 measuring successes and accomplishments of interfaith dialogue, 69–76
 motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 nature and structure of interfaith activities, 52–53
 obstacles and challenges in interfaith dialogue, 79–91
- participants in study, 46–47
 peace associated with religious identity, 45–46
 politics versus the harmony model, 55–65
 public perceptions of interfaith field, 87
 recommendations for interfaith dialogue, 92–94
 religiocentric approach in interfaith meetings, 54–55, 87–88 security service threats, 80
 separating religion from nationalism, 66–69
 violence associated with religious identity, 43–45
- Jabour, Elias, 238 n109
- Jarjour, Father Riad, 113–114
- Jehovah's Witnesses
 contemporary state of relations in Jordan, 183
- Jerusalem Interfaith Women, 51
- Jerusalem Women Dialogue Group, 71
- Jesus
 role in religious identity, 20
- Jewish-Palestinian Living Room Dialogue Group, 8
- Jews
 association between religious identity and violence in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 43–45
 asymmetric management of interfaith dialogue programs, 83–85
 expectations and needs of interfaith dialogue programs, 86
 inadequate representation in interfaith dialogue, 89–91
 motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 politics versus the harmony model, 55–65
 religiocentric perspective, 29–30
 separating religion from nationalism, 66–69
- JID. See Jordan Institute of Diplomacy
- Jizya system, 143

- Job opportunities, 132
- Jordan. See also Middle East approaches to interfaith work, 188–189
 challenges and obstacles of interfaith dialogue, 196–200
 changes and recommendations for interfaith dialogue efforts, 202–205
 contemporary state of Muslim-Christian relations, 181–185
 goals, assumptions, and types of
 interfaith organizations, 186–188
 historical context for Muslim-Christian relations, 180–181
 interfaith dialogue efforts, 185–186
 interfaith organizations, 189–196, 257–258
 successes of interfaith dialogue efforts, 200–202
- Jordan Institute of Diplomacy, 191
- Jordan Interfaith Action, 193–194, 199, 200
- Jordan University, 201–202
- Jordanian Interfaith Coexistence
 Research Center, 189, 192–193, 198
- Judaism
 association between religious identity and violence in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 43–45
 historical background in Lebanon, 96–97
- July Revolution, 145–146
- Justice, Peace, and Human Rights program, 116
- Justice in Coalescence*, 123
- Karen Kaimet, 51
- Keserwan Covenant, 128
- Khodr, Archbishop George, 125
- Khuraysat, Mamoun, 193
- Kook, Rabbi, 234 n2
- Lady of Peace Center, 197
- Language barriers, 40, 85
- Latin Vicariate of Jordan, 194
- Law of Foreigners, 180
- Law of Nationality, 181
- LCRN. See Lebanese Conflict Resolution Network
- Lebanese Caucus on Dialogue, 113
- Lebanese Conflict Resolution Network, 116–117
- Lebanese Encounter for Dialogue, 110
- Lebanese Forum for Dialogue, 112–113
- Lebanese Islamic Committee for Dialogue, 110
- Lebanese Islamic Summit, 102
- Lebanese Meeting for Dialogue, 112–113
- Lebanon. See also Middle East
 background of interfaith relations, 96–100
 challenges and obstacles of interfaith dialogue, 128–132, 139–140
 Christian-Muslim dialogue, 95
 Constitution development, 99 coordination of interfaith dialogue, 135–136
 goals and assumptions of interfaith organizations, 107–108
 guidelines for dialogue, 138–139
 interfaith organizations, 103–104, 107–126, 255–256
 interreligious education for pluralism, 136–137
 involvement in interfaith dialogue, 137–138
 mapping the interfaith field, 136 models of interfaith work, 126–128
 National Pact, 98–99
 post-civil war divisions, 100–103 success stories and accomplishments of interfaith dialogue, 132–135
 systematic and consistent interfaith meeting, 136
 types of interfaith dialogue, 241 n48
 unaffiliated interfaith dialogue activities, 104–107
- Lebanon Today: Culture and Religion*, 123

