

Index

- Abruptness
 - sudden diplomacy the worst that can be practised 282
- Absence
 - the absent are always wrong 3
- Academics
 - diplomats and soldiers distinguished 3
- Accession
 - defined 3
- Accords
 - defined 3
- Accreditation
 - defined 3
- Acheson, Dean
 - amity not inevitable result of close relations 252
 - clearance process promotes vagueness, agreement by exhaustion 57
 - commercial restrictions cannot substitute for war 262
 - fumbles at summits leave the goal line open 283
 - function of diplomats to report and affect events 85
 - memoranda of conversation 256
 - morality necessary to inspire trust between states 174
 - negotiation, war by other means 184
 - perseverance in policy key to success 214
 - planning most profitable investment of time 218
 - sanctions unsuccessful means of interference in internal affairs 144
 - summitry distracts policymakers from their task 283
 - training makes diplomats cautious, not innovative 84
- Acton, Lord
 - balance of power described 224
 - power corrupts 226
- Ad referendum
 - defined 3
 - virtue of in negotiation 184

348 Index

- Adams, Abigail usefulness of large-scale entertainment 102
- Adams, Henry diplomats should not complain about lies 92
- Adams, John a bribe well placed, an intrigue of pleasure with a woman 36 interests not cultural affinities determine friendship 122
- Adams, John Quincy
 America goes not abroad in search of monsters to destroy 151
- Adjustment
 conflict resolution awaits a ripe moment 4 more conducive to justice than resort to force 4 possible only within context of agreed international order 272 tactical maneuvers only when order itself challenged 203
- Adversaries knowledge of them invaluable 4 mutual dependence of reflected in concepts 4 opportunities from domestic difficulties of 4 treaties with less durable than understandings with friends 297
- Advocacy
 diplomatic 5
 ideas don't sell themselves 5 policy recommendations to sovereigns 4 problem of "localitis" 161
- Aeschylus
 in war, truth is the first casualty 239
- Aesop appeasement 24
 quarrels of friends benefit foes 247
- Affability must be tempered with dignity 281
- Agents
 selection of 6
- Agents, diplomatic defined 5 indispensable 6 necessary at even the smallest courts 98
- Aggression cannot be condoned regardless of who is the attacker 6 nation armed and bankrupt, dangerous 6 self-defense sometimes dictates 32 usually disguised as self-defense 6

Agréation

process of requesting and receiving agrément 7

Agreements

agreeing to disagree 23
 constitute relationships 186 durable treaties based on reciprocal advantage 7 enhancing confidence in 295 implementation 187 impossible without secrecy 191 in principle fine because they entail no commitments 234 in principle not agreements 7 in principle, disagreements in practice 233 last like roses and young girls 7 multilateral conferences 53 must be tolerable to those who can wreck them 164 must rest on real interests, not trust 141 observed while in harmony with interests 7 one-sided advantage fatal 8 only agree to what you can do 297 public scrutiny of vs. publicity about negotiations 190 require compromise, which needs secrecy 188 selecting negotiator to reach 196 source of disagreements 247 the higher the summit the flimsier the 285 types concluded between states 7 understanding must be precise 229

Agrément

defined 8

Aid

advancing another power ruinous 8 can rent not buy allegiance 9 dangers of dependence on 8 friendship not the object of 123 to assure loyalty of client states 8 to neighbors a sign of weakness 227 utility of timely bribes 36

Aide-mémoire

defined 9

Alcohol

drinking is a voluntary madness 9 international conferences 53 loosens self-control 9

350 Index

- Alexander II (of Russia)
 - unadulterated stupidity of diplomats 319
- Alignment
 - defined 9
- Allen, George Venable
 - foreign policy and propaganda go hand in hand 241
- Alliance
 - defined 9
 - purpose of 10
- Alliances
 - based on sentiment 11
 - entangling with none 48
 - evolution of in conflict 10
 - held together by fear, not love 10
 - like all fraternizations, disintegrate 10
 - like chains, weak links do not strengthen 10
 - made by hate for the same thing, not love 11
 - means by which states add to capacity to persuade 114
 - means of buttressing against changing interests 10
 - never make them with the more powerful 10
 - only weakness dictates 10
 - reinsure by negotiating with the other side 10
 - to endure require care, respect, and shared advantages 11
 - treaties of 12
 - union of thieves 10
 - weakness of 12
 - with neighbors in war 307
- Allies
 - close relations may not engender amity 252
 - defined by their enemies 12
 - distant are preferable 13
 - fighting with and without 12
 - no eternal 143
- Ally
 - defined 13
- Almeida, Francisco de
 - time comes when mystery about negotiations criminal 188
- Alternat
 - defined 13
- Ambassador
 - honest man sent to lie abroad 13

Ambassador-at-large

defined 13

Ambassadors

accountability 14 activities of American described 14

advocacy 5

age of 15

amateur 15, 21, 27, 131

amateurism vs. professionalism 15

appearance 24

chiefs of diplomatic missions 19 contrasted with ministers of foreign affairs 19 contributions to policy formation by 16 credibility from their government 16 duty to aggrandize their own state 17 empathetic advocates 17 expected to take charge 16 expertise on their host country 18 eyes and ears of states 21 have no battleships 23

how govern kingdom that know not how to use? 14 indefatigable readers 153 initiative in absence of instructions 136 innkeepers to itinerant officials 18 insights about their own country 17

instructions 136

intelligence collectors 16 judgment is the controlling qualification 18 moral duties of 174

much depends on personality and ability of 20 must be men of strictest honor 17 necessity of 102

never off duty 20

obedience to instructions by 20

one official the state cannot do without 14 peace and war in their hands 20

probity essential 236 qualifications of 15, 20, 21

qualities of effective 21

selection of 21, 90

skill as orators required 202

skilled work requires a skilled workman 15

Ambassadors (cont.)

- spies 22
- spies with licenses 22
- titled spies 22
- to stand up for, you must stand up to, your government 15
- unwittingly mislead their hosts 19
- using them well 22
- welfare of nations dependent on 22
- why do their work for them? 102
- why people want to be one 14
- wives never off duty 271

Ambiguity, creative

- agreeing to disagree 23

Amiability

- sustains communication 23

Amity

- bonds across distance and cultural differences 23
- cordiality between nations based on respect 57
- maintained only by mutual respect 23
- not inevitable result of close relations 252

Analysis

- intelligence 139

Anger

- contrary to wise deliberation 24
- indignation and rancor foreign to diplomacy 255
- man prone to ill-fitted to negotiation 23
- never get angry except on purpose 23

Anonymous [La embajada española]

- ambassadors' knowledge of their host country 18
- diplomacy is deceit 73
- flattery generates goodwill 111

Antagonists

- learning from 24

Appearance

- an ambassador should be good-looking 24

Appeasement

- a power which begins to yield is finished 24
- acquiescence under insult no escape from war 25
- appeasers hope crocodiles will eat them last 25
- defined 24, 26
- justification for 25
- only give up what you could hold 25

Appeasement (cont.)

- passive 26
- revolutionary states 275
- stores up trouble 24
- stroking tigers won't make them kittens 26
- unyielding stubbornness as risky as 25
- yield to all and end with nothing 24

Appointees, political

- bizarre American tradition 27
- business experience as qualification for ambassadorship 21
- distinguished credentials in other fields 21
- ingrates and enemies 27
- legation is stuffed mattress for political acrobats 222
- men with the most money and the fewest votes 24
- named for the good of the nominee, not the country 26
- risk of appointment 15
- scum and refuse of the political puddle 222
- seek sinecures and luxurious enjoyment 26
- skilled work requires a skilled workman 15
- some sent because needed, some not wanted at home 27
- travel at government expense and write a book 27
- United Nations 27

Apprehensions

- fear of danger justifies war 28

Arbitral award

- defined 28

Arbitration

- better to lose in the courts than in the foxholes 29
- defense through resort to 29
- defined 28
- substitution of burning for smoldering issues 28
- when to use 28

Arguments

- memoranda of conversation 256
- negotiation should never degenerate to 29

Aristophanes

- learning from enemies 100

Aristotle

- war must be regarded as only a means to peace 307

Arms

- diplomacy without them 30

354 Index

- Arms control
 - defense conducted by other means 29
 - defined 29
 - negotiations not a form of conflict resolution 29
- Arms sales
 - useful instrument of state policy 30
- Aron, Raymond
 - diplomacy is convincing without resort to force 78
 - strategy and diplomacy inseparable 279
- Arrests
 - duties of consular officers 30
- Arthashastra* of Kautilya
 - a king without power is conquered 223
 - Earth devours a king who is inclined to peace 205
 - intelligence and science can overreach energy and might 149
 - intelligence and statecraft can overcome power 140
 - inviolability of ambassadors 235
 - king ready to strike inspires awe 69
 - only weakness calls for conciliation and alliances 10
 - strength is power, success is happiness 282
- Assassination
 - defined 31
- Assistance, foreign
 - bribery 36
 - can rent not buy allegiance 9
 - utility of devalued by time 8
- Asylum, political
 - defined 31
- Athenian ambassadors
 - recourse to words following reverses in war 64
- Attaché
 - defined 31
- Attachés, military
 - functions of 31
 - synonym for spy 31
- Attachés, press
 - vital role of 32
- Attack
 - attitudes toward preemptive determined by geopolitics 32
 - preemptive justified by imminent danger 32
 - prevent a mischief before it occurs 32
 - self-defense sometimes dictates aggression 32

- Augustine, Saint purpose of all war is peace 210
- Austin, Warren better diplomats be bored than young men die 81
- Authority of ambassadors to question instructions 15
- Azo
 messengers like magpies 170
- Background
 basis for discussion with journalists 33
- Background, deep
 basis for discussion with journalists 33
- Bacon, Francis courtesy to strangers 278 dealing with opponents in negotiations 196 just fear of danger a lawful cause of war 28 selection of diplomatic agents 6 transparent countenances reveal secret hearts 107
- Bagehot, Walter old diplomacy carried on in drawing rooms 201
- Bailey, Nathan threats without power like powder without ball 291
- Bailey, Thomas A. agreements in principle, disagreements in practice 233 arbitration preferable to war 29 distance weakens power 222 do not do in secrecy that which is shameful 264 rattling the scabbard 113 self-interest as the basis of foreign policy 142
- Balancer
 defined 33
- Balfour, Arthur James peacemaking undercut by public statements 213
- Balzac, Honoré de gratitude expected only by fools 127
- Barbaro, Ermolao
 first duty of ambassadors 17
- Bargaining contrasted with persuasion 215
 defined 33
 large part of diplomacy as of all politics 34

356 Index

- Bargaining power
 - defined 34
 - depends on apparent options 34
 - victors' diminishes with time 302
- Bartoli, Domenico
 - drawbacks of summit meetings 286
- Battle
 - means of untying knot that would not yield to the tongue 34
- Battlefield results
 - diplomacy can't better 34
- Beaumarchais
 - Vilify! Vilify! Some of it will stick 239
- Belisarius
 - most complete victory to compel enemy to give up 304
- Belligerency
 - defined 34
- Berle, Adolf A.
 - economics a means of peace 97
- Bierce, Ambrose
 - alliances defined 10
 - battle unties knots that the tongue could not 34
 - compromise means each gets what he ought not to have 50
 - consuls, definition of in American politics 54
 - definition of diplomacy 73
 - international arbitration 28
- Bilateral
 - defined 34
- Bismarck, Otto von
 - a power which begins to yield is finished 24
 - in politics there is no place for pity 63
 - no sentimental alliances! 11
 - our generals save us from our diplomats 35
 - politeness even in war 221
 - politics is the art of the possible 222
 - sentimental policy knows no reciprocity 268
 - special interests must not override national 143
 - tasks of statesmen 277
- Black, Eugene
 - role and tasks of planning 217

- Blaker, Michael bargaining power defined 34 domino effect in negotiations 186 sham concessions 51
- Blaker, Michael, citing others key to success in negotiations 179
- Bloc
 defined 35
- Blockade
 defined 35
- Bluffing
 deadlines and ultimata 35 fostering trust essential to carry out 294 more effective, if believed, than sincere threat not believed 35 threats and 291
- Blunders bureaucratic, usual cause of quarrels 35 generals rectify diplomatic misfortunes 35 protocol 242
- Boerne, Ludwig diplomacy to speak French, nothing, and falsehood 73
- Bohlen, Charles E. diplomats' primary business with governments 85
- Bonham-Carter, Violet politics is power of persuading others to accept ideas 222 specialists not infallible policy advisers 220
- Borders not changed by conferences 35
- Boren, James H.
 when in doubt, mumble 37
- Boswell, James politeness makes happiness 221
- Boyce, Richard Fyfe compliments make new friends 110 diplomacy's critics 60
- Boycott political merits of 261
 Woodrow Wilson on power of 261
- Bozeman, Adda
 cold wars are covert and protracted 308 history foremost tool for political analysis 129

358 Index

- Bragaccia, Gasparo
 - diplomacy, making peace and coalitions for war 70
- Braun, Konrad
 - ambassadors must be eloquent 98
- Brevity
 - virtues of in reporting 255
- Bribery
 - humane investment 36
 - law of nations not concerned with 36
 - man may serve his country well with 36
- Briggs, Ellis
 - always be in with the outs 202
 - appeasement stores up trouble 24
 - criteria for diplomatic recognition 250
 - criteria for recognition of new governments 41
 - modifying other countries' institutions 144
 - political appointments for good of nominees, not the country 26
 - protection of diplomats by host country 235
 - something-for-something is good diplomacy 293
 - weak allies 13
- Brinkmanship
 - going to the verge, but not into war 36
- British government
 - right to deal in a neutral language 155
- Brogie, Albert de
 - diplomacy prevents force alone from governing relations 71
- Bryan, William Jennings
 - nothing is final between friends 121
- Brzezinski, Zbigniew
 - force unguided by political ends makes political messes 112
 - toothless diplomacy not persuasive 119
- Buddhist scripture
 - rules of friendship 123
 - true friends 122
- Buffer
 - defined 36
- Bülow, Bernard von
 - diplomacy a first-class seat at theater of life 78
- Bülow, Heinrich von
 - diplomat's duty to be active in society 56
 - diplomats should not be taken by surprise 287
 - indignation and rancor foreign to diplomacy 255

- Bundy, McGeorge being known to have strength 281 relationship between policy and military power 228
- Bureaucracy spirit of contrasted with spirit of policy 218
- Bureaucrats distinguished from statesmen 37 foreign ministry 36 man on the spot wiser than 84 no old, bold bureaucrats 36
- Burke, Edmund
 definition of diplomacy 73 great empires and little minds go ill together 100 hatred of nations 101
 learning from enemies 24
 power sets few limitations on itself 223 use of force alone is but temporary 113
- Burton, Richard instructions to his wife on moving 271 peace is the dream of the wise 211
- Businessmen
 as ambassadors 21, 27
- Busk, Douglas helpfulness of rules of protocol 242
- Caccia, Harold
 to stand up for, you must stand up to, your government 15
- Caesar, Julius conquerors may do as they please with the vanquished 303 inviolability of ambassadors sacred 235
- Caligula
 let them hate us as long as they fear us 68
- Callières, François de a lie leaves a drop of poison 92 alcohol in diplomacy 9 amateur diplomatists seldom succeed 15 amateurs serve costly apprenticeship in diplomacy 83 cipher worth more than gold 266 clarity and simplicity essential in reporting 254 command of temper important in diplomacy 24 cooks are excellent conciliators 56 dictation by the powerful is not negotiation 183

360 Index

Callières, François de (cont.)

- diplomacy is a profession as exacting as others 237
- diplomatic colleagues 47
- diplomats must control the urge to speak 267
- dishonesty proof of smallness of mind 92
- effects of good food and drink 101
- essential qualities of ambassadors defined 88
- harmonizing real interests 142
- lawyers make poor diplomats 157
- negotiators should be apt listeners 194
- no better investment than espionage 103
- objectives of diplomats 87
- powerful nations should make the first move 229
- reciprocal advantage in agreements essential 7
- relationships of ambassadors with citizens abroad 43
- secrecy the soul of diplomacy 264

Calling cards

- p.c. 205
- p.f. 205
- p.p.c. 205
- p.r. 205

Calls

- defined 38

Cambon, Jules

- ambassadors must be men of strictest honor 17
- ambassadors vs. foreign ministers 19
- best instrument the words of a decent man 102
- comradeship among diplomatic colleagues 46
- diplomats should not succeed with a bang 191
- foreign policy not a matter of sentiment 119
- insincerity a grave defect in a public man 136
- moral influence most essential qualification of diplomats 135
- necessity of judgment in ambassadors 18
- negotiation confidential like a conversation 188
- new diplomacy nothing new 198
- no truly secret diplomacy 188
- secrecy of negotiations forgiven by posterity 83
- the day secrecy is abolished 264
- word of an honest man the best tool 198

Cambon, Paul

- an ambassador is not a subaltern 136

- Candid
 - meaning of 39
- Candor
 - more likely than subtlety to achieve success 39
- Canning, George
 - allies in balance of power defined by enemies 12
- Cao Cao
 - who wishes to fight must first reckon the cost 312
- Capabilities
 - national purposes must be proportional to 245
- Capabilities and intentions
 - foreign policy must plan on basis of both 39
 - reporting on, influencing 39
- Capitals
 - great capitals foster great delusions 40
- Capitulation
 - defined 40
- Castlereagh, Viscount
 - right of interference in internal affairs 144
- Casus
 - belli, defined 40
 - foederis, defined 40
- Catlin, Wynn
 - diplomacy saying “nice doggie” till you find a rock 73
- Ceremonies
 - get the formalities right, never mind moralities 40
- Chamberlain, Austen
 - conferences inhibit compromise and agreement 53
- Champagne
 - no government could survive without 40
- Chancery
 - defined 40
 - head of, defined 40
- Change
 - balance of power uncertain during 225
 - difficulties of initiating new order 203
 - nations are changed by time 41
 - nations wax and wane 40
 - perils of reform by evil governments 251
- Change of government
 - criteria for recognition 41

Character

indicated by company a man keeps 41

Chargé d'affaires ad interim, defined 41

defined 41

Charity

beware its recipients 42

donor shouldn't publicize 42 donor values more than recipient 42 generosity captures the decent, antagonizes the mean 42

Chen Hao

truce proposal may be a plot 294

Chesterfield, Lord

never seem wiser than others 131

Childs, J. Rives

policy is substance, diplomacy is process 219

Choiseul

truth is artifice 295

Churchill, Winston

allies develop opinions of their own 12

appeasement 25

diplomatic relations a convenience, not a compliment 253 doctrine helps deal with surprises 94 evaluation of diplomatic reporting 256 fighting with and without allies 12 in victory, magnanimity; in peace, good will 303 jaw-jaw better than war-war 321 mistaken policies born in dishonest advice 220 problems of victory difficult 304

Cicero

aim of war to live unhurt in peace 312 victory by nature insolent and haughty 303

Circumstance

imprisons more than it helps 42

Citizens abroad

ambassadors' duties to 42

arrests 30

entertainment by ambassadors 43 useful sources of information 43

Civilians

war hath no fury like a non-combatant 314

- Civility
 - be civil to all . . . 43
- Clark, Eric
 - functions of military attachés 31
 - protocol enables orderly diplomacy 242
- Clark, Eric, citing others
 - consults the Cinderellas of the diplomatic service 55
 - information and cultural diplomacy 79
- Classification
 - intended to determine degree of protection required 43
- Clausewitz, Carl Maria von
 - peace seldom reigns in Europe, never throughout the world 208
 - pursue one great decisive aim with determination 245
 - the weak must be armed so as not to be overwhelmed 231
 - victory defined 303
- Clemency, Georges
 - war too important to be left to the generals 307
- Client states
 - expect no real favors from other nations 109
 - nothing so imperious as feebleness supported by force 43
 - passionate attachments for 108
- Coalition
 - defined 43
- Coalitions
 - at the mercy of most determined member 44
 - created out of fear not affection 44
 - for war, diplomacy and 70
 - great states demand position of supreme leadership 45
 - interest in survival transcends ideology in 134
 - natural history of imperils status quo powers 45
 - reasons for dissolution 45
 - require a single point of command and control 44
 - rise and fall of 44
- Cobden, Richard
 - free trade breaks down barriers between nations 292
- Coexistence
 - no promise of universal concord 134
- Colleagues
 - collegiality of the diplomatic profession 46
 - corporate spirit and comradeship between 46

- Colleagues, diplomatic
 - selecting which to cultivate 46
 - sources of information 46
 - utility of collegiality of diplomatic corps 57
- Colton, Charles Caleb
 - grant what you cannot refuse, conciliate who you cannot conquer 112
- Command presence
 - ambassadors and heads of delegation must have 47
- Commerce
 - ambassadors are chief trade promotion officers 48
 - contrasted with diplomacy 47
 - diplomacy especially concerned with 48
 - establishes a Community of Interests 47
 - free trade breaks barriers between nations 292
 - imperialism from 48
 - peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all 48
 - rivalries a source of war 49
 - trade promotion by ambassadors 48
 - unprincipled 49
- Commines, Philippe de
 - two great princes should never meet face-to-face 284
- Commitments
 - agreements in principle are fine as they entail none 234
 - fidelity to those of negotiators 49
 - treaties must be observed 49
- Common sense
 - nothing more loathesome than a man lacking 18
- Communication
 - among diplomats a two-way street 49
- Communications
 - secrecy of 266
 - security of 49
- Communiqué
 - defined 50
- Compromise
 - each gets what he ought not to have 50
 - give-and-take essential 50
 - impossible for moral claims 133
 - inability to make can strengthen a negotiator 193
 - liabilities of doctrine emphasizing 185

- Concessions
 - difficulties of democracies making 66
 - good diplomacy cedes few 50
 - he who would preserve everything, preserves nothing 280
 - necessary 50
 - sham 51
 - the more made in negotiation the more expected 50
- Conciliation
 - defined 51
 - first conciliate, then crush 51
 - only weakness calls for 10
- Conciliators
 - motivations of 51
- Concordat
 - defined 51
- Conference
 - defined 51
- Conferences
 - borders not changed by 35
 - chance to get sore, scare up a war 53
 - conditions for successful diplomacy at 51
 - criteria for success of 53
 - factors in success of 52
 - liver damage consequent to 53
 - name-calling at, left to the foreign ministers 52
 - only succeed when results arranged beforehand 52
 - poor places to reach agreements 53
 - preclude compromise and agreement 53
 - promote obstinacy rather than solutions 53
- Conflict resolution
 - arms control not a form of 29
 - when negotiation is necessary to achieve 177
- Conquest
 - the cruel working of political madness and abused power 54
- Consistency
 - vacillation inconsistent with success and dignity 54
- Constancy
 - no disgrace in disregarding promises made under duress 238
 - of republics more reliable than princes 54

366 Index

- Consul
 - defined 54
 - defined as failed politician forced into exile 54
 - honorary, defined 55
- Consul general
 - defined 55
- Consular agent
 - defined 55
- Consular relations
 - defined 253
- Consulate
 - defined 55
- Consulate general
 - defined 55
- Consuls
 - arrested citizens 30
 - Cinderellas of the diplomatic service 55
 - powers and responsibilities 55
- Contacts
 - be wary of those most eager for 56
 - diplomat's duty to work on human flesh 56
- Convention
 - defined 56
- Conversation
 - intimate talk made unthreatening by diplomats 56
- Conviction
 - advantages of having 94
- Cooper, J. Fenimore
 - commercial imperialism 48
- Coordination
 - clearance process promotes vagueness and agreement by exhaustion 56
- Cordial
 - meaning of 57
- Cordiality
 - between negotiators 192
 - rests on mutual respect 57
- Cornford, F. M.
 - propaganda 239
- Corps
 - consular, defined 57
 - dean of diplomatic, defined 61
 - diplomatic, defined 57

- Counsel
 - appear to be reminding, not correcting 4
- Counselor
 - of embassy, defined 58
 - qualifications of good 57
- Coup d'état
 - defined 58
- Courage
 - political victory from military defeat 58
- Courier
 - diplomatic, defined 58
- Courtesy
 - defined 58
 - should mark international intercourse 58
- Couve de Murville, Maurice-Jacques
 - one does not negotiate to conclude something 183
- Craig, Gordon A. and George, Alexander L.
 - coercive diplomacy defined and described 72
 - deterrence defined 69
- Cramb, J. A.
 - peace a truce on the battlefield of time 207
- Creaghe, John St. G., citing others
 - humor helps solve problems 131
 - management of delegations at conferences 181
- Credentials
 - defined 58
- Credibility
 - cannot be enhanced by a reputation for failure 54
 - he don't believe you, you don't believe him 59
- Crimes, war
 - threat to charge adds to resistance 59
- Crises
 - frighten the weak but inspire the strong 59
 - let women run things 59
 - never treat cold, only hot 59
 - responses of bureaucrats, statesmen to 37
 - usual response of international organizations to 59
- Criticism
 - avoid joining natives in toward their own country 59
- Crocker, Chester A.
 - bias not an obstacle to success in peacemaking 167
 - borrowed leverage in mediation 165

Crocker, Chester A. (cont.)

- creating formulae for peacemaking 164
- effectiveness in foreign policy 116
- end games in peacemaking 214
- existing situation may give peacemaker leverage 167
- joint mediation 166
- knowledge demanded of peacemakers 166
- leverage from others in peacemaking 213
- need for secure reporting channels, confidentiality 49
- peacemakers must respect parties and their concerns 170
- peacemaking may require action to ripen the conflict 168
- power and leverage of mediators 169
- proposals for settlement from the mediator in peacemaking 166
- reframing questions to induce negotiation 231
- role of mediators vis-à-vis the parties 170
- strategy for prenegotiation phase 231
- third parties as source of leverage in peacemaking 167

Cromwell, Oliver

- interest keeps peace 209
- man-of-war best ambassador 228

Culbertson, Ely

- power politics, law of the jungle 228

Customs

- ignorance of a source of war 60
- men prefer their own usages 60
- never export your nation's but learn your hosts' 60

Danès, Bishop

- conceal nothing in reporting 256

Dargent, Joseph

- champagne and diplomats 40

Davies, John Paton

- successful diplomacy is unpublicized 283

Dawes, Charles G.

- diplomacy easy on the brain but hell on the feet 81

De Gaulle, Charles

- diplomats useful only in fair weather 91
- state has no friends, only interests 121
- treaties are like roses and young girls 7

Dean

- diplomatic corps, defined 61

- Debrah, Kojo
 radios, TVs, and jet planes in diplomacy 290
- Deceit countering in time-honored ways 61 deception central to most techniques of statecraft 62 diplomacy an honored mode of 73 diplomats deceive after dumbness causes war 94 diplomats have no cause to complain about 92 dishonesty is proof of smallness of mind 92 dissembling excusable in public business 93 laudable in war 61 not a qualification of a modern diplomat 61 only rulers should have privilege of 61
 Palmerston's "Eleventh Commandment" 62 self-defeating 61
- Deception
 most necessary when press is free to report 63 with force, governs international relations 62
- Declaration
 defined 63
- Defeat alternative ways of coping with 63 in politics there is no place for pity 63 negation of diplomacy 294 reverses lead to diplomacy 64 supreme stimulus for a nation of spirit 304 wars ended by losers, not victors 316
- Defeatism man who believes he will be beaten a bad diplomat 64
- Definitions of diplomacy academic 75
 art of convincing without resort to force 77 art of resolving difficulties peacefully 75 art of taking the possible beyond its local dimensions 73 bargaining from interests without sentimentality 71 continuation of war by other means 75 diplomats' method of perpetuating their profession 70 entire fabric of foreign relations 80 expression of national strength in discourse 74 honored mode of deceit 73 letting someone else have your way 74 lie and deny 73

Definitions of diplomacy (cont.)

- managing by measures short of war 76
- managing relations through negotiation 74
- means of adjusting quarrels, quelling controversies 71
- obscure art hidden in deceit and cloaked in mystery 76
- parliamentary diplomacy, factors in 77
- patriotic art of lying 73
- peaceable coercion 77
- policy and conduct of relations distinguished 74
- political rape disguised as seduction 79
- say "nice doggie" till you find a rock 73
- say nastiest things nicely 76
- science of negotiation 76
- skill in conduct of international intercourse 73
- software of national security policy 80
- speaking French, nothing, and falsehood 73
- the police in grand costume 70

Defoe, Daniel

- intelligence the soul of public business 138

Delay

- fact-finding missions 107
- incompetence as means of achieving 64
- negotiating to gain time 64
- offers to talk 289
- time is useful product of foreign ministries 64
- until others wane 64

Demands

- exactions undermine relationships 104

Démarche

- defined 65

Démarches

- level of determines impact 65
- perils of embellishing 65

Demeanor

- act as friend or foe as circumstance requires 66

Democracies

- crowd psychology a source of war 67
- difficulties in making concessions to foreigners 66
- dilatory diplomacy 66
- inflexibility of foreign policy in 67
- passionate diplomacy 68
- popular passion for war 308

- Democracies (cont.)
 propensity for impulse rather than prudence 67 war and peace 68
- Demosthenes accountability of ambassadors 14 ambassadors have no battleships 23 diplomacy in democracies 67
- Détente
 defined 68
 must be seen in facts 68
- Deterrence components of 69
 defined 68
 failure of 69
 let them hate as long as they fear 68 one sword keeps another in the sheath 69 potent and credible threats 70 preparation for war effective in preserving peace 70 speak softly and carry a big stick 69 strategy contrasted 279 to secure peace be ready always for war 249 world in awe of the king ready to strike 69
- Dining soul of diplomacy 101
- Diodorus, the Athenian precipitation and anger contrary to wise deliberation 24
- Diplomacy
 abuse of in ideological warfare 71 alternative to force alone governing relations 71 application of intelligence and tact to conduct of relations 70 as dangerous to the morals as local politics 78 aspect of politics, requires confidentiality 265 backed by power 78 beginnings of 71 best leaves other side reasonably satisfied 75 better for diplomats to be bored than for men to die 81 by conference 51 changeless for good reason 79 coercive, defined 71 coercive, strategy of 72 communication with accuracy, imagination, tact, good sense 72 contrasted with law 73

Diplomacy (cont.)

- critics of 59
- defense not a substitute 73
- defined 74
- enables nation to avoid perishing heroically 81
- engage opponents in web of common interests 79
- first-class seat at theater of life 78
- fomenting feuds between enemies 76
- form of national security policy in normal times 219
- function of identifying common interests 142
- hard trade with many demands 237
- helps form and restrain foreign policy 115
- is not policy but its effectuation 219
- know one's own mind, let others know it 80
- less costly and hazardous than war 78
- like dance, calls for sureness of footing 81
- like good bookkeeping 59
- limits of when force has abdicated 112
- logic of no use in 161
- making peace and coalitions for war 70
- must be judged by what it prevents 73
- must be kept separate from domestic politics 75
- necessity of 76
- of mediation 165
- of women like that of eunuchs 81
- open a contradiction in terms 76
- parliamentary, defined 77
- personal diplomacy ephemeral 77
- plot and counterplot 78
- practice of relies on confidence and credit 78
- practice of ways and means, not grand designs 78
- process by which policy carried out 219
- purpose not to outwit opponents 79
- revolutionary regimes and 79
- secret nothing more than established method 80
- servant of statecraft 274
- sewer through which flows the scum . . . 222
- sincere no more possible than dry water 321
- strategy and 279
- subject matter of 80
- sudden success very costly in 282
- too portentous for politicians, too political for generals 79

- Diplomacy (cont.)
 triumphs leave resentment and suspicion behind 78 ultima ratio of is war 75 war strategy and 318 with women 81
- Diplomacy, public
 defined 79
 governed by foreign policy needs 79
- Diplomatic agents
 defined 5
 why have a dog and bark yourself? 6
 you don't buy a canary and sing yourself 102
- Diplomatic corps distinct society of professionals 87 not a school of virtue 173 utility of collegiality of 57
- Diplomatic life easy on the brain, hell on the feet 81 made up of protocol, Geritol, alcohol 81
- Diplomatic work affects the life of the nation 82
- Diplomats
 amateur serve apprenticeship damaging to their trust 83 approach every problem with an open mouth 83 best interested in what they find at post 84 can cut neighbor's throat without him noticing it 83 can tell you to go to hell so you look forward to it 83 chameleons 84
 chief purpose the transaction of business with governments 84 communication among a two-way street 49
 critics of 59
 difference from military men 91 distinctive business of 82 empathy which comes from experience 99 envoys, reporters, representatives 92 essential qualities for effectiveness 87 essential to starting wars 91 estrangement from compatriots 85 function of relations with party in power 86 function of to observe, report, affect events 85 icons of their nation 85, 90 implement policies of statesmen by peaceful means 274

Diplomats (cont.)