- LED. See Lebanese Encounter for Dialogue
- Liberation theology model, 65–66, 224–226
- LICD. See Lebanese Islamic Committee for Dialogue
- Lutheran Evangelische Akademie, 170
- Mamluks
 historical background in Lebanon, 97
- Manasra, Abdul Salam, 80, 234–235n
- Maronite Patriarchate, 104
- Maronites
 historical background in Lebanon, 97–99
- MBG. See Muslim Brotherhood Group
- Mclean, Yehuda, 247 n2
- MECC. See Middle East Council of Churches
- Media
 role in interfaith dialogue, 130, 203, 216–217
- Melchior, Rabbi, 71
- Merhom, Aziz, 144
- Middle East. See also specific countries advocacy interfaith approach, 224–226 conflict and diversity model, 223–224
 cooperation and coordination problems, 213
 dialogue of life model, 226–228
 engaging the media, 216–217
 evaluating interfaith dialogue efforts, 217–218
 government's role, 214–216
 harmony interfaith model, 222–223 importance of youth in interfaith dialogue, 213–214 improving the religious image, 209
 informational dialogue models, 220–221 intellectual/cognitive dialogue models, 220–221 interfaith activities in conflict contexts, 208–209 interfaith dialogue models, 219–228 interfaith peacebuilding field, 228–230 liberation interfaith approach, 224–226 misperceptions of dialogue process, 218
 national unity model, 221–222
 personal conviction as primary motivation for participation, 210
 potentials and challenges of interfaith dialogue, 3–6, 9–10 professional planning and awareness of systematic intervention, 218–219 resources and capabilities, 212–213
 role and importance of religious clergy and institutions, 210–211 role of interfaith dialogue in East peacemaking, 7–8 safe spaces for interfaith meetings, 209 theological dialogue, 226–228
 transferring a culture of dialogue to a wider audience, 211–212 view of peaceful historical periods, 207–208
- Middle East Council of Churches, 105–106, 112–114, 116, 182, 195
- Millet system, 233 n2
- Minimization, 31–32
- Ministry of Awkaf/Endowment, 170
- Miracle of Transcendence, 33
- Misr Society for Culture and Dialogue, 167
- Missionary Service for Youth, 194
- Mitigation, 18
- Mohammed
 role in religious identity, 20
- Moral Rearmament, 118, 171–172
- Morqus, Samir, 168
- MR. See Moral Rearmament

- MSCD. See Misr Society for Culture and Dialogue
- Mubarak, Husni, 147, 153
- Muslim Brotherhood Group, 167–168
- Muslim-Christian-Jewish dialogue, 71
- Muslims
- contemporary state of Muslim-Christian relations in Jordan, 181–185
 - harmony model, 62–65
 - historical background in Lebanon, 96–100
 - historical context for Muslim-Christian relations in Jordan, 180–181
 - inadequate representation in interfaith dialogue, 89–91
 - interfaith organizations in Lebanon, 109–126
 - Jordan population, 179
 - measuring successes and accomplishments of interfaith dialogue, 69–76
 - in modern state Egypt, 143–145
 - motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 - problematization of Muslim-Christian relationships in Egypt, 148–154
 - religiocentric perspective, 29–31
 - state of dialogue in Egypt, 157–158
- “Muslims and Christians Facing Present Challenges Together,” 115
- The Muslims and Copts in the Framework of the National Society*, 143
- Mutassarifiyya system, 98
- National Committee for Christian-Muslim Dialogue, 103–104, 109–111, 116, 216
- National Committee for Dialogue, 102
- National Democratic Party, 153
- National Education Scout, 106
- National Pact, 98–99
- National Party, 143–144
- National unity model, 221–222
- Nationalism
- relationship with religion, 66–69
- Nationality Act of 1928, 180
- NDP. See National Democratic Party
- New Age spiritual movement, 35
- New Generation Program, 170
- Nida’ al-Quds*, 195
- Noor, Queen, 196
- Nostra Aetate, 11
- Notebooks on Dialogue*, 123
- Occupied Territories
- escalation of violence in region, 46
 - interfaith organizations, 79–80
 - obstacles to participation in interfaith dialogue, 81–82
- Office of Religious Persecution Monitoring, 147
- Old Testament, 20
- On Dialogue, Reconciliation, and Civil Peace*, 123
- Or Commission, 238 n114
- Organic Law of 1928, 181
- Organizations
- Egypt, 256–257
 - Israel, 251–254
 - Jordan, 257–258
 - Lebanon, 255–256
 - Palestine, 251–254
- Orthodox Center of Switzerland, 192
- Orthodox Church, 192
- Orthodox Judaism, 234 n2
- Orthodox Society, 187, 188, 196, 199, 204
- Ottoman Empire
- creation of modern Egypt, 143
 - historical background in Lebanon, 98
 - millet system, 233 n2
- Our Lady of Peace Center, Latin Vicariate, 194
- Palestine. See also Middle East
- interfaith dialogue as instrument for actions, 76–79
 - interfaith organizations, 251–254