- insults 86
- irony a serious fault in 149
- journalists contrasted with 86
- lessen tensions and promote understanding 83
- magpies 170
- man on the spot wiser than bureaucrats in capital 84
- missionaries, fanatics and lawyers 84
- moral influence essential qualification of 135
- most civilized portion of the human race 238
- most useful qualities of 88
- must tend the international system 85
- negotiators and protectors of compatriots abroad 87
- not enough to be an ass 221
- not fussed over by historians 83
- objectives for 87
- presence on scene a unique asset 90
- professional brothers to warriors 91
- qualifications of good 87
- qualities for successful 89
- qualities of 89
- qualities of good reporting officers 139
- qualities of the perfect enumerated 89
- responsibilities to statesmen 276
- selection of 90
- self-image vs. popular image 86
- share responsibility for foreign policy with home governments 89
- should not be taken by surprise 287
- standards for recruitment 89
- task of to make up for misunderstanding, ignorance 126
- training makes them cautious rather than innovative 84
- training of 90
- try to solve problems made by other diplomats 83
- unadulterated stupidity compared to soldiers 319
- use ears, not mouth 87
- useful only in fair weather 91
- warriors and 319
- warriors without weapons 91
- work of practical intercourse with men 90

Disarmament

- defined 92

- Disasters
 - protection of resident nationals 42
- Discretion
 - apprentice diplomats must learn 90
 - evidence of reliability 92
 - more to regret from words than silence 92
 - protection of confidences by other states 265
- Dishonesty
 - a lie leaves a drop of poison 92
 - diplomats have no cause to complain about 92
 - no occasion can justify 160
 - proof of smallness of mind 92
 - reputation for trickiness will dog a diplomat 93
 - telling chiefs what they want to hear makes bad policies 220
- Dispatch
 - defined 92
- Displaced person
 - defined 93
- Disraeli, Benjamin
 - importance of knowing when to forego advantage 112
 - public opinion generally means public sentiment 243
- Dissembling
 - excusable in public business 93
- Dissent
 - duty and limits of by ambassadors 93
 - manner of graceful and effective 4
 - often taken for insult 93
- Distance
 - makes no enmity but enmity makes distance 23
- Documents
 - preservation of in negotiations 186
- Dolcet, Etienne
 - ambassadors should be good-looking 24
- Domestic politics
 - autistic delusions from 94
 - do not excuse foreign disasters 94
 - suffering of diplomats from 94
- Douglas-Home, Alexander
 - don't buy a canary and sing yourself 102
- Doyenne
 - defined 94

376 Index

Drafting

- never place an adjective before a noun . . . 94
- telegrams 257
- the shorter the greater the impact 254

Drake, Francis

- prevent a mischief betimes rather than revenge it too late 32

Drink

- effects of at conferences 53
- how to 9

Dryden, John

- peace is war in masquerade 207

Du Mu

- employ the wise, brave, covetous, and stupid 214
- victory without pain uncelebrated 304
- war may be defined as punishment 314

Dulles, Allen

- qualities of good reporting officers 139

Dulles, John Foster

- brinkmanship defined 36
- cannot condone aggression . . . 6
- friendship not a foreign policy objective 123
- no nation's policy can be ascertained from official statements 275

Duplicity

- diplomacy not a science of 95

Durant, Will

- statesman cannot afford to be a moralist 174

Eagerness

- a liability in negotiation 97

Earle, Edward Mead

- grand strategy defined 279
- strategy defined 278

Earle, Edward Meade

- grand strategy defined 279

Eayrs, James

- credibility of propagandists rests on gullibility 239
- deception central to most techniques of statecraft 62
- paradox of power works to advantage of small states 269
- power consists in having things your way 223
- scratch a diplomat, find a frustrated planner 217
- statesman incapable of statecraft should find a new job 117

- Eban, Abba authority of negotiators 192 bluff that is believed . . . 35 breaking relations 252
 diplomacy in wartime 320
 if power factors change rapidly, miscalculation . . . 224 international organizations as police 145 judge diplomacy by what it prevents 73 media attention inhibits success in negotiations 189 media disrupts diplomacy 189 negotiations endangered by premature publicity 190 oratory at international organizations 146 semantic obsessions of diplomats 270 wisdom occurs when other alternatives exhausted 321
- Economic section
 defined 97
- Economics
 burden of sanctions falls where you do not wish 261 economic balance like strategic balance 97 money is not the sinews of war 227 not an end in itself 97 of war 309
- Eden, Anthony diplomacy is strategy's twin 279 good diplomacy to resist a score 75 nothing more dangerous than unrealistic foreign policy 114 technology cuts distance, sharpens shock 290
- Egan, Maurice Francis man on the spot wiser than bureaucrats in foreign offices 84
- Einstein, Albert importance of ambassadors of small states 269
- Eisenhower, Dwight D. a people that values privilege above principles 234 premature disclosures bar agreements 244 war is sterile of positive result 317
- Ekvall, Robert B. character and qualities needed by interpreters 148 interpreter is faithful echo 148 loss of nuance in simultaneous interpreting 147 translation of meaningless statements 293

378 Index

Eloquence

- ambassadors must be good orators 202
- prudence and learning avail little without 98

Embassies

- locally hired employees 98
- morale 173
- necessary at even the smallest courts 98
- staffing levels 272

Embassy

- defined 98

Emerson, Ralph Waldo

- flattery confirms our importance to us 111
- strike at a king, you must kill him 312
- to have a friend, be one 122

Empathy

- attention to the judgment of others important 98
- contrasted with sympathy in negotiation 287
- diplomacy more effective with 99
- fingerspitzengefühl* comes from experience 99
- perils of with home government 98
- problem of "localitis" 161
- utility of in negotiation 99

Empires

- great and little minds go ill together 100

Enemies

- allies of tomorrow 100
- be known by your 100
- befriend, check, or fight 100
- choosing 100
- contact with 100
- enemies of enemies are friends 101
- hatred of 100
- learning from 100
- neighbors are natural 100
- no perpetual 143
- support the weaker against the stronger 100
- threats from 291

Enmity

- indictments against a whole people 101
- poor basis for policy 101

- Entente
 defined 101
 rapprochement 249
- Entertainment ambassadors must be liberal and magnificent 101 citizens abroad 43
 cooks are excellent conciliators 56
 cultivate relationships with influential people 102 dining is the soul of diplomacy 101 farewell parties 107 give good dinners and pay attention to the women 70 management of ambassador's residence 257 more can be accomplished at one party . . . 102 receptions like mousetraps 250
- Envoy
 defined 102
- Envoys necessity for 102
- Envoys, special you don't buy a canary and sing yourself 102
- Erasmus
 only those with no experience delight in war 307 war begets war; equity, equity 318 worst peace better than most just war 208
- Espionage
 foreknowledge needs spies 104 imperative to know what to do 103 intelligence the soul of public business 138 money opens the most secret cabinets 103 money well spent 103
 necessity for 103
 scruples about 103
 turncoats help honest men know the truth 103
- Ethics
 ambassadors must tend the international system 85
- Evasion
 neither confirm nor deny 104 the prudent man's exit from trouble 104
- Ex gratia
 defined 104
- Exactions
 incessant . . . breed indifference 104

380 Index

- Exequatur
 - defined 105
- Exiles
 - folly of relying on as instruments of influence 105
- Expressions
 - transparent countenances and secret hearts 105
- Exterritorial
 - defined 105
- Extradition
 - defined 105
- Extraterritorial
 - defined 105

- Fact-finding missions
 - means of delay 107
- Farquhar, George
 - strike while the iron is hot 201
- Faults
 - avoid exemplifying your nation's 108
- Favoritism
 - no real favors from nation to nation 109
- Favors
 - to receive one is to sell your liberty 109
- Felice, Fortune Barthélemy de
 - all life is continual negotiation 182
 - convincing through insinuation 136
 - how to influence men to act 135
 - negotiations an antidote to weakness for the astute 185
 - qualities of public negotiators outlined 195
 - sincerity greatly facilitates the conduct of affairs 268
 - to dominate others' emotions we must master our own 267
- Fénelon
 - insults are arguments for those who are wrong 138
 - prevent excessive aggrandizement of neighbors 224
- Final act
 - defined 109
- Final offer
 - not inevitably the last proposal 109
- Finance
 - weapon of diplomacy 109
- Fingerspitzengefühl*
 - grows with experience 99

- Fisher, Roger must know what you want to get it 201
- Flattery
 all right, if you don't inhale 110
 call even a dog 'Sir' to get what you need 110 diplomats must know how inspire delusions of grandeur in others 110 disintegrating influence of 110
 flatterers also slander 109 gaining influence through 111 kiss the hand you cannot bite 110 magnet of goodwill 111 mark of importance 111 negotiating ploy 112 pleases very generally 110 praise from enemies is suspicious 111 those who object to it 111 will make new friends 110
- Fletcher, Henry Prather retort to "diplomacy easy on the brain, hell on the feet" 81
- Flexibility
 first, conciliate; failing that, crush 51
 grant what you cannot refuse, conciliate who you cannot conquer 112
- Fog factories international organizations 146
- Folly highest wisdom to simulate 112
- Forbearance importance of knowing when to forego advantage 112
- Force and deception govern international relations 62 effects of temporary 113 never take what others may give 315 rattle the scabbard, don't draw the sword 113 renunciation of use of favors status quo, slights justice 209 resort to necessary to start negotiations 113 stupid to seize what others may give 112 submission to 113
 unguided by political ends makes political messes 112 use of by alliances 114 use of, when strategem has failed 113 violence to spoil or to mend different 113 weapons not the tools of the enlightened 113

- Force, show of
 - defined 113
- Ford, Gerald
 - friendly relations with opponent negotiators 192
- Foreign affairs
 - annoyance to large nations but unavoidable 114
 - temptation of . . . to rulers 114
 - will not conform to our whim 114
- Foreign leaders
 - intelligence on their views 140
- Foreign policy
 - acid test of is domestic support 116
 - amoral, revolutionary described 117
 - bureaucratic 115
 - commitments and power must balance 228
 - contrasted with domestic policy and administration 218
 - diplomacy and war in 116
 - diplomatic dialogue helps form and restrain 115
 - effectiveness from power harnessed to strategy 116
 - legislated 158
 - measuring success in 117
 - military power and 228
 - moral rules of different than those for individuals 174
 - morality in . . . necessary to inspire trust 174
 - no chance of success without domestic support 118
 - no more effective than force that backs it 119
 - not a matter of sentiment but unchanging interests 118
 - not based on clearly understood interests is futile 143
 - nothing more dangerous than one based on unreality 115
 - objective to avoid loss 114
 - one man's is another's domestic issue 116
 - politicization and criminalization of 118
 - popular participation no cure for war 67
 - process defies simple description 118
 - propaganda goes hand in hand 241
 - purpose not sentiment but to shape events 118
 - purposes of 118
 - resist unjust demands and unreasonable views of foreigners 115
 - sources of innovation in 116
 - strategy of diplomacy 115
 - success in influenced by skill of negotiators 117
 - toothless is not persuasive 119

- Foreign policy (cont.)
 unlike domestic policy can be fatal 116 without strength behind it aimless 119
- Foreign relations benefits of uninterrupted 119 endless, solution of one problem leads to another 119 nuisance filled with anxieties and frustrations 120
- Foreign Service
 American views of U.S. 120 should represent national diversity but ability primary 257
- Formalities
 get them right, never mind the moralities 40
- Frank meaning of 120
- Frankel, Joseph parliaments upset diplomacy 158
- Frankfurter, Felix not true that war never settles anything 307
- Franklin, Benjamin
 be civil to all . . . 43
 diplomats should have tact, calmness, and patience 88
 forewarned, forearmed 138 never a good war nor a bad peace 208
- Frederick the Great advantage of knowing adversaries 138 diplomacy without arms 30 he would preserve everything, preserves nothing 281 religion as a weapon 254
- Freeman, Chas. W., Jr. logic of fundamental national interests in mediation 164 mediation is different from negotiation 165
- Friedrich, Carl J. ultima ratio of diplomacy is war 75
- Friendly meaning of 120
- Friends
 choose by reference to power, not sentiment 121 foolish 121 friendship seldom lasts except between equals 120 friendships cannot survive mutability of interests 121 may become enemies 121 negotiations between 121

Friends (cont.)

- not with me, against me 121
- nothing final between 121
- state has none, only interests 121
- tending 122
- true 122
- unlike men, nations linked only by interests 123
- who won't help, same as enemies who do no harm 121

Friendship

- becoming one with another people 123
- interests not cultural affinities determine 122
- not a foreign policy objective 123
- rules of 123
- to make a friend, be one 122
- tool to be used or abandoned according to circumstances 122

Friendship between nations

- invaluable asset 122
- passionate attachment to a foreign nation corrupts 108

Full powers

- defined 123

Galbraith, John Kenneth

- "useful" as a characterization of talks 299

Gambetta, Léon

- defeat the supreme stimulus 304

Game of nations

- alternative is war 114

Geopolitics

- determines activism or passivity of states 125
- situation determines attitude toward preemptive attack 32
- who rules the world-island commands the world 125

George, Alexander L.

- appeasement defined 25, 26
- appeasement of revolutionary states 275
- coercive diplomacy 72
- deterrence, criteria for 70
- deterrence, failure of 69
- entente defined 101
- foreign policy in democracies 67
- intelligence resisted by policymakers 140
- paranoids suspect friendly gestures 125

- George, Alexander L. (cont.) passive appeasement 26
 rapprochement defined 249
- George, Alexander L. and Craig, Gordon A. deterrence defined 69
- Germonius, Bishop ambassadors must be indefatigable readers 153
- Gestures friendly, viewed with suspicion 125
- Gibson, Hugh victory and defeat negate diplomacy 294
- Gifts ambassadors should refuse unless departing 126 distinguished from bribery 125
- Giraud, Charles J. B. definition of the balance of power 224
- Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von who seizes right moment is right man 202
- Goldberg, Arthur
 diplomats approach problems with an open mouth 82
- Good deeds
 no good deed goes unpunished 126 suspicion of friendly gestures 125
- Good faith requires patient and constant effort 126
- Good offices
 defined 126
- Gracián, Baltasar avoid the defects of your country 108 know the meaning of evasion 104 making policy recommendations 5
- Gratitude
 donor loves recipient more than the reverse 42 legitimate factor in foreign policy 127 nations show less than benefactors expect 127 word only fools use 127
- Grew, Joseph C. diplomacy weak and ineffective without preparedness 232 no profession in which wives more important than in diplomacy 271
- Grey of Fallodon, Lord
 much in foreign affairs that cannot be disclosed 266 right of retaliation in war 316

386 Index

- Grotius, Hugo
war unjustified to curb growth of dangerous power 310
- Gruber, Karl communication among diplomats a two-way street 49 the higher the summit the flimsier the agreements 285
- Guarantee
defined 127
- Guests duties 127
- Guicciardini, Francesco ambassadors the eyes and ears . . . 21
- Guizot, F.
diplomats are a distinct society 87
- Habib, Philip
why everybody wants to be an ambassador 14
- Hamilton, Alexander almost as many popular as royal wars 314 legislatures lack qualifications to set foreign policy 159 neutrality needs strong government too 197
- Hamilton, Ian propaganda draws nourishment from sins of enemies 239
- Hamilton, Keith and Langhorne, R. T. B. beginnings of diplomacy 71
diplomacy defined 74
- Hammar skjöld, Dag contributions of public debate at the UN 298 diplomacy, not speeches or votes, makes peace 213 legislative process at UN not a substitute for diplomacy 298 publicity freezes positions in negotiations 190
- Han Feizi influence through flattery 111
no state is forever strong or eternally weak 281 persuading rulers of your views 215 rulers overly tempted to focus on foreign affairs 114
- Hankey, Lord case for summit meetings 285 elements of diplomacy by conference 52
- Harlow, Bryce agree only to what you can deliver 297

- Harriman, W. Averell courtesy and name-calling at conferences 52 to reach agreement pick agreeable negotiator 196 understanding must be very precise 229
- Harrison, Benjamin vacillation incompatible with national dignity 54
- Hatred foremost art of kings is to endure 129 springs from fear and envy 129
- Hauser, H. popular participation in foreign policy no cure for war 67
- Hay, John diplomacy as dangerous to the morals as local politics? 78 legation is stuffed mattress for political acrobats 222
- Hegemony absence of implies insecurity of states 134 cannot produce lasting peace 129 drive for absolute security 267 revolutionary powers seek absolute security 273
- Henderson, G. F. R. diplomacy, politics and military strategy 171
- Herbert, George life of spies to know, not be known 270
 one sword keeps another in the sheath 69
- Herodotus
 on ethnocentrism 60
- Herz, Martin F. insight grows with empathy born of experience 99
- Hill, David J. diplomacy less costly, hazardous than war 78 importance of diplomatic history 130 necessity of diplomacy 76 subject matter of diplomatic theory and practice 80 the future knows no guide but history 129
- History
 distorts interpretation of the present 130 foremost tool for political analysis 129 if people always understood there would have been no history 130 the future knows no other guide 129 utility of diplomatic 130

Hitler, Adolf

- big lies more potent than small ones 240
- confusion, contradiction, indecisiveness, panic 222
- diplomacy avoids nation perishing heroically 81
- mankind will only perish in eternal peace 209
- negotiation unbacked by power ridiculous and fruitless 188
- propaganda must be focused and persistent 239

Hitopadesa

- ambassadors are spies 22

Hobbes, Thomas

- counsel 57
- right of independent commonwealths 270
- three principal causes of quarrel 308

Hochhuth, Rolf

- unlike men, nations not linked in friendship 123

Honesty

- best policy in public as in private life 130
- in reporting 276
- sincerity greatly facilitates conduct of affairs 268
- wise 130

Honor

- acquiescence under insult no escape from war 25
- national honor is national property 131
- policy of . . . also policy of peace 131
- war better than loss of national 131

Hostage

- defined 131

Hotman de Villiers

- management of ambassadors' residences 258
- money opens the most secret cabinets 103
- moral responsibilities of ambassadors 174
- refuse gifts unless departing 126
- style of speech appropriate to ambassadors 202

Huainanzi

- courtesy defined 58
- survival dependent on policy 287

Hübner, Count

- what a hard trade is the diplomatist's! 237

Huddleston, Sisley

- dangers of dependence on foreign aid 9
- diplomacy as the servant of statecraft 274

- Huddleston, Sisley (cont.)
 diplomacy defined 74
 weakness of alliances 12
- Hufbauer, Gary Clyde, et al.
 sanctions often accompanied by other measures 262 sanctions provide drama 263
- Hughes, Charles Evans
 new diplomacy, new conditions 198
- Hull, Cordell
 don't get between dogs and lamp-posts 197
- Humility
 in negotiations 131
 never seem wiser or more learned . . . 131
- Humor helpful in solving problems 131
- Huxley, Aldous propaganda is emotional engineering 240 statesmen cannot foresee results of political action 217
- Hypocrisy
 ambassador out to make the world safe for 131
- Idealism risks defeat with its own weapons 133
- Ideology accords awkwardly with diplomacy 133
 defined 133
 disruptive of international order 134 moral claims cannot be compromised 133
- Ignorance mother of suspicion 287 of other's ways a cause of war 60
- Iklé, Fred C. bringing the enemy to terms 311 how wars end is decisive 309 military vs. diplomatic influence in war 311 negotiation rests on common interests and issues of conflict 182 outcome of war, not battles, crucial 313 qualifications of negotiators 192
- Incidents foreign policy should govern, not be governed by 134
- Independence
 most important state interest is survival 134

Influence

- diplomatic virtues that engender 135
- insidious foreign 108
- insinuation more useful than direct persuasion 136
- men are moved by feelings alone 135
- moral is most essential qualification in diplomacy 135

Influence, sphere of

- defined 135

Informality

- sign of self-confidence 135

Information

- is power 138
- right to . . . asserted most by political opponents 49

Insecurity

- price of independence 134

Insincerity

- grave defect in a public man 136

Insinuation

- art of more useful than direct persuasion 136

Inspectors

- defined 136

Instructions

- ambassador must not wait for 136
- authority of ambassadors to question 15, 136, 137
- bureaucratic 137
- initial tend to be inflexible 137
- reaction by ambassadors to counterproductive 137
- well-formulated diplomatic 137

Insults

- arise from insolence or self-deception 138
- diplomats 86
- serve as arguments for those in the wrong 137

Intelligence

- advantage from knowledge of adversary 138
- analysis 139
- as component of statecraft 274
- best, essential to best policy 139
- capacity of to overwhelm the more powerful and spirited 140
- essential to know character of enemy 138
- forewarned, forearmed 138
- history is the foremost tool for political analysis 129
- information is power 138

Intelligence (cont.)

- needed on adversaries to decide actions 103
- on capabilities and intentions 39
- overt and covert collection 139
- predictions project the specious present 140
- resistance of policymakers to 140
- statesmen must decide without knowledge of the future 274
- the soul of public business 138
- true statesman does not despise for its origins 138

Intelligence agencies

- negotiators and 193

Interest, national

- defined 140

Interest, strategic

- defined 140

Interest, vital

- defined 141

Interests

- agreements must rest on 141
- coincide with moral duties 142
- connect states and guarantee their existence 141
- determine longevity of treaties 7
- diplomats place them first 142
- eternal and perpetual 143
- failure to define and rank cripples diplomacy 143
- harmonizing is secret of negotiation 142
- identification of common is function of diplomacy 142
- in democracies 142
- nations determine policies in terms of 143
- no perfect congruity between allies 141
- not values basis for joint action 301
- policies not built on 142
- political interests guarantee state existence 143
- sentiment changes, interests persist 142
- special must not override national 143
- trust no nation not bound by 141

Interests section

- defined 143

Internal affairs

- conquest, not sanctions, required to change rulers 262
- interference in cause for expulsion 144
- modifying institutions of other countries 144

Internal affairs (cont.)

- no nation has a right to intervene in 197
- right of interference in 144
- right of interference in delimited 144
- sanctions as means of interference with 144

International organizations

- deciding how to vote 305
- diplomatic fog factories 145
- no brotherhood that laughs at boundaries 146
- oratory at 146
- parliamentary diplomacy defined 77
- peacemaking 145
- phases of response to crises 59
- quiet use of facilities effective 146
- value of public debate at 298

Internuncio

- defined 146

Interpretation

- nuances lost in simultaneous 147

Interpreters

- advice for statesmen on how to use 148
- briefing before meetings 147
- faithful echo of the statesman 148
- must know as much as statesmen 147
- qualities of effective 147
- use in negotiations 148

Intervention

- defined 149

Intolerable

- means no idea what to do 149

Intrigue

- with intelligence and science a king can defeat the mighty 149

Invitations

- never fish for them, dining out wastes time 149

Irony

- mistake in diplomacy 149

Irritation

- man who shows ill-fitted to diplomacy 23
- negotiator should not show 149
- never get angry except on purpose 23
- predisposition to take offense catalyzes hostilities 149
- soft answer turneth away wrath 321

- Irving, Washington readiness to take offense, not acts, spark wars 149 treaties bind not at all 293
- Ishii, Kikujiro compromise is essential 50
- Jackson, Geoffrey
 diplomacy defined 70 preparation the better part of summitry 286
- Jefferson, Thomas
 acquiescence under insult no escape from war 25
 enlightened self-interest described 268 gratitude should bear on national conduct 127 national interests and moral duties coincide 142 peace, commerce, and honest friendship 48 selfish, unpatriotic spirit of commerce 49
- Johnson, Hugh S. war springs from commercial rivalries 49
- Johnson, Lyndon B. intelligence essential to policy 139 secrecy essential to intelligence work 264
- Johnson, Samuel flattery pleases 110 friendship lasting only between equals 120
- Jomini, Antoine Henri ignorance of adversaries paralyzes decision 103
- Journalism background, defined 33 deep background, defined 33 off the record, defined 251 on the record, defined 251 best when diplomats, reporters allied 233 news contrasted with diplomatic reporting 149
- Journalists
 diplomats contrasted with 86, 244
- Judgment
 failure to give an evasion of responsibility 151
- Jusserand, J. J.
 ambassadors should be neither old nor immature 15 diplomatic service represents aspiration to suppress wars 212 knowledge of foreign nations needs time 153

Jusserand, J. J., citing others

- after Pandora's box opened, ambassadors a necessity 102
- ambassadors must be indefatigable readers 153
- ambassadors should refuse gifts unless departing 126
- an ambassador should be good-looking 24
- dissembling is excusable in public business 93
- initiative by ambassadors without instructions 136
- management of ambassadors' residences 258
- money opens the most secret cabinets 103
- moral duties of ambassadors to sovereigns 174
- probity essential in ambassadors 236
- prudence and learning avail little without eloquence 98
- reporting must conceal nothing 256
- standards for recruiting apprentice diplomats 89
- style of speech appropriate to ambassadors 202
- training of diplomats in discretion 90
- welfare of nations in hands of ambassadors 22

Justice

- America goes not abroad in search of monsters to destroy 151
- better served by diplomatic adjustment than force 4
- enters human affairs only when backed by power 152
- may be slighted in peace 209
- without force is impotent 152

Kampelman, Max M.

- conduct of negotiations 185

Kautilya

- See Arthashastra of Kautilya* 235

Kelly, David

- open diplomacy a contradiction in terms 76
- qualifications of good diplomats 87

Kennan, George F.

- breaking relations 252
- conditions favoring international law 270
- control personnel and control policy 214
- diplomats suffer from domestic political distractions 94
- diplomats view propaganda with distaste and scepticism 240
- domestic political imperatives no excuse for failure 94
- economic protectionism ignominious 241
- every government a problem for others 247
- leadership requires self-mastery 157
- methodology of foreign policy 117

- Kennan, George F. (cont.)
 personal diplomacy risks ephemeral results 77 purposes of foreign policy 118 subject matter, scope of diplomacy 80
- Kennedy, A. L. conferences only succeed when results arranged beforehand 52 qualities of the perfect diplomat enumerated 89
- Kennedy, John F.
 domestic mistakes not fatal, foreign policy can be 116 every nation determines policies in terms of interests 143 mere absence of war is not peace 207 purpose of foreign policy not sentiment 118
- Kennedy, Paul vital role of diplomacy in grand strategy 280
- Kertesz, Stephen D.
 skill of negotiators influences history 118
- Khrushchev, Nikita S. war, not conference, alters borders 35
- Kirk, Alexander
 never do anything abrupt. It never pays 3
- Kirkpatrick, Ivone defeatism makes a bad diplomat 64
- Kissinger, Henry A.
 absolute security for one, absolute insecurity for others 267 achieve war aims while at war 211 acid test of foreign policy domestic support 116 advantages and disadvantages of summit meetings 284 bargaining power depends on perceived options 34 circumstance imprisons statesmen 42 coalitions at the mercy of most determined members 44 conditions for balance of power 225 creation of moral consensus to preserve status quo 278 criteria for effective strategy 279 dangers of coalitions between status quo and acquisitive powers 46 dedication to peace empowers the ruthless 208 defeat and occupation 63 deterrence dependent on combination of factors 69 dilemmas of negotiation by democracies 185 eagerness a liability in negotiations 97 foreign policy needs domestic support to succeed 118 guerrilla wars not about compromise 309 guerrilla wins if he does not lose 309

Kissinger, Henry A. (cont.)

- hubris in negotiators 194
- ideas do not sell themselves 5
- legitimizing principle of order defines justice, adjustment 202
- leverage from declarations of neutrality, concern 197
- limits of diplomacy when force has abdicated 112
- logics of war, peace contrasted 314
- management of balance of power 224
- mediocrity in statecraft 274
- military men ill-suited to negotiation of peace 318
- moral claims cannot be compromised as beyond expediency 133
- moral dilemmas of statesmen 175
- morality vs. pragmatism in decision-making 175
- nature of adjustment when international order challenged 203
- negotiation with revolutionary powers 184
- negotiations at summits 286
- never treat crises when cold, only when hot 59
- no power can negotiate about its existence 177
- perception of trends vital to statesmen 294
- planning a waste of time unless . . . 217
- planning must consider capabilities as well as intentions 39
- power is the ultimate aphrodisiac 223
- prerequisites for limited war 311
- public relations a substitute for sense of direction 244
- purpose of alliance 10
- reconciliation with defeated enemies 213
- reliance on power with insufficient means is suicide 228
- revolutionary movements 258
- revolutionary powers seek absolute security 273
- spirits of policy, bureaucracy, contrasted 219
- stability derived from consensus on international order 272
- stable order grounded in relative security, insecurity 204
- success of war, victory; of peace, stability 314
- summit meetings without specific purpose condemned 286
- three main functions of negotiation 183
- to gain time offer to talk 289
- translating victory into political terms 304
- unilateral gestures in negotiations 192
- unprecedented is a suspect term 299
- vulnerability of established order 204
- will may play as great a role as power 320

- Kitahara, Hideo ambassadors' duty to sustain international system 85
- Knowledge
 ambassadors must be indefatigable readers 153 of foreign nations needs time 153 of host country by resident ambassadors 18 of self required in negotiators 268
- Komura, Jutaro diplomats should use ears, not mouth 87
- Laberius friends and enemies interchangeable 121
- Langhorne, R. T. B. and Hamilton, Keith beginnings of diplomacy 71
 diplomacy defined 74
- Language
 all nations have a right to treat with others in a neutral 247 know a man's to know his soul 155 to speak a foreign is to wear a disguise 155 window into the world 155
- Language and culture applied arts in diplomacy 155
- Language, body innocent gestures can be insults 125
- Languages diplomatic 155
- Law contrasted with diplomacy 73 defects of legal reasoning in diplomacy 90 depends on tolerant society of nations 269 international contrasted to domestic 156 limitations of international 269
- Lawyers contrasted with diplomats 157 poor diplomats 157
- Leadership requires self-mastery 157
- Legation
 defined 158
- Legislation application to diplomacy counterproductive 158 contrary to diplomacy 158

Legislative process

contrary to diplomacy 297

Legislatures

belligerent nationalism of 159 cannot exercise initiative 158 intervention in diplomacy almost always unfortunate 159 lack qualities to make foreign policy 158 policy made by breeds war 159

Lenin, V. I.

promises made to be broken 238

Leo X, Pope

reinsure by negotiating with the other side 10

Lescalopier de Nourar

welfare of nations in hands of ambassadors 22

Liddell Hart, Basil strategy for victory 281 victory implies peace better after war than before 303 war must be conducted with a view to the peace you desire 315

Lie, Trygve

diplomat can cut neighbor's throat . . . 83

Lies

diplomacy is to lie and deny 73 habitual liars need good memories 159

inadmissible in diplomacy 130

no occasion can justify 160

only rulers should have privilege of 61

rulers alone may lie 61 truth not for everyone 160

Life, diplomatic easy on the brain, hell on the feet 81

protocol, Geritol and alcohol 81

Linguists

speaking is not thinking 160

Linkage

defined 160

Lippmann, Walter

alliances like chains, weak links do not strengthen 10 difference between statesmen and politicians 277

mass opinion a dangerous master of decisions 243 policy formed when commitments balance power 228 public opinion is always wrong 243 statesman who wants peace cannot ignore 223

- Listening gathers information, conceals your own views 160
 in negotiations 160
 persuasion through 160 to what is not said 161
- Liu Ji ally with neighbors to make war 307 delay until others wane 64
- Livingston, Edward political appointees seek sinecures and luxurious enjoyment 27
- Livy certain peace better than anticipated victory 303
- Lloyd George, David fatuity of military political judgment 319 government cannot act in advance of public opinion 243 quarrels should not become policy 101 statesman who haggle should be horse dealers 275
- Localitis
 avoid admiration or disparagement of host country 230 guard against 161 problem of 161
- Lodge, Henry Cabot nation armed and bankrupt most dangerous 6
- Lodge, John D. ambassador man with most money, fewest votes 27
- Logic of no use in diplomacy 161
- Lomax, John
 the fewer the staff the better the performance 272
- Louis XIV
 open negotiations promote obstinacy 53
- Loyalty requires discreet dissent 162
- Luard, Evan unyielding stubbornness vs. appeasement 25
- Luce, Clare Booth
 no good deed goes unpunished 126
- Luke
 not with me, against me 121
- Luttwak, Edward N. arms control not a form of conflict resolution 30 logic of strategy described 280

400 Index

Luttwak, Edward N. (cont.)