- Palestine (cont.)
 linking theology with action, 65–66
 localized interfaith dialogue models, 86–87
 measuring successes and accomplishments of interfaith dialogue, 69–76
 motivations and goals for involvement in interfaith dialogue, 47–52
 nature and structure of interfaith activities, 52–53
 obstacles and challenges in interfaith dialogue, 79–91
 participants in study, 46–47
 peace associated with religious identity, 45–46
 politics versus the harmony model, 55–65
 public perceptions of interfaith field, 87
 recommendations for interfaith dialogue, 92–94
 religiocentric approach in interfaith meetings, 54–55, 87–88
 separating religion from nationalism, 66–69
 violence associated with religious identity, 43–45
- Palestinian Academic Society for the Study of International Affairs, 71
- Palestinian Intifada, 45, 113
- Palestinian National Authority, 215
- Panorama, 66
- PASSIA. See Palestinian Academic Society for the Study of International Affairs
- Peace
 association with religious identity in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 45–46
- Pentateuch, 20
- Permanent Committee of Al-Azhar for Dialogue with the Monotheistic Religions, 166
- Pluralism, 14–15
- Politics
 harmony model and, 55–65
 impact on interfaith dynamics, 80–82, 198 in interfaith dialogue, 21–22
 manipulation of interfaith dialogue, 129
- Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue, 27, 192
- Pope Shenouda III, 147
- Post-September 11 polarization, 132
- Power differentials, 39–41
- Prayer
 interfaith dialogue and, 25
- Professional development
 interfaith dialogue and, 93
- Quran, 20
- Rabbis for Human Rights, 56, 66, 224–226
- Ramadan, 161
- Ras Beirut Association, 120
- Reconciliation
 interfaith dialogue and, 9
- Reform Judaism, 234 n2
- Rehumanization, 51–52, 71–73, 91
- Religiocentrism, 27–35, 54–55, 87–88
- Religiorelativism, 27–37
- Religious dialogue. See Interfaith dialogue
- Religious Fraternity Association, 166–167
- Religious identity association with peace in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 45–46 association with violence in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 43–45
 improving the religious image, 209
 political role in Egypt, 147–148 relationship with nationalism, 66–69
 role and importance of religious clergy and institutions, 210–211
- Reversal, 30

- RHR. See Rabbis for Human Rights
- RIIFS. See Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies
- Ritual approach to dialogue
 in Egypt, 161
 importance of, 24–26
 Israeli-Palestinian context, 61, 77
 in Jordan, 189
 in Lebanon, 127
- Road Map for Peace, 45, 234n
- Roman Catholic Church, 170–171, 197, 198
- Rosen, Rabbi David, 77–78
- Royal Academy for Islamic Civilization Research, 191
- Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies, 184, 190–191, 196, 215, 244–245 n20
- Sabeel Center, 66, 224, 226
- Sadat, Anwar, 147, 153
- Said, Khedive, 143
- Saint Joseph University, 120, 124, 126, 220
- Saint Paul Center for Theology and Philosophy, 120
- Salafists, 243 n43
- Salame, Ramez, 119
- Sallam, Abdu, 167
- Samuel, Bishop, 167
- Schools. See Educational systems
- Sectarianism, 247 n4
- Shabak, 80
- Shaftari, Asaad, 119
- Shari'a, 183, 244 n4
- Shas, 234 n4
- Shawqi, Abdul Fattah, 167
- Shehab, Muheiddine, 119
- Shi'ah Muslims
 Jordan population, 179
- Shoufani, Emile, 75
- Sirat, Rabbi Samuel, 166
- Social Movement and Moral Rearmament, 126
- Social Summit, 27
- Socialist Union, 145, 147
- SPI. See Summer Peacebuilding Institute
- Spiritual dialogue. See Interfaith dialogue
- State Security
 role in Egypt, 155–157
- Storytelling, 18
- Studio 206, 172
- Sufism, 54
- Sulha, 53, 61, 77, 235 n35, 247 n9
- Sulha Peace Project, 235 n35
- Summer camps, 105–107, 116, 118, 135
- Summer Peacebuilding Institute, 34
- Sunni Al-Makassed Society, 102
- Sunni Muslims
 Jordan population, 179
- Swedish Church, 191
- Syncretism, 13
- Synod for Lebanon, 102, 109–110
- Taef Agreement, 99, 100
- Theological Abrahamical dialogue, 18–21
- Theological dialogue, 188, 226–228
- Track One diplomacy, 8, 233 n1
- Track Two diplomacy, 7, 233 n1
- Transcendental Theosophy Institute:
 Theoretical and Practical, 126
- Transformative dialogue, 15–16
- Transition phase, 31–32
- Transitional perspectives, 28
- Transjordan, 180–181
- UNESCO, 105
- UNICEF, 118
- Unireligious caucuses, 38
- United Nations Conference on Population and Development, 27
- United Nations University/International Academy, 196
- United Religions Initiative, 193, 213
- Unity model, 127, 158–160, 189, 221–222
- Unity of Fate, 62
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 39
- Universalism, 31
- University of Balamand, 124–125, 220

INDEX

- URI. See United Religions Initiative
- Vatican II, 109
- Violence
 association with religious identity in Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 43–45
- Virgin's Knights, 106
- Wafd Party, 145
- WCC. See World Council of Churches
- WCRP. See World Conference on Religion and Peace
- Websites
 Hiwar.net, 122
- Westminster Cathedral Hall, 119
- Women Dialogue Group, 50, 67
- Women's Interfaith Encounter, 53, 57, 58–59, 72
- World Conference on Religion and Peace, 11, 116, 127, 186,
 190–191
- World Council of Churches, 110, 111–112, 125, 154, 189
- World Student Christian Foundation, 116
- WSCF. See World Student Christian Foundation
- Yahweh
 role in religious identity, 19
- Yakar Center for Torah, Tradition and Creativity, 55
- Yesodot, 53, 74
- Youth
 importance in interfaith dialogue, 213–214
 summer camps, 105–107, 116, 118, 135
- Youth Group of Saint Mary Orthodox Church, 105
- Yunan, Bishop Moneeb, 77
- Zionism, 44