- prepared ability to fight assures peace in two ways 232
- statecraft subject to logic of strategy 278

Lyons, Lord

- distinctive function of diplomatists 82

Mably, Abbot

- virtue stripped of force reveals its own weakness 205

MacArthur, Douglas

- fatal to enter war without will to win it 312
- politics should not handicap men in war 317

Machiavelli, Niccolò

- advancing other powers ruins one's own 8
- appeasement ill advised 26
- army, not money, sole reliable defense 227
- deceit laudable in war 61
- dilemma of peace and war 212
- disregarding promises made under duress no disgrace 238
- economics of wars of conquest 309
- exiles vain and unreliable instruments of influence 105
- hatred springs from fear and envy 129
- highest wisdom may be to simulate folly 112
- imitate the fox and the lion 274
- insulting language 138
- judging a man's character 41
- never ally with the more powerful 10
- nothing more difficult than initiating a new order 203
- power measured by attitudes of neighbors 227
- purposes of violence 113
- republics more faithful to treaties than princes 54
- sacrifice of certain good for uncertain better 138
- threats and insulting words 291
- where to fight a war 311

Mackinder, Halford

- who rules the world-island commands the world 125

Macmillan, Harold

- alliances held together by fear, not love 10
- statesmen poised between cliché and indiscretion 254

Macomber, William

- ability to give a good toast 292
- avoid admiration or disparagement of host country 230
- avoid disputes over principle 234

- Macomber, William (cont.)
- avoid indiscretion in dealing with the press 232
 - brevity a virtue in reporting 255
 - definition of diplomacy 74
 - discretion quality of reliability 92
 - duty of diplomats to work for negotiability 238
 - good negotiators are good at assessment of opponents 192
 - loyalty requires discreet dissent 162
 - negotiation should produce results that last 182
 - negotiations at the summit violate precepts of good negotiation 284
 - opening and fallback in negotiations 183
 - opportunities to make a difference through diplomatic career 237
 - perils of uncontrolled empathy in reporting 98
 - policy not supported by power inoperative 228
 - problem of "localitis" dissected 161
 - profession of diplomacy honorable, even exalted 237
 - virtues of ad referendum negotiations 184
- Madison, James
- attention to judgments of other nations 98
- Magalhães, José Calvet de
- instruments of foreign policy diplomacy and war 116
- Maggi, Ottaviano
- qualifications of ambassadors 21
- Magnanimity
- can conquer great enmities 163
 - in victory . . . , in peace, good will 303
- Mababharata*
- if enemies fight deceitfully repay them in kind 257
 - might is above right, right proceeds from might 170
- Mail
- delivered by diplomats 65
 - delivering the 22
- Malmesbury, Lord
- eagermost contacts on arrival suspicious 56
 - hold onto official documents in negotiations 185
 - listen, don't talk 160
 - neither confirm nor deny indiscreet assertions 104
 - opening position in negotiations 187
 - sacrifice your national prejudices to your hosts' 60
- Manners
- learned from those who have none 163
 - putting others at ease 163

- Manu, Laws of
 - peace and war depend on ambassadors 20
- Mao Zedong
 - power comes from guns 229
- Marshall, George C.
 - don't ask me to agree in principle 7
- Martens, Charles de
 - definition of diplomacy 76
 - necessity of tact in diplomacy 289
- Martens, G. F. de
 - gifts distinguished from bribery 126
- Matthew
 - blesséd are the peacemakers 212
- Mayer, Martin
 - diplomacy is the profession par excellence 238
 - war is hell for soldiers, unemployment for diplomats 318
- McClintock, Robert
 - definition of diplomacy 74
 - influence of diplomats on policy 90
- Mediation
 - adjustments need intolerable situation, deadlock 168
 - better between enemies than friends 168
 - borrowed leverage 165
 - changes structure of negotiation 165
 - conciliator must help parties perceive ripe moment 168
 - creating formulae for peacemaking 164
 - defined 163
 - defining the agenda 164
 - end games 213
 - formulae for settlement proposed by mediators 165
 - interest in issues and outcome not an obstacle to 167
 - joint with others considered 166
 - knowledge required by peacemakers 166
 - may require action to ripen the conflict 168
 - mediator's role 170
 - price of defense of international stability 168
 - reinforcing conflict to produce compromise 163
 - richest source of leverage may be built into situation 167
 - secrecy in 49
 - stick with logic of national interests 164
 - using third parties and institutions as leverage 166

- Mediators credibility of 164, 169 must respect parties and their concerns 170 power and leverage of vis-à-vis the parties 169 role of in defining process and agenda for settlement 170 seek to become channels for communication between parties 170
- Mediocrity
in statecraft 274
- Melville, Herman
amity only maintained by mutual respect 23
- Memoranda of conversation
no one ever lost an argument in his own 256
- Mencius men do not submit to force in their hearts 113
- Mencken, H. L.
no nation ever gained by being unready to defend itself 249
- Merchant, Livingston
a year required to become effective at new post 292 diplomats' role indispensable 90 negotiator must know absolute minimum acceptable 187
- Messengers
beginnings of diplomacy 71
magpies 170
- Metternich command and control of coalitions 45 interests connect states and guarantee their existence 141 interests guarantee existence of states 143 no peace possible with a revolutionary system 273 principle of solidarity and equilibrium 141 revolutions and the restoration of order 203 to despise public opinion like despising moral principles 244
- Might is above right 170
where is no . . . right loses itself 171
- Military matters
if you believe the soldiers, nothing is safe 266 only military men should be listened to 171 should be left to military men 171
- Military science statesmen must study 277
- Milton, John amity transcends cultural differences 23

- Minister
 - defined 171
 - head of legation 158
- Minister-Counselor
 - defined 171
- Ministers
 - ambassador should know their passions and interests 172
 - meetings at the level of 172
 - should listen to experts in negotiations 172
- Ministers for foreign affairs
 - defined 171
 - dilemmas of in public remarks 254
 - name-calling at conferences left to 52
 - qualities of 171
- Mission
 - ambassador's authority 82
 - defined 173
 - deputy chief of, defined 173
 - represents entire government 82
- Moderation
 - in diplomacy as servant of statecraft 274
 - who walks in the middle gets hit from both sides 173
- Modesty
 - in negotiators 194
 - necessary in counseling sovereigns 4
- Modus vivendi
 - defined 173
- Mohieddin, Zakaria
 - objectives of the "game of nations" 115
- Moltke, Helmuth von ("The Elder")
 - eternal peace a dream, and not beautiful 209
 - leadership of diplomacy and military strategy 320
 - war strategy and diplomacy, relationship 318
- Monat, Pawel
 - term military attaché a synonym for spy 31
- Monnet, Jean
 - détente must represent facts 68
- Monroe, James
 - leave military matters to the military 171
 - national honor 131
 - preparation for war stimulates suspicion, ill will 232

- Montague, C. E.
 war hath no fury like a non-combatant 314
- Montaigne, Michel de ambassadors not bound to unswerving obedience 20 quarrels of princes cause wars 247
- Montesquieu absence of gratitude for charity 42 international relations in peace and war 313
 self-defense sometimes dictates aggression 32
- Moore, John Bassett sincerity of governments never to be questioned 268
- Moore, Robert J.
 dance and diplomacy call for sureness of footing 81
 definition of diplomacy 74
- Morality
 always do right 174
 ambassadors should not transgress 174 compromises necessary to advance 175 diplomatic corps not a school of virtue 173 do not do what you would be ashamed to have discovered 264 in foreign policy, choice not between morality and pragmatism 175 no nation fit to judge another 175 of governments superseded by reason of state 174 only good principle is to have none 175 statesmen cannot afford to be moralists 174 weak states can create moral consensus to preserve status quo 278
- Morgenthau, Hans negotiations cannot be conducted in public 191
- Morgenthau, Hans J.
 good intentions no guarantee of success in statesmen 276 international politics the struggle for power 223 statesmen must cross the Rubicon not knowing . . . 274
- Morris, William men fight and lose . . . 218
- Morrow, Dwight
 hard bargain is a bad bargain 188
- Most-favored-nation status
 defined 176
- Mothe le Vayer, François de la ambassadors a necessity after Pandora's box opened 102
- Motivations states seldom act from a single motive 176

Mowat, R. B.

- almost impossible to end war till it's run its course 316
- civilians too intimidated by soldiers 319
- collegiality of the diplomatic profession 46
- diplomacy not changed by revolutions 80
- diplomatic contacts in wartime speed resolution 320
- diplomatic role of the press 233
- factors in success of conference diplomacy 52
- irony a serious fault in a diplomat 149
- peace and good relations demands of diplomatic profession 238
- peoples more warlike than governments 308
- policy made by legislatures breeds uncertainty and war 159
- self-restraint and poise 218
- sudden diplomacy the worst that can be practised 283

Mowat, R. B., citing others

- popular participation in foreign policy no cure for war 67

Mowrer, Paul Scott

- interests vs. ideology in foreign policy 142

Moynihan, Daniel Patrick

- importance of negotiating record 178

Muaawiya

- if they slacken, I pull; if they pull, I slacken 253

Mueller, John

- wars are lost, not won 316

Multilateral

- defined 176

Mumbling

- when in doubt, mumble 37

Murray, Grenville

- diplomacy of women like that of eunuchs 81

Nabokov, Vladimir

- perils of predicting the future 140

Napoleon

- ambassadors are titled spies 22
- diplomacy, police in grand costume 70
- flatterers also slander 109
- flattery from enemies is suspicious 111
- international incidents 134
- negotiation during war 186
- pay attention to the women 70

Napoleon (cont.)

- principles are fine; they entail no commitment 234
- treaties last while in harmony with interests 7

National

- defined 177

Nations

- it matters how small ones express themselves 269
- judged by representatives abroad 90
- large prone to self-absorption 156
- paradox of power operates to advantage of small 269
- powerful need no ambassadors 269
- small are like indecently dressed women 269
- small have long memories and thin skins 269
- society of . . . and international law 269

Navigation

- protection of 37

Negotiability

- maintenance of objective of diplomacy 177
- no power can negotiate about its existence 177
- what's mine is mine, what's yours is negotiable 177
- when negotiation is appropriate 177

Negotiation

- appropriateness and necessity of considered 177
- between friends 121
- cultural differences affect 60
- defined and described 182
- diplomatic, defined 183
- flexibility in 183
- functions of 183
- not an exercise in charity 182
- only time resolves conflicts but time needs help 184
- possibility of coercive use of power informs 183
- propaganda value of 182
- purpose of politeness in 221
- should never degenerate into argument 29
- society of men implies continuous 182
- victory and defeat in negate diplomacy 294
- with revolutionary states differs from commercial 184

Negotiation, criteria for

- must be common interests and issues of conflict 182

Negotiations

- agreement ends secrecy 190
- antidote to weakness for the prudent and astute 184
- between friends 122
- cannot gain what force could not 34
- collapse of 107
- conduct of 185
- confidentiality of 189
- confidentiality of private discussions during 190
- dilemmas of democracies in 185
- documents in 185
- hard bargain is a bad bargain 188
- hear only what was said 160
- humility in 131
- importance of keeping them ad referendum 184
- importance of precision in 229
- impossible without secrecy 191, 264
- influencing opponents' instructions 187
- involvement of women in 81
- national styles differ 187
- objectives in 201
- opening position in 183, 187
- peace talks the war after the war 188
- publicity about necessary at right time 188
- publicity about progress in 190
- publicity freezes positions in 190
- publicity inhibits flexibility in 189
- resort to force so as to initiate 113
- results, not course, should be publicized 190
- secrecy essential to facilitate concessions 191
- secrecy in 191
- secrecy necessary to enable compromise 265
- secrecy of forgiven by posterity 83
- should produce results that last 182
- summits and 284
- take about as long as elephants to have babies 186
- territorial disputes, secrecy essential 191
- timing of 50
- unbacked by power ridiculous and fruitless 188
- unilateral gestures a mistake 192
- venue 302

Negotiations (cont.)

- war by other means 184
- wartime 186
- Negotiations, art of conducting
 - be not so soft as to be squeezed dry 187
 - domino effect 186
 - empathy 99
 - empathy contrasted with sympathy 287
 - events can control 186
 - focus on implementation 187
 - high demands, tough, realistic approach pays 179
 - listen for what your opponent does not say 161
 - loses value for powerful who can dictate 183
 - manufacturing a casus belli 312
 - never allow opponent to take away documents 186
 - politeness 221
 - powerful should make the first advance 229
 - principles vs. practicalities 312
 - refusal to negotiate best strategy 280
 - relinquishing options deliberately 193
 - remember relationships beyond issues at hand 186
 - withhold major concessions for last 50
- Negotiations, delegations for
 - composition of 179, 180
 - duties of head of delegation 181
 - language qualifications 181
 - management of 181
 - three elements of 179
- Negotiations, objectives in
 - ambassadors' role in setting 179
 - clarity and precision breed success 177
 - negotiator must know minimum position 187
 - negotiators easily abandon 193
 - not to conclude something 183
 - realism required 178
 - resist temptation to solve too much 178
 - setting the bottom line 193
- Negotiations, propitious moment for
 - when both sides see agreement as better than its absence 188
- Negotiations, publicity about
 - danger of provoking vanity of an adversary 190
 - media attention inhibits compromise 188

410 Index

- Negotiations, publicity about (cont.)
 - successful diplomacy not much publicized 283
 - winners like recognition 191
- Negotiations, record of
 - importance 178
 - making accurate minutes essential 178
 - master the record 179
 - mind well-marinated in, prepared 178
- Negotiations, trickery in
 - overbidding to make other offers unattractive 204
- Negotiators
 - Achilles heel of objectivity 194
 - assessment of opponents 192
 - backstopping back home essential 195
 - dangers of vanity in 301
 - defeatism in 64
 - differences with intelligence agencies 193
 - hubris in 194
 - inability to make concessions as source of power 193
 - influence success or failure of foreign policy 117
 - instructions to 193
 - interest in success excessive 193
 - modesty in 194
 - must be able to outsit the other side 206
 - must know their own weaknesses to succeed 268
 - patience and preparation by 196
 - private meetings between 194
 - qualifications 192
 - qualities of 195
 - qualities of the heart most important 195
 - rank of 195
 - responsibility for preparing opening and fallback positions 183
 - rudeness sometimes useful 259
 - seek to change reality not understand and accept it 193
 - selection of to facilitate agreement 196
 - should be apt listeners 193
 - should conceal irritation 149
 - should know their opponents to persuade them 196
 - stamina required 272
 - visible authority vital to success 192
 - working opponents 196

- Neighbors are natural enemies 100 attitudes of measure power 227 every nation wishes them weakness and decadence 197
- Neutrality between a dog and a lamp-post 197
 defined 197
 leverage derived from 197 preferred policy 197 strong government needed to observe 197
- New diplomacy nothing real in it 198 old art practiced under new conditions 198
- Nicholas II
 99% of 'public opinion' is mere forgery 243
- Nicholas, Herbert
 UN indispensable before it has become effective 298
- Nicolson, Arthur durable peace must be moderate and just 316
- Nicolson, Harold alliances evolve 11
 ambassadors must question bad instructions 137 American views of U.S. Foreign Service 120 brilliance and triumphs breed resentment 78
 coalitions 44 dangers of vanity in negotiators 302
 definition of diplomacy 74 diplomacy seeks durable arrangements 71 diplomacy should be a disagreeable business 229 diplomatic theory from common sense, not religion 254 diplomats place national interests first 142 disintegrating effect of flattery 110 duty to express judgment 151 good negotiations take as long as elephants having babies 186 imprecise policy no policy at all 219 influence founded on diplomatic virtues 135 meetings at ministerial level 172 missionaries, fanatics and lawyers 84
 negotiation must not degenerate into argument 29 negotiators should conceal irritation 149 practice of diplomacy relies on confidence and credit 78

412 Index

- Nicolson, Harold (cont.) susceptibility of diplomats to vanity 301 worst and best diplomatists 84
- Niebuhr, Reinhold only an order with justice brings stable peace 202
- Nietzsche, Friedrich war makes the victor stupid, the vanquished vengeful 307
- Nixon, Richard M. balance of power diplomacy 224 covenants arrived at secretly or not at all 191 creation of willowy euphoria a danger of summitry 284 talking not always better than not talking 286
- Nonalignment
defined 198
- Nonintervention almost the same as intervention 198
- Non-paper
defined 198
- Norstad, Lauris foreign policy no more effective than power backing it 119
- Notes circular, defined 199 collective 199
diplomatic, defined 199 exchange of, defined 199 identical, defined 199
verbale, defined 199 why diplomats write them 199
- Nuance truth and wisdom lie in 199
- Nuncio
defined 199
- Nyerere, Julius K.
small nations like indecently dressed women 269
- O'Brien, Conor Cruise appeal to United Nations 298
- Occupation
one can do everything with bayonets except sit on them 201 strategies for coping with 63
- Old diplomacy mostly carried on in drawing rooms 201

- Opportunities
 - take time by the forelock 202
 - who seizes the right moment the right man 202
- Opposition parties
 - always be in with the outs 202
- Oratory
 - at international organizations 146
 - skill required by ambassadors 202
 - style appropriate for ambassadors 202
- Order
 - foundation of stable is relative security, insecurity 203
 - international, realm of kaleidoscopic 202
 - legitimizing principle defines justice, mode of adjustment 202
 - only an order with justice brings a stable peace 202
 - revolutionary challenge to changes diplomacy 203
 - revolutions temporary disturbances in life of states 203
 - vulnerability to revolution 204
- Order, new
 - difficulties of initiating 203
- Ovid
 - nations flourish and decay 41
- Pacifism
 - the Earth devours a king who is inclined to peace 205
 - virtue stripped of force reveals its own weakness 205
- Page, Walter Hines
 - description of activities of American ambassadors 14
- Palmerston, Lord
 - balance of power is self-preservation 225
 - commerce builds a community of interests between nations 47
 - dining is the soul of diplomacy 101
 - duties of consular officers 31
 - Eleventh Commandment, "Thou shalt not be found out" 62
 - firmly defend national interests 115
 - only interests abide 143
 - publicizing success in negotiations 191
- Partisans of good relations
 - ambassadors should cultivate 205
 - be wary of overly eager acquaintances 56
- Partition
 - defined 206

414 Index

Pascal, Blaise

justice without force is impotent . . . 151

Passport

defined 206

Patience

a state with a future can afford to wait 206

delay until others wane 64

eagerness a liability in negotiations 97

everything comes to those who wait 206

key attribute of successful diplomats 206

unshakeable 88

Patriotism

defined 206

he who denies his heritage . . . 207

Peace

a bad one worse than war 208 a very apoplexy, lethargy . . . 209 achieve basic terms of while at war 211 be suspicious of one who begs for a truce 294

best secured through magnanimity 163 can succeed only with will and power to enforce it 207 certain . . . better than anticipated victory 303 civilized mankind desires yet makes war 212 daughter of war 211 dedication to empowers the ruthless 208 dream of the wise 211

durable 316

eternal, a dream and not beautiful 209 eternal, lasts only till next war 209 favors the status quo, not justice 209 interest keeps 209

logic of contrasted with logic of war 313 mankind will only perish in eternal 209 means non-resort to force to resolve conflicts 207 more perfect, legitimate object of war 210 never a bad, nor a good war 208

no greater fault than a vindictive 211 no one can have longer than his neighbor pleases 209 not mere absence of war 207

nothing but a name 207 object to make future war improbable 211 only rulers with no choice should seek 207

Peace (cont.)

- only way to abolish war is to make . . . heroic 307
- opposite of not just war but all political violence 210
- peace without victory 208
- peacekeeping often an obstacle to 212
- price of self-respect too great for 210
- purpose of all war is 210
- really only a truce 209
- reconciliation with enemies 210
- reconciling the vanquished to defeat 211
- secure when no profit in war 211
- seldom reigns in Europe, never throughout the world 208
- success is stability, success of war is victory 314
- the worst one is better than war 208
- tranquil freedom contrary to war 207
- war in masquerade 207

Peace and war

- diplomatic service represents aspiration for peace 212
- expedient for the victory, necessity for the vanquished 212
- unhappy dilemma for rulers 212
- weakness at home, risks abroad 211

Peacekeeping

- freezes conflict, impedes peace 212

Peacemakers

- blesséd as the children of God 212
- infirmities of military men as 318
- interest in issues and outcome does not disqualify 167
- knowledge required by in mediation 166
- must deal ad hoc, be tailors, not haberdashers 166
- role of vis-à-vis the contending parties 170

Peacemaking

- deriving leverage from others and regional balance of power 213
- diplomacy, not speeches or votes 213
- mechanisms for implementation come at the end 213
- publicizing grievances undercuts 213
- reconciliation with enemies 213

Pearson, Lester B.

- diplomacy letting someone else have your way 74
- diplomacy unbacked by strength aimless 119

Pecquet, Antoine

- envoys never off duty 20
- exactitude in reporting essential 255

- Pecquet, Antoine (cont.) qualities of the heart most important in negotiators 195 society of men implies continuous negotiation 182 to be worthy of rewards is itself a recompense 258
- Perseverance
 in policy only avenue to success 214
- Persistence
 in policies that fail no aid to credibility 54
- Persona non grata
 defined 214
- Personal diplomacy risks of 77
- Personnel controls institutions and policies 214 employ the wise, brave, covetous, and stupid 214 how to choose reliable people 214
- Persuasion contrasted with bargaining 215 fitting words to the mind of another 215 only alternative to coercion 145 through insinuation 136
- Pierce, Herbert H. D. amateurism undesirable in ambassadors 15
- Placement
 defined 216
- Plamandon, Benoit
 how plans become policies 217
- Planning based on capabilities as well as intentions 39 futility of 217
 most profitable investment of time 218 process, in foreign ministries 216 role and essential task of 217 scratch a diplomat, find a planner 217 statesman must do themselves 116 statesmen cannot foresee results of action 217 summitry distracts from 283 waste of time unless done by those who execute it 217
- Plantey, Alain
 good faith requires patient and constant effort 126

- Plato
 peace is but a name 207 rulers alone should be allowed to lie 61 states are normally at war with each other 316
- Plischke, Elmer
 definition of diplomacy 75 national power defined 227
- Poise quality of traditional diplomatist 218
- Polemics
 defined 218
- Police diplomacy in grand costume 70 international organizations as 145
- Policy contributions to by ambassadors 16 coordination process criticized 56 dead 220 differs from administration 218 diplomacy is but the agency for effectuating 219 imprecise means aspiration only 219 intelligence essential to best 139 limited and defensive . . . is losing policy 219 mistaken policies born in telling chiefs what they like to hear 220 recommendations to sovereigns 5 relationship to intelligence 140 sentimental knows no reciprocity 268 spirit of contrasted with spirit of bureaucracy 218 substance of foreign relations, diplomacy execution of 219 war as instrument of 308 without commensurate power inoperative 228
- Policy, national security diplomacy the silent, bloodless stuff of strategy 219
- Policymaking specialists not infallible 220 sticking to the carcasses of dead policies 220
- Politeness
 art of living easy and happy in society 221 courtesy to strangers 278
 diplomats 221 function of in negotiation 221 gets one by everywhere 220

Politeness (cont.)

- know the meaning of evasion 104
- not a false thing but restraint of passion 220
- painless to the tongue 220
- strangers always polite 278
- wartime 221

Political appointees

See Appointees, political

Political parties

- relations with by diplomats 86

Political section

- defined 221

Political warfare

- confusion, indecisiveness, panic, weapons 222

Politicians

- as ambassadors 222
- contrasted with statesmen 277
- distinguished from statesmen 277

Politics

- art of the possible 222
- military and 319

Polybius

- wisdom and skill needed to make use of victory 305

Postings

- be wary of those eager to contact you on arrival 56
- instructions to his wife by Sir Richard Burton 271

Pouch

- diplomatic, defined 222

Power

- absolute power corrupts absolutely 226
- consists in having things your way 223
- distance weakens 222
- from the barrel of a gun 229
- international politics based on struggle for 223
- man-of-war best ambassador 228
- measuring by reference to neighboring states 227
- measuring that of a state 227
- military, relationship to policy 228
- money not the sinews of war 226, 227
- more powerful state should make first move in negotiations 229
- objectives must be limited to accord with 201
- paradox of works to advantage of small states 269

Power (cont.)

- persuasive only if likely to be applied 228
- policy formed when commitments balance 228
- policy not supported by inoperative 228
- rulers tempted by arbitrary 223
- sets few limits on itself 223
- should speak for itself 281
- size, energy of nations 228
- statesman cannot ignore 223
- strategic objectives must not exceed 201
- sum total of the capabilities of the nation 227
- to rely on with insufficient means is suicide 228
- ultimate aphrodisiac 223
- weakness of reputation for power not based on force 228
- without power, a king is conquered 223

Power politics

- diplomatic name for law of the jungle 228

Power, balance of

- alternative is imbalance and greater danger of war 224
- conditions for operation of 225
- defined 223–225
- hegemony produces security, absence of it implies insecurity 134
- history demonstrates validity of principle of 141
- interest in independence transcends ideology 134
- means of buttressing alliances in changeable 10
- necessity of preventing aggrandizement of neighbors 224
- object is peace, not high ethical purpose 224
- permanent undertaking, not exertion that ends 224
- self-defense sometimes dictates aggression 32
- uncertainty of in times of rapid change 225
- weaker states unite to curb stronger 225
- when equilibrium present, diplomacy a substitute for war 225

Power, distribution of

- defined 226

Practicality

- nothing is unreasonable if it is useful 229

Precedence

- defined 229

Precedence, order of

- ancient quarrels best left unrenewed 241

420 Index

Precision

- diplomacy should be a disagreeable business 229
- excessive 230
- imprecise policy means no policy at all 219
- misery caused by lack of 172
- nothing more important in negotiation 229
- understandings must be precise 229

Prejudice

- diplomats must avoid positive or negative 230

Prerenegotiation

- 'flypaper principle' 231
- demonstrating stalemate and deterioration in situation 230
- influencing opponents' positions 187
- narrowing the subjects of disagreement 230
- tasks of analyzed 231

Preparedness

- assures peace in two ways 232
- diplomacy weak and ineffective without 232
- don't wait till you're thirsty to dig a well 232
- if you want peace, prepare war 232
- most needed by the weak 231
- stimulus to suspicion and ill will 232

Press

- advice for dealing with 232
- diplomatic role of the 233
- free reporting by creates need for deception in war 63
- most effective when officials sense partnership 233

Press, good

- have kids and a dog to get 233

Pressure

- rejection of 233

Prestige

- obstacle to compromise at conferences 53

Principle

- absent from commerce 49

Principles

- avoid disputes over 234
- cause of war 234
- compete with each other in diplomacy 234
- no guide to choice or compromise 234
- people that values privilege above . . . 234
- threads in the labyrinth of circumstances 234

- Privileges and immunities
 defined 235
 inviolability of ambassadors 235 kings' dignity is enhanced by good treatment of envoys 235 protection by the host country foundation of diplomacy 235
- Probity
 most important quality in ambassador 236 negotiators must embody 194 with candor more successful than subtlety, finesse 39
- Procès-verbal*
 defined 236
- Productive meaning of 236
- Profession of diplomacy demands of 238 deserves same preparation as other professions 236 duty to work for negotiability of problems 238 estranges from diplomats' fellow citizens 85 honorable, even exalted 237 life of good consequence 237 men conform to their calling 238 professional knowledge vital in selecting diplomats 15 pure service with quality of performance unmeasurable 238 too important to be left to amateurs 79 way of life 236
- Professionalism
 American tradition discredits 27 skilled work requires a skilled workman 15
- Professions diplomatic and military 91
- Proliferation driven by actual or anticipated conflict 290
- Promises
 like piecrusts, made to be broken 238 no disgrace in disregarding those forced upon one 238
- Propaganda
 advantages of the big lie 240 attitude of diplomats toward 240 confusion, panic as weapons 222 emotional engineering 239 friends nearly deceived, enemies not quite 239 handmaiden of diplomacy 239

Propaganda (cont.)

- handmaiden of good foreign policy 241
- in war, truth the first casualty 239
- limits of 240
- must fit policy as a sabre fits the scabbard 240
- must stress very few points and repeat them endlessly 239
- principles of 240
- sins of the enemy 239
- tendentious, if not deceptive 239
- vilify; some of it will stick 239

Protecting power

- defined 241

Protection

- businesses and citizens 37
- of resident nationals by ambassadors 42

Protectionism

- ridiculous and ignominious expedient 241
- tariff wars generally end in tariff wars 289

Protest

- defined 241

Protocol

- as agreement, defined 241
- defined as expression of good manners among nations 242
- framework for orderly conduct of diplomacy 242
- helpfulness of 241
- insistence upon a mark of lack of seriousness 242
- scenes over blunders of make diplomats ridiculous 242
- stilling of ancient preoccupations 241

Proverb

- everything comes to those who wait 206
- stay your hand or strike to kill 313
- take time by the forelock 202
- why have a dog and bark yourself? 6

Proverb, Arab

- be not so soft as to be squeezed dry, nor so stiff . . . 186
- call even a dog 'Sir' to get what you need 110
- cherish your heritage 207
- cross-cultural friendship 123
- donor should not mention charity; recipient should not forget it 42
- enemy of my enemy . . . 101
- generosity captivates the decent, antagonizes the mean 42
- habitual liars need good memories 159

- Proverb, Arab (cont.)
- kiss the hand that you cannot bite 110
 - kiss the upper hand you cannot withstand 282
 - recipients of charity are unreliable 42
 - responsibilities of guests 127
 - silence less regrettable than words 92
 - strangers are always polite 278
 - the sword decides after strategem has failed 113
 - wise enemies better than foolish friends 121
- Proverb, Dutch
- no one has peace longer than his neighbor pleases 209
- Proverb, English
- difference between statesmen and politicians 277
- Proverb, French
- absent are always wrong 3
 - don't wait till you're thirsty to dig a well 232
 - peace is the daughter of war 211
 - politeness 220
- Proverb, German
- best enemies those who make threats 291
- Proverb, Latin
- if you want peace, prepare war 232
 - to receive a favor is to sell your liberty 109
 - treaties must be observed 49
- Proverb, Persian
- how manners are learned 163
- Proverb, Portuguese
- where there is no might right loses itself 171
- Proverb, Russian
- eternal peace lasts till next war 209
- Proverbs
- a soft answer . . . 321
 - where there is no vision, the people perish 305
- Psychological operations
- defined 241
- Public appearances
- never miss an opportunity to relieve yourself 243
- Public opinion
- always wrong in foreign policy 243
 - ambassadors and 5
 - dangerous master of decisions 243
 - dilemmas for diplomats recommending policies 243

424 Index

Public opinion (cont.)

- means public sentiment 243
- mere forgery 243
- the Government cannot act in advance of 243
- to despise is like despising moral principles 244

Public relations

- substitute for sense of direction 244

Publicity

- about negotiations necessary at right time 189
- about progress in negotiations 190
- accomplishments inversely proportional to 244
- agreement in negotiations makes appropriate 190
- complicates settlement of quarrels 265
- deterrent to conflict resolution 244
- dilemma of foreign ministers 254
- diplomacy cannot always be public 244
- freezes positions in negotiations 190
- inhibits flexibility in negotiations 189
- much that cannot be disclosed in foreign affairs 265
- open covenants, openly arrived at 245
- participants in negotiation must not publish 189
- premature blights agreements 244
- problems solved by avoiding 230
- public conduct of negotiations impossible 191
- publication of grievances undercuts peacemaking 213

Purpose

- great actions derive from great purposes 245
- nations must limit objectives 201
- pursue one great decisive aim 245

Purposes of diplomacy

- creating solid and durable relations 71

Purposes, national

- always exceed a nation's means 245
- must be proportional to capabilities 245

Quaroni, Pietro

- good diplomacy concedes the minimum necessary 50

Quarrels

- agreements cause disagreements 247
- cause war between princes 247
- every government a problem for others 247

- Quarrels (cont.)
 of friends are opportunities of foes 247 usually caused by bureaucratic blunders 35
- Raison d'état*
 defined 249
 irrelevance of individual morality to governments 174
- Rajaratnam, S.
 deciding how to vote in international organizations 305
- Rapporteur
 defined 249
- Rapprochement
 defined 249
- Ratification
 defined 249
- Readiness
 diplomacy weak and ineffective without 232
 if you want peace, prepare war 232
 no nation ever gained by being unprepared 249
 to secure peace be ready always for war 249
- Reagan, Ronald W. intelligence analysis 139
- Recall letters of, defined 250
- Recall of ambassador
 defined 250
- Receiving state
 defined 250
- Reciprocity basis for durable agreements 7 best diplomacy leaves other side reasonably satisfied 75
 defined 250
- Recognition criteria for 250 withholding from unworthy 250
- Record, off the basis for discussion with journalists 251
- Record, on the basis for discussions with journalists 251
- Recruitment standards for apprentice diplomats 89

- Reform
 - difficulties of 203
 - perils of domestic 251
- Refugee
 - defined 251
- Regala, Roberto
 - foreign policy is strategy of diplomacy 115
- Regala, Roberto, citing others
 - criteria for success of diplomacy by conference 53
 - diplomats solve problems made by other diplomats 83
- Regionalism
 - defined 251
- Rejection
 - defined 251
- Relations
 - ambassadorial, defined 252
 - breaking off in moments of crisis 252
 - close are not always amicable 252
 - diplomatic, defined 253
 - diplomatic, purpose 253
 - disadvantages of breaking 252
 - Muaawiya's hair 253
 - not a compliment but a convenience 253
 - utilitarian not moral significance 252
- Relations, conduct of
 - ambassadors responsible for overall 19
- Reliability
 - a moral imperative 253
- Religion
 - absence of impact on diplomatic theory 253
 - defined 253
 - weapon of political warfare 254
- Remarks, public
 - between the cliché and the indiscretion 254
- Renan, Ernest
 - truth and wisdom lie in nuances 199
- Reparations
 - defined 254
- Reporting
 - brevity in 254, 255
 - clarity and simplicity the key to good 254
 - diplomatic vs. journalistic 86

Reporting (cont.)

- displeasing as well as pleasing things must be sent 255
- do not compromise or condemn others 255
- draft telegrams as if you had to pay for them yourself 257
- duty to be true and honest 255
- economic, to promote exports 255
- exactitude in essential 255
- honest, a duty of diplomats 276
- journalistic contrasted with diplomatic 149
- memoranda of conversation 256
- needs confidentiality 266
- never report your own words 254
- perils of appearing to plead a foreign cause 99
- protecting confidences 265
- purpose of 255
- qualities of officers who report 139
- reward for honest and forthright 256
- unread by decisionmakers, useless 254

Replier, Agnes

- friendships fail when interests part 121

Representivity

- of national diversity by armies, diplomatic services 257

Reprisal

- repay the enemy in his own coin 257

Reputation

- for straight and honest dealing essential 92
- for trickiness will follow a diplomat 93

Reservation

- defined 257

Residence

- management of 257
- soul in guests who animate it 257

Respect

- and admiration for one's country, not affection 258
- commodity of value on the international scene 258

Reston, James

- advantages of international crises 59
- best journalism from alliance of officials, reporters 233
- devilish thing about foreign affairs 114
- foreign relations endless endeavor 119
- nations must limit objectives 201

- Retaliation
 - right of 316
- Revolution
 - owes its success to disbelief of opponents 258
 - temporary disturbance in the life of a state 203
 - vulnerability of established order 204
- Revolutionary powers
 - appeasement of 275
 - negotiations with 184
- Rewards
 - to be worthy of, itself a recompense 258
- Rhetoric
 - at international organizations 146
- Richardson, Elliot L.
 - contributions of ambassadors to policy 16
- Richelieu, Cardinal
 - benefits of uninterrupted foreign relations 120
 - candor and probity better than subtlety, finesse 39
 - choose friends for their power, not out of sentiment 121
 - diplomacy seeks durable arrangements 71
 - first, conciliate; failing that, crush 51
 - never fish for invitations 149
- Ridgway, Gen. Matthew B.
 - soldiers serve statesmen 318
- Risks
 - greatest the shirking of 259
- Rochefoucauld, François, Duc de la
 - great actions result of great purposes 245
 - negotiators too interested in success . . . 193
 - why we reconcile with our enemies 210
- Roetter, Charles
 - interference in internal affairs cause for expulsion 144
 - much depends on personality and ability of ambassadors 20
 - self-image vs. popular image of diplomats 86
- Roetter, Charles, citing others
 - interpreters must know what statesmen do 147
- Rogers, Will
 - conferences can scare up wars 53
 - diplomacy like good bookkeeping, always balances 59
 - diplomats essential to starting wars 91
 - why diplomats write notes 199

- Roosevelt, Franklin Delano peace can succeed only with will and power to enforce it 207
 stroking tigers won't make them kittens 26
- Roosevelt, Theodore courtesy should mark international intercourse 58 in military affairs listen to the military 171 just war better than acquiescence in wrong 309 speak softly and carry a big stick 69 war better than loss of national honor 131 war justifiable, even imperative . . . 310
- Rosebery, Lord
 cordiality between nations rests on mutual respect 57
- Rousseau de Chamoy ambassadors must decide without awaiting instructions 136 probity essential in ambassadors 236
- Rowan, Carl
 how diplomats get good press 233
- Rudeness utility of 259
- Rusk, Dean 142
 ambassadors are to take charge 16 diplomacy cannot always be public 244 measuring success in foreign policy 117 national interest in democracies 142 parliamentary diplomacy defined and described 77 persuasion through listening 160 quiet conversation better than public quarrel 265 summits tense as court of last resort in session 284
- Salisbury, Count logic of no use in diplomacy 161
- Salisbury, Lord be skeptical of soldiers' talk of strategic places 216 error of sticking to carcasses of dead policies 220
 if you believe the soldiers, nothing is safe 266 object of peace treaty to make war improbable 211
- Sallust ending wars very difficult 317
- Salutes
 defined 261

Sanctions

- adverse consequences for those who impose economic 262
- allies, enemies 263
- commercial restrictions as a substitute for war 262
- create their own antidotes 263
- economic imply ultimate resort to military 263
- economic, accompanying measures of pressure 262
- economic, are delusory 261
- economic, defined 261
- economic, duration of 262
- economic, timing of 263
- impact of boycotts 261
- motivation for 263
- political merits of boycotts 261
- revolutionary states often welcome 263
- unsuccessful instrument of intervention in internal affairs 144

Santayana, George

- delight in war is a merit in the soldier 308

Sarpi, Paolo

- lies I never tell . . . 160

Satow, Ernest

- avoid joining criticism of host country by natives 59
- blunders of precedence and protocol 242
- diplomacy defined 70
- guard against "localitis" 161
- law of nations not concerned with bribery 36
- to know a man's ideas have him speak his own language 155

Sa`ud, `Abdullah bin `Abd Al-Aziz Al-

- friends who won't help no better than enemies who don't harm 121

Saunders, Harold L.

- prenegotiation described 231

Schelling, Thomas C.

- agreements absent trust and good faith 62
- inability to concede may strengthen a negotiator 193

Schofield, John MacAllister

- statesmen must know military science 277

Secrecy

- avoid activity that would be seen as shameful 264
- ciphers 266
- diplomatic reporting 266
- essential in negotiations 191
- facilitates compromise 265

- Secrecy (cont.)
 in politics and diplomacy 265
 much in foreign affairs that cannot be disclosed 265 necessity of in negotiations 244 negotiation impossible without 264 obligation to participants in negotiations 189 protecting confidences of other states 265 purpose of classification 43 required in bargaining 34 the very soul of diplomacy 264 useful in settling quarrels 265 without it, covenants impossible 191
- Secretariat
 substitute for thought at the top 266
- Secretary
 diplomatic, defined 265
- Security
 absolute for one means absolute insecurity for others 267 don't be complacent toward enemies 266 don't be too impressed with soldiers talk of strategic places 216
 if you believe the soldiers, nothing is safe 266 revolutionary powers seek absolute 273
- Self-control diplomats must not speak without thought 267 necessary to dominate the emotions of others 267
- Self-interest, enlightened doctrine of 267
- Self-knowledge necessary in negotiators 268
- Sending state
 defined 268
- Seneca
 drinking is a voluntary madness 9 foremost art of kings power to endure hatred 129
 if a man not know to what port he steers . . . 201 peace expedient for the victor, necessary for the vanquished 212
- Sentiment alliances based on 11
 sentimental policy knows no reciprocity 268

- Serres, Jean and Wood, John R.
definition of diplomacy 75
how diplomatic professionalism is acquired 28 protection of nationals and their commerce 37
- Seton-Watson, Hugh description of amoral Soviet foreign policy 117
- Seward, William Henry comment on political appointees 27
- Shakespeare, William
how govern kingdom that know not how to use ambassadors? 14 peace is a very apoplexy, lethargy . . . 209
- Sherman, William Tecumseh legitimate object of war more perfect peace 315 more perfect peace is legitimate object of war 210
- Sherpas
defined 268
work of 285
- Shipping protection of 37
- Shultz, George P. diplomats and warriors 319 problems solved by not being too precise 230 walk in the middle and get hit from both sides 173 words count 321
- Silvercruys, Baron
most useful qualities of the diplomat 89
- Sincerity greatly facilitates the conduct of affairs 268 never question governments' 268
- Skills bureaucratic and diplomatic differ 269
- Smith, Gen. Walter Bedell outcome of war sets diplomatic possibilities 34
- Smith, Paul A., Jr. principles of propaganda 240
- Soldiers
diplomat the servant of 319 implement policies of statesmen by violence 274 statesman's junior partners 318
- Solzhenitsin, Aleksandr opposite of peace all political violence 210

- Sophocles hatred for enemies 100
- Sovereignty right of states to do as they please 270
- Sparta, King of impossible to attack one who agrees to arbitrate 29
- Spaulding, E. Wilder best diplomats interested in what they find at post 83 diplomatic and journalistic reporting contrasted 86
- Speech incisive form of action 270 style appropriate for ambassadors 202
- Spies
 ambassadors are titled 22 kinds of 270 know, are not known 270 qualities of good intelligence officers 139 unlicensed ambassadors 22
- Spouses
 diplomatic wives' support invaluable 271 instructions to on reassignment 271 no profession in which wives more important than diplomacy 271 role in moves incident to reassignment 271 wives are valuable auxiliaries 272
- Spring, Howard
 love never makes allies, hate does 11
- Stability foundation of a stable order relative security, insecurity 203 generates requirements for mediation 168 rests on international consensus about order 272 success of peace 314
- Staël, Germaine de friendships to be used or abandoned per circumstances 122
- Staff
 substitute for thought at the top 272
- Stalemate can be turned into agreement 272
- Stalin, J. V. sincere diplomacy no more possible than dry water . . . 321
- Stamina
 a negotiator must have 272

434 Index

State

defined 273

State system

defined 273

State, revolutionary no peace possible with 273 seeks absolute security, absolute insecurity for others 273

Statecraft

art of advancing interests by violence or nonviolence 274 deception central to most techniques of 62

defined 274

diplomacy as servant of 274

imitate the fox and lion 274 intelligence as component of 274 mediocrity in prefers tangible advantage . . . 274 negotiations as antidote to weakness 184

no greater fault than a vindictive peace 211

statesman incapable of should find another job 116

statesmen must cross the Rubicon not knowing . . . 274

virtue stripped of force reveals its own weakness 205

Statements

by foreign ministers 254

no nation's foreign policy can be ascertained from 275

States, revolutionary

defined 275

Statesmen

cannot afford to be moralists 174 contrasted with politicians 277 distinguished from bureaucrats 37 distinguished from politicians 277 do not despise any wisdom 138 duties of diplomats toward 276 good intentions vs. moral praiseworthiness and success 276 imprisoned by circumstance 42 must be acquainted with military science 277 qualities of good strategists 275 stand or fall on perception of trends 294 task of to anticipate and act 277 task to provide decent burial for the past . . . 277

- Status quo
 defined 277
 preservation of by weak states by creating moral consensus 278 strategy of defending 280
- Status quo ante bellum
 defined 277
- Steed, Wickham
 propaganda must fit policy as sabres fit scabbards 240
- Steiner, George
 each tongue a distinct window into the world 156
- Stendhal (Henri Beyle) defeated ruler should never be spared 304 every power wants neighbors weak and decadent 197
- Stern, Richard
 word is older than the state 321
- Stevenson, Adlai E., Jr.
 diplomat's life protocol, Geritol, alcohol 81 flattery—all right, if you don't inhale 110 nation's purposes always exceed its means 245 sound foreign policy impossible when politicized, criminalized 118
- Stinnett, Caskie
 diplomats tell you go to hell so you look forward to it 83
- Strategists qualities of far-sighted statesmen 275
- Strategy
 art of winning at least cost 77 bad, sinks good ideas 133 best is always to be strong 278
 coercive diplomacy 72 criteria for effective 279
 defined 278
 deterrence contrasted 279 diplomacy and 279
 diplomacy at start and end of war 318 diplomacy subject to logic of 278 diplomacy the silent bloodless stuff of 219 for victory 281 foreign policy is the strategy of diplomacy 115 grand, aims at planning peace 280 grand, defined 279
 if a man not know to what port he steers . . . 201 knowing capabilities, influencing intentions 39

Strategy (cont.)

- logic of paradoxical and ironic 280
- objectives and power 201
- of status quo powers 280
- policy, and diplomacy is its tactics 219
- refusal to negotiate 280
- role of diplomats and statesmen in 276
- tactical sacrifice essential to 280
- twin of diplomacy 279
- vital role of diplomacy in grand 279

Strength

- best strategy 278
- energy, size of nations 228
- God is for the big battalions 282
- might is above right, right proceeds from might 170
- must be known 281
- no state is forever strong or eternally weak 281
- sources of national 282
- strong states do what they will 281
- stronger the state, gentler the diplomats 281
- true restrains itself, true greatness sets its own limits 281
- what diplomats seek to depict in their state 281

Stubbornness

- as dangerous as appeasement 25

Subjugation

- kiss the hand you cannot withstand 282
- strategies for coping with 63

Subversion

- abuse of diplomacy 71
- defined 282

Summit meetings

- advantages and disadvantages 284
- as often diminish, not enhance, reputations 283
- can become not a forum for negotiation but a diversion 286
- combine drawbacks of both secret and open diplomacy 285
- dangers of a willowy euphoria 284
- distract from the policy process 283
- fumbles at leave the goal line open 283
- good entertainment but is it diplomacy? 285
- importance of preparation for 286
- negotiations at 286
- personal diplomacy risks ephemeral results 77

- Summit meetings (cont.) publicity-shy preparation for 285 talking is not always better than not talking 286
 the higher the summit the flimsier the agreements 285
 two great princes should never meet face to face 284 violate basic rule of negotiation 284
- Summits case for 285 nations touch at 201
- Sumner, William Graham want a war, nourish a doctrine 234
- Sunzi
 five kinds of spy 270 foreknowledge from espionage vital to success 104 to win without fighting is best 303 weapons are inauspicious instruments 113
- Superpower
 defined 287
- Surprise
 diplomats should not be taken by 287 sudden diplomacy the worst that can be practised 282
- Survival dependent on policy 287
- Suspicion
 begat by ignorance 287
- Swift, Jonathan arbitrary power tempting to princes 223 good manners put people at ease 163
- Sycophancy
 common source of mistaken policy 220
- Sylvester, Arthur
 information is power 138
- Sympathy
 contrasted with empathy in negotiation 287
- Szilassy, Gyula best diplomats ask only how to obtain and how to get it 84 diplomatic corps not a school of virtue 173 force and deception govern international relations 62
- Tacitus
 a bad peace is even worse than war 208 power not based on force lacks credibility 228

Tact

- diplomats need a feeling for what is fitting 289
- mark of superior minds 289
- sleepless 88

Tactics

- application of strategy 278

Talbott, Strobe

- arms control defense conducted by other means 30

Talk

- means of delay for statesmen 289

Talleyrand

- above all, not too much zeal! 323
- alliances require care, respect, mutuality to endure 11
- appointees to official positions 27
- consuls 56
- definition of diplomacy 73
- diplomacy not a science of art and duplicity 95
- diplomats as polite asses 221
- if people always understood, there'd be no history 130
- in critical situations, let women run things 59
- no occasion can justify a falsehood 160
- nonintervention means almost the same as intervention 198
- one can do everything with bayonets except sit on them 201
- only good principle is have none 175
- smile and composure get one by everywhere 220
- territorial expansion condemned 54
- the perfect minister of foreign affairs 172
- true strength restrains itself; true greatness . . . 281

Tariffs

- wars over generally raise 289

Tarle, E. V.

- aggression usually disguised as self-defense 6

Tasso, Torquato

- ambassadors must be good orators 202

Taste

- diplomats need a feeling for beauty 289

Technology

- brings us together before shock absorbers ready 290
- lessens distance and sharpens shock 290
- radios, TVs, and jet planes 290

Tensions

- inflare resentments, harden positions 290

- Territory
 ceded is a constant memorial of humiliation 290
- Terrorism
 defined 290
- Thayer, Charles W.
 art of deceit not quality of modern diplomats 61 diplomacy contrasted with business, the law 47 diplomat seeks to convey strength as well as friendship 281 honesty is wisdom in a diplomat 130 journalists and diplomats 244 knowledge of adversary's psychology invaluable 4 lawyers contrasted with diplomats 157 limitations of propaganda 240 nations judged by representatives abroad 90 propaganda the handmaiden of diplomacy 241 reputation for trickiness will dog a diplomat 93 seek admiration and respect, not affection, for your country 258
- Thayer, Charles W., quoting others never report what you said 254
- Theory
 common sense the source of 253
- Thompson, Kenneth W. deficiencies of military men as peacemakers 318 diplomats bear worldview at odds with compatriots 85 foreign relations a nuisance to most nations 120 legislative intervention in diplomacy 159 principles compete with one another in diplomacy 234 role of press attachés 32
- Thompson, Kenneth W., citing others men without professional knowledge should not be diplomats 15
- Threats
 abstain from threats and insulting words 291 best enemies are those who make them 291
 bluffing 290
 credibility of madmen greatest 291 credible bluff more effective than disbelieved sincere 35 deterrence 70
 don't draw the sword when rattling the scabbard will do 113 limited actions to enhance credibility 291 phases of military 291 response to determined by geopolitical circumstances 125 without power like powder without ball 291

Thucydides

- avoid complaisance toward enemies 266
- behave as friend or foe as circumstances dictate 66
- impossible to attack one who agrees to arbitrate 29
- justice depends on backing by power 152
- magnanimity can secure peace 163
- men begin with blows, resort to words in a reverse 64
- nothing is unreasonable if it is useful 229

Time

- delay is useful product of foreign ministries 64
- needs help to resolve conflicts 184

Title of ambassador

- coveted by the unqualified 15

Toasts

- skill of professional diplomats 291

Tocqueville, Alexis de

- hard for democracies to begin, end wars 68
- propensity of democracies for impulsive action 67
- reform dangerous to evil governments 251

Togo, Shigenori

- final offer not inevitably the last 109

Torcy, Marquis de

- standards for recruitment of diplomats 89
- training of diplomats 90

Tour d'horizon

- defined 292

Tour of duty

- defined 292
- time required to become effective 292

Trade

- ambassadors must promote 48
- diplomacy especially concerned with 48

Trade, free

- breaks barriers between nations 292

Training

- ambassador has duty to tutor 292
- apprenticeship of young diplomats 28
- objectives of diplomatic 90

Transactions

- something-for-something 293

Translation

- courtesy translations useful 293
- right to use a neutral language 247
- unmasks nonsense 293

Transnational

- defined 293

Treaties

- last like roses and young girls 7
- observed while in harmony with interests 7
- of alliance not by nature permanent 12
- republics more faithful to than princes 54
- tend to bind weaker party only 293
- understandings with friends more durable 297

Treaty

- defined 294

Trends

- perception of 294

Trevelyan, Lord

- how to draft telegrams 257

Triumph

- victory and defeat the negation of diplomacy 294

Trône, Le

- diplomacy an obscure art hidden in deceit 76

Truce

- perils of 294

Truman, Harry S.

- military secrets 265

Trust

- building enhancement of into agreements 295
- fostering essential to carry of a bluff 294
- how to enhance in negotiations 294
- no substitute for 61
- only agree to what you can do 297

Truth

- always speak it and never embellish it 65
- first casualty in war 239
- not for everyone 160
- plain statement highest diplomacy 295

Tusi, Nizam al-Mulk

- ambassadors are intelligence collectors 16
- kings enhance their dignity by treating envoys well 236

442 Index

Twain, Mark

- always do right . . . 174
- formalities, moralities of statesmanship 40
- true statesman does not despise any wisdom 138

Ugaki, Kazushige

- diplomacy and domestic politics 75

Ultimata

- be prepared to carry through 35
- criteria for effectiveness 297
- final offer not necessarily the last 109

Ultimatum

- defined 297

Understandings

- unwritten between friends more durable than treaties 297

UNESCO Charter

- ignorance of other's ways a cause of war 60
- wars begin in the minds of men 316

United Nations

- appeal in certainty it will let you down 298
- contributions of public debate 298
- helps diplomacy arrive at agreements 297
- indispensable before it has become effective 298
- not a legislature or a court but forum for diplomacy 298
- quiet use of facilities effective 146
- rhetoric at 146
- substitute for bilateral embassies 298

Unprecedented

- suspect term in foreign policy 299

Useful

- means nothing was accomplished 299

Uti possidetis

- defined 299

Valéry, Paul

- only treaties settling ulterior motives count 7

Values

- ease communication, interests bind 301
- political cultures value those they most lack 305

Vanity

- dangers of in negotiators 301
- disintegrating influence of 110

- Vanity (cont.)
 “localitis” as 161 susceptibility of diplomats to 301
- Vansittart, Robert, 1st Baron
 delay is useful product of foreign ministries 64
- Vauvenargues, Marquis de peace is really only a short truce . . . 209
- Vegetius essential to know character of enemy 138
- Venue
 capital of weaker adversary 302
 defined 302
- Vera y Cúñiga, Juan Antonio de dissembling is excusable in public business 93
- Verification
 defined 302
 in peacemaking 213
- Vice consulate
 defined 302
- Victor
 bargaining position diminishes with time 302
- Victors have right to impose what they please on vanquished 303
- Victory attainment of objective for which conflict was waged 303
 best secured through magnanimity 163 certain peace is better and safer than anticipated 303 counts for nothing if not used 305 defeated rulers should never be spared 304
 defined 303
 diplomacy translates into political terms 304 false hope of sacrifices certain good for uncertain better 138 in victory, magnanimity . . . 303 most complete to compel enemy to give up 304 nature of insolent and haughty 303 next to battle lost, greatest misery is battle gained 304 no substitute for in war 317 nothing more dangerous than 304 painless not celebrated 304 political, following military defeat 58 problems of victory better than those of defeat 304 provides opportunity to secure peace 317

444 Index

Victory (cont.)

- spare those not bloodthirsty in warfare 303
- victory a more difficult art than war 304
- wisdom and skill required to use 305

Vienna Convention

- on consular relations 305
- on diplomatic relations 305

Virtues

- most valued rarest 305

Visa

- defined 305

Vision

- where there is none, the people perish 305

Voltaire

- God is for the big battalions 282
- politics and arms 319

Voting

- how decided in international organizations 305

Walsingham, Francis

- if there were no knaves . . . 103

Walters, Vernon

- difference between the diplomat and military man 91
- those who object to flattery 111

War

- aim of is better peace 315
- balance between military and diplomatic considerations 320
- begets war, good will begets good will . . . 318
- begins in the minds of men 316
- better bored diplomats than dead young men 81
- cold wars are covert and protracted 308
- conferences as cause of 53
- crimes, threat to prosecute increases defiance 59
- defined as punishment 314
- delay until others wane 64
- delightful only to those with no experience of it 307
- diplomacy in wartime 320
- diplomatic contacts during 320
- economics of 309
- form alliances with neighbors 307
- guerrilla wins if he does not lose 309
- guerrillas not interested in compromise 309

War (cont.)

- hell for soldiers, unemployment for diplomats 318
- if one side breaks the rules the other is not bound 315
- impact of 309
- instrument of policy 308
- just war better than acquiescence in injustice 309
- justifiable and imperative upon honorable men 310
- justified by apprehensions of danger 28
- justified to curb growth of dangerous power 310
- logic of contrasted with logic of peace 313
- lost, not won 316
- makes victors stupid and vanquished vengeful 307
- means to establish peace on more favorable terms 91
- means to pursue or defend justice 315
- military vs. diplomatic influence during 311
- money is not the sinews of 227
- mother of peace 211
- must be regarded as only a means to peace 307
- noncombatants most ferocious 314
- not justified to enfeeble states whose power may become a threat 310
- not true it settles nothing 307
- only way to abolish is to make peace heroic 307
- peace preserved by preparation for 70
- peoples more eager than governments for 308
- purpose of is more perfect peace 315
- purpose of is peace 210
- sparked by predisposition to take offense 149
- starting through negotiations 312
- sterile of positive result 317
- success is victory, success of peace stability 314
- surest way to prevent is not to fear 314
- threats an alternative to 113
- three principal causes of quarrel 308
- too important to be left to the generals 307
- total 317
- victory is a more difficult art 304
- where to fight 311
- without victory 317

War strategy

- diplomacy at start and end of war 318
- importance of moral as well as military position in 312
- outcome of conflict 313

War, causes of

- almost as many popular as royal wars 314
- crowd psychology 67
- popular passion 308
- three principal causes of quarrel 308
- uncertainties bred by changing policy of legislatures 159

War, conventional

- defined 308

War, guerrilla

- defined 309

War, limited

- defined 310
- prerequisites for 310

War, objectives of

- as little harm as possible 313
- decide how to end before initiating hostilities 313
- fatal to enter war without will to win it 312
- first reckon the cost 312
- keep expenditures low 309
- no substitute for victory 317
- stay your hand or strike to kill 312
- strike at a king, you must kill him 312
- to live unhurt in peace 312
- victory, not prolonged indecision 317

War, state of

- diplomatic contacts under 320
- normal condition of international relations 316

War, termination of

- achieve basic aims before truce 211
- almost impossible without complete ruin of one side 318
- blindness to need for 313
- diplomacy 308
- discussion of conditions of peace in wartime 313
- do not drive your enemy to await revenge 316
- durable peace is moderate and just 316
- essential question 311
- needs consent of the victors 317
- not possible at pleasure of a prince 226
- peace negotiations the war after the war 188
- peace without victory 206
- quickest way to end a war is to lose it 317
- role of diplomats in 317

- War, termination of (cont.) timing determined by loser, not victor 316 transforms the future 309 when outcome unclear 317
- Warriors
 as diplomats 319 civilians too timid before 319 difference from diplomats 91 diplomats and 319
 infirmities of as peacemakers 319 political judgments fatuous 319
- Washington, George espionage and secrecy are necessary 103 honesty best policy in public as in private life 130 no nation has right to intervene in internal affairs 197
 no real favors from nation to nation 109 passionate attachments between nations condemned 109 preparing for war preserves peace 70 strict neutrality preferred policy 197
 to secure peace be ready always for war 249 trust no nation farther than its interests 141
- Watson, Adam abuse of diplomacy in ideological warfare 71 ambassadors as advocates 5 bargaining large part of diplomacy 34 composition of negotiating teams 179 deceit self-defeating 62 diplomacy aspect of politics requiring confidentiality 265 diplomacy especially concerned with trade 48 diplomacy helps form and restrain foreign policy 116 diplomacy in war termination 317 economic balance like strategic balance 97 foreign aid can rent not buy allegiance 9 ideology accords awkwardly with diplomacy 133 impermanence of treaties of alliance 12 independence purchased through insecurity 134
 informality 135
 interest in survival makes coalitions transcending ideology 134 international vs. domestic law 156 journalistic reporting 151 justice better served by diplomacy than war 4 level of démarches determines influence on decisions 65

Watson, Adam (cont.)

- means of buttressing alliances against change 11
- measuring the power of a state 227
- ministers need advice from experts 172
- negotiation rests on possibility of coercion 183
- peace the policy of status quo satisfied states 210
- protecting confidences of other states 265
- the more empathy the more effective the diplomacy 99
- uses of force by alliances 114
- utility of collegiality in diplomatic corps 57
- war as instrument of policy 308
- war means to pursue or defend justice 315

Weakness

- appeasement of the weak unnecessary and unwise 24
- diplomatic responses to 184
- imperiousness of feebleness supported by force 43
- in allies 13
- invites assault so the weak must seem strong 320
- peace the policy of 210
- promotes conciliation and alliances 10
- weak states do what they must 281

Weapons

- not the tools of the enlightened 113
- tools for changing enemies' minds 320
- words as 23

Welfare of nations

- dependent on ambassadors 22

Wellesley, Victor

- diplomacy not policy but agent of it 219
- economic vs. military sanctions 263
- finance policy a diplomatic weapon 109
- grand strategy aims planning peace 280
- greatest of risks the shirking of risk 259
- no greater fault than a vindictive peace 211
- preponderance of power will not endure 129
- qualities of good strategists and statesmen 276
- tariff wars generally end in higher tariffs 289
- task of statesmen to provide decent burial for the past 277

Wellesley, Victor, citing others

- diplomacy of women like that of eunuchs 81
- much in foreign affairs cannot be disclosed 266
- peace at best a truce on battlefield of Time 207

- Wellington, Duke of nations never so grateful as benefactors expect 127
- White, E. B. agreements source of disagreements 247
- Wicquefort, Abraham de state cannot do without ambassadors 14
- Wicquefort, Abram de how ambassadors can influence ministers 172 principal functions of ambassadors described 17
- Wight, Martin power to enemy's rear natural ally 100 remote allies are preferable 13
- Will
 may play as great a role as power 320
- Wilson, Woodrow
 no nation fit to sit in judgment on another 175
 open covenants, openly arrived at 245
 peace without victory 208 principles are threads in the labyrinth of circumstances 234 self-respect too high a price for peace 210
- Windsor, Duke of rules for public appearances 243
- Wisdom comes once other alternatives exhausted 321 precipitation and anger contrary to wise deliberation 24
 to simulate folly 112
- Wives of ambassadors community leadership and other duties of 271
- Wives of diplomats no profession in which their role more helpful, important 271 support invaluable 271 valuable auxiliaries 272
- Women
 in critical situations, let them run things 59
- Wood, John R. and Serres, Jean
 definition of diplomacy 75
 how diplomatic professionalism is acquired 28 protection of nationals and their commerce 37 protocol defined 242
- Words
 as weapons 23 care in choosing and reporting 321

Words (cont.)

- concealment of bad deeds 321
- decent man's 102
- fidelity to those of negotiators 49
- form and reform states 321
- jaw-jaw better than war-war 321
- more regrettable than silence 92
- must have no relation to actions 321
- recourse to, after reverses in war 64

Wotton, Henry

- definition of an ambassador 13

Wright, Quincy

- balance of power defined 225
- belligerent nationalism of parliaments 159

Wrong, Hume

- qualities for a successful diplomat 89

Yamagata, Aritomo

- diplomacy should be backed by power 78

Young, Andrew

- UN not a legislature or court but diplomatic forum 298

Zartman, I. William

- conflict resolution awaits a ripe moment 4
- conflict resolution requires intolerable situation 169
- mediators must use carrots and sticks 164
- only time resolves conflicts, but time needs help 184
- principles poor guide to choice in mediation 235
- success of mediation tied to ripe moment 168

Zartman, I. William and Berman, Maureen R.

- bluffing requires fostering appearance of trustworthiness 294
- building trust and confidence in agreements 295
- convincing the other side to negotiate 231
- defining areas of agreement, disagreement to get to the table 230
- how to enhance trust between negotiators 295
- negotiators need stamina 272
- propitious moment for negotiation considered 188
- sympathy distinguished from empathy 287
- turning stalemate into agreement 272
- when negotiation is necessary 177

Zeal

- above all, not too much 323
- sudden diplomatic success very costly 282

Zhou Enlai

- diplomacy continuation of war by other means 75

Zhuangzi

- always speak the truth and never embellish it 66

Zhuge Liang

- how to select personnel 